

GREEN SOCCERMEN ENCOUNTER LIONS

Unheralded Western Maryland Team Faces Booters on New Beaver Field

Encountering their only non-league opponent of the campaign, Coach Jeffrey's undefeated soccer team will face an unheralded Western Maryland eleven on New Beaver practice field at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The Green Terror booters are making a northern trip this week, meeting Army at West Point Wednesday and Penn State tomorrow. The only impressive spot in the current record of the visiting booters is a close battle with Navy. The Middies were extended to annex the contest 4-to-3.

McKane, Nittany goalie from South Africa, who is flashing varsity form in his first year of intercollegiate competition, will continue his protection of the net from alien scores tomorrow. Captain Scotty McLane and Strimlin will occupy their regular backfield posts, while Hutchinson and Harvey, who have been alternating at right full, may receive a part time holiday in favor of Grupp. Strimlin may be shifted from left full to assist the second-string right fullback some time during the fray.

Anderson Injured

SPECIAL TRAIN TICKETS GO ON SALE TUESDAY

Tickets for the special train to Philadelphia for the Penn game will be on sale Tuesday morning in the treasurer's office. Penn game tickets can be secured at the A. A. office until Thursday.

Students may secure reserved seats for the Ducknell game by presenting their athletic passes at the A. A. office November 12 and 13.

Anderson, fleet outside left, will view the Green Terror's from the bench tomorrow, Jeffrey hoping that the rest will aid the healing of Anderson's injured ankle. Tyson will fill the vacant forward berth.

At the inside left position, Messer will alternate with Travis Debus, flashy sophomore threat, and Shurrell will share the center forward post. Masters, another sophomore who played his first varsity game on Friday, is vying with Giammar for the inside right assignment. Lut, at outside right, completes the Lion attack.

Yale, last season's undefeated league leaders, meets Dartmouth today. A stalemate with Penn early in the current campaign, may cost Old Eli a chance to repeat as champions.

VARSITY TO MEET ORANGE HARRIERS

Will Defend Undefeated 3-Year Record Against Strong Syracuse Team

Coach Nate Cattmell's championship harriers will defend an unblemished record of three years' standing from the onslaught of a formidable Syracuse pack at the Hill Inn 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

For three years the Lion runners have emerged victorious from every competition in which they have entered. They have to their credit three intercollegiate cross country championships, and victories over Syracuse, Pitt, N. Y. U., Lehigh. Tomorrow Syracuse will present the most serious threat faced in this period.

The Orange squad will enter the run fresh from overwhelming triumphs over Pitt, Columbia, and Hobart. Clean sweeps were recorded in the Pitt and Hobart meets, while Columbia bowed by the score of 19-to-35. Dean Orange Star.

Walt Dean, who placed ninth in last year's championship competition, topped across the finish mark first in each of the three Hill contests. Dean is supported ably by Belanger, plebe star last year, Fairbrother and Sahwin of the team which placed while Stoneberg has come to the varsity from last season's undefeated yearling machine.

Novak and Newton will be at the tackle posts. Although Newton is playing his first season of varsity football he has shown ability on both offensive and defensive. Hank Obst and Al Van Ness will be at the guard posts in tomorrow's encounter.

Edwards cannot start. Herb Eschbach's continued absence from the line-up will place Marty McAndrews at the center post.

Meyer Kaplan will assume his regular position at left end with other Edwards at Stahley at the other wing. Cal Shawley and Toots Panace-
