Lions Encounter Bucknell in Twenty-third Tilt Before Houseparty Fans Tomorrow; 'Bisons Better Than Ever,' Writer Says

Snavelly Has Strongest Team of Career in Scribe's Opinion

RESERVE STRENGTH AIDS 1929 LEWISBURG ELEVEN

Lion Opponents Debat Rivals By Scores Much Larger Than Last Season

By VICTOR H. OLEYAR Sports Editor of "The Penn State Collegian" From present indications Coach Carl Snavelly has the best team this year that he has had in his three years as mentor of the Bucknell team. In '27, Snavelly's first year, the Bisons were fair, and succeeded in beating State for the first time since 1900, 13-7. Last year's Bisons were better, but they barely eked out a win over the Lions, 6-0.

This year's eleven, however, seem to be the best yet. Snavelly's team has done everything last season's team did and more. Schuykill held Eddie Halck's team to a 7-0 score, this year the score was 35-0. Lafayette played Bucknell to a 0-0 tie last year, this year the Bison won, 6-1. Gettysburg stamped the Bisons, 14-12, last season, while this year the final tally showed Bucknell, 23; Gettysburg, 9. Villanova scored a 20-6 victory in '28, last Saturday the Bison availed and triumphed 9-0. Temple and Bucknell fought to a 7-7 draw last Thanksgiving Day, this season the Bisons, 10; Temple, 11. With only one exception, the Washington and Jefferson game, the Bisons have done better this season than last year's eleven did against the same opponents.

Has Reserve Material For the first time in his three years at Bucknell, Snavelly has a sufficient amount of reserve material at Bellefonte Academy, his first change, number of reserves. In his first two years at Bucknell, good reserves were not common, so Snavelly was forced to build up a list of reserve players who were just as able as the first-crowd will witness the show Sales reported are above last year's mark already.

Snavelly showed what a number of splendid men he had, when he put up a number of singers in against the Villanova varsity at Scranton last Saturday. The reserves completely outplayed the Main Lincs. Even Koziak, Ross and Fly were able to tear up the country on this topic.

Lewisburg Team Seeks Third Victory Over Nittany Machine

QUAKER WIN GIVES HOPE OF PENN STATE SUCCESS

Ricker Absent from Daily Drills For Game—Edwards To Fill Regular End Position

Determined to overcome the Bison jinx which has dogged its trail for two years, Penn State's mighty football machine, urged on by its victorious battle with Penn. Saturday, will encounter a devastating Bucknell eleven on New Beaver field at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

With the stimulus of a 9-6-0 victory over Villanova Saturday still lingering over the Bison camp, Coach Carl Snavelly will send his warriors into the fray bent upon turning the swelling tide of Lion victory into the third defeat in as many years at the hands of the Lewisburg team. Undeafened on New Beaver field this season, the Lion gridmen will face their Bucknell opponents prepared to haul their strength against the Blue and Gold wall with all the force displayed against the Quakers Saturday's win against the third consecutive Nittany success and the sixth victory of the season.

Snavelly-coached Bison teams registered victories over Penn State teams in 1927 and 1928. Previous to the fatal encounter during these seasons Bucknell gridmen had failed to defeat the Lions since 1900. The Lions fell to a 13-6-7 defeat in the first contest. The Bison triumph last year was by a 6-0-0 margin. The two games lost to Bucknell were the only contests lost on New Beaver field during the last two seasons.

Defeated Once This Year The Bucknell machine has met defeat but once this year and has rolled up impressive scores against the majority of its opponents. The sole loss was a 11-6-6 setback administered by Washington and Jefferson early in the season.

Coach Snavelly has developed his team around veterans of the 1928 aggregation.
