

CHAIRMAN SELECTS ANNUAL HE-SHE DANCE ASSISTANTS

Committee chairmen for the women's annual He-She dance to be held in the Almyo January 10 have been appointed by Miss Anne E. McGuire '31 general chairman.

The advertising of the dance is under the direction of Miss Laura H. Sweeley '31 while Miss Marion G. Reeser '31 heads the committee on invitations. Miss Miriam Mendelsohn '31 has charge of finances and Miss Rose A. Bari '31, decorations. Miss Elizabeth Crozier '31, is head of the music committee with Miss Marie Kocoposki '31 in charge of entertainment and Miss Mary R. Kist '31 chairman of the clean-up committee.

AG ALUMNUS WILL TALK ON TRAINING VALUE WEDNESDAY

Mr. Horst '16, secretary of the Pennsylvania Potato Growers association, will address freshmen of the Agricultural school on the opportunities for trained men in agriculture and related fields in room 100 of the Horticulture building at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

M. Horst, who is also associate editor of the Pennsylvania Farmer, weekly agricultural magazine, was president of his graduating class here '16. L. H. Dennis '12, deputy superintendent of public instruction and director of vocational education in Pennsylvania, spoke before the freshmen Wednesday.

FIRESIDE DISCUSSION GROUPS

A series of fireside sessions, to be held by various fraternities, has been planned by the Y. M. C. A. cabinet, according to Robert J. Porter '30, secretary of the cabinet. In order to determine the subjects in which students are interested, a questionnaire will be sent to each fraternity. Faculty members who have been named to speak will choose their subjects from the results of the questionnaire.

MOVIE REPLACES YEAR BOOK

An Ohio State motion picture, which contains "shots" of football games, commencement exercises, and campus views, is being prepared for distribution among Ohio high schools. It will take the place of a publication which has been published yearly and aims to attract students to Ohio State.

Campus Bulletin

Freshmen reporters will not report to the regular Thursday night class. The next meeting will be January 9.

All inter-unit teams desiring to enter the tournament should sign up at Recreation hall bulletin board or call Donald M. Parkes, 231-J, between 12 and 1 o'clock or after 6 o'clock.

Students interested in the interclass boxing tournament are requested to report to one of the first assistant managers at Recreation hall immediately.

Fraternities desiring to enter the Interfraternity debating contest are requested to call John L. Bainhart '30 and John W. Landsay '31 at the Alpha Chi Rho fraternity immediately.

An all-College subscription dance will be held in the Alpha Gamma Rho house January 1, under the auspices of the Dairy Science club. The subscription fee of $1 will be used to help finance the judging teams of the department.
