

COURTMEN BATTLE PANTHERS TONIGHT

Lions Invade Pitt Stronghold For Annual Game—Play Tech Tomorrow

A revamped Nittany quintet embarked this morning on its annual invasion of Pittsburgh to do battle with Charley Hyatt and his Panther mates tonight and to seek another victory over an ill-fated Carnegie Tech five tomorrow night.

The new Lion line-up, which has Mark Macomb and Sid Salzman at forwards, Bland, center, and Stahley and Lee, guards, will face the acid test when the opening whistle sends them against the Pitt machine. Miller, Davis, Leyda, Moss, and Welber were also slated to make the trip.

Wally Leyda, who teamed with Rod Fry at forward during the first half of the season, has been shifted to center on the eleven quintet. Coach Hartmann has changed the line-up almost completely since the last floor contest.

Starting off early in December, the high-scoring Panthers swept successively over Muskingum, Indiana, Northwestern, Iowa, Grove City, Ohio State, and Nebraska. Montana State threatened to stop the flying Carl-or-coached outfit but the redoubtable Hyatt reached the peak of his bright career to score twelve field goals against the Western champions and give Pitt a 38-10-37 victory.

The Panthers continued their stride as Georgetown and Notre Dame were overwhelmed and Carnegie Tech downed twice. Then came the downfall of Pitt hopes for a national title when Syracuse succeeded in breaking the twelve game winning streak by coming with a 10-10-29 victory. The Panthers came back the next night to defeat Fordham. Notre Dame was easily beaten at South Bend last Saturday night, 25-10-16.

Carnegie Tech lost their eighth straight game when Pitt defeated them the second time to take the city championship. The Tartans have been nosed out all season by comparatively small scores, however, and are pointing for a decision over the Nittany Lions tomorrow night.

The line-ups:

Penn State	Pitt
Macomb	Hyatt
Salzman	Wright
Bland	Coan
Stahley	Arten
Lee	Iovanna

Spiedel Inaugurates Blindfold Wrestling

The "blindfold test" has now been added to the wrestling team's training schedule.

Wrestling when blindfolded is the novel training method adopted by Coach Charlie Spiedel to pique his charges for the season's campaign. Under the system a blindfolded man fights with another who is not blindfolded.

The coach claims that the new plan develops both skill and a defensive style. It also tends to prepare his men for any surprise attack, he believes.

to even old scores. Bomi fought Co-roy twice last year, in the dual meet and in the Intercollegiate, but each time lost by a very narrow margin. This year he feels that the decision will be reversed.

Al Lewis, fiery 115-pound fighter, is scheduled to mix things with Ed Borchert. Teriot hope, who has won three out of four starts this season.

Captain Klepac, with four victories to his credit, will face the unexpected but clever Charonovsky as the attraction in the next setoff. Charonovsky, winner over Captain Klepac of West Virginia, has improved considerably since that meet and is expected to give a flashy exhibition against the Western Maryland ace.

Appearing in a Nittany ring for the first time since last year, Bill Stubble, heavy-hitting veteran probably will oppose Norm Burnett, who won the season against New York university Saturday.

As the climax of the meet Captain Matty McAndrews, slugging Lion heavyweight will exchange blows with Ed Parnuta, who has won two out of four bouts for the Teriors this year.

LION WRESTLERS MEET PRINCETON

Coach Charlie Spiedel May Send Revamped Line-up Against Tigers Tomorrow

Leaving their lair in the Nittany mountains for the first time this season, Lion wrestlers will journey to Princeton, N. J., where they meet the powerful Tiger mat team tomorrow.

Princeton has lost to only one opponent so far this season. Led high by a score of 19-10-11 and Michigan by a score of 21-10-15 have overwhelmed the Orange and Black members. The Tigers, however, have defeated Duke, North Carolina, and Columbia.

Coach Charlie Spiedel and his charges will leave State College at noon today. Although several last-minute changes may be made, the coach has selected the line-up that in all probability will face the New Jersey team.

Changes in Line-up

In the opening match either Jimmy Hartings or Tom Paxson will face Colmore, the Princeton flash and conqueror of Lehigh's national A. A. U. champion Luvy Cowell will not take the mats against him, a newcomer in the Tiger fold.

Captain Hubler will tackle Kent, an Orange and Black veteran who promises to show up as championship timber this year. The 115-pound bout will probably find Karl Karer against Myers, another new wrestler of the Princeton colors.

Endeavoring to bolster the weak spots in his team, Coach Spiedel may place Campbell in the 155-pound bout. In that event Paul will oppose Royster, while Paul Long may go in against Hooker, veteran Tiger 165-pounder.

Patice, if in condition, will see his first action of the season against either Landner or Stawbridge in the 175-pound setoff. The unhampered battle will see Fisher and Brinfield, Princeton's ace-in-the-hole, in action.

Rekers Wins Easily in Meadowbrook 2-Mile; To Enter N.Y.A.C. Contest

His easy, ground-devouring stride carrying him across the finish line more than one hundred yards in the lead, Paul Rekers followed his brilliant performance of the Millrose meet with a sparkling victory in the Meadowbrook game 2-mile run at Philadelphia Wednesday night. Rekers' time was 9 minutes 27 seconds, guaranteeing all for the longevity of the present intercollegiate record, 9 minutes, 30 1-5 seconds.

The Nittany runner's performances have won for him an invitation to the New York A. C. meet Monday night. He will compete in either the mile or 3000 meters run. Coach Nate Cartmell plans to enter Chief Meisinger and Dick Detweiler in the New York races.

Disregarding the furious pace of a competitor in the early stages of the run, Rekers ran his own race and swept into the lead to lap half the field. Dean of Penn was second, far to the rear.

McDowell qualified in the 15-yard high hurdles, only to be eliminated in the semi-finals. Both Marzucco in the 45-yard dash and Robinson in the 2-mile were unplaced.

LIKE TWO PENS for the Price of One

—a Pocket Pen for Classroom Notes, and a Desk Pen for Your Room—Guaranteed for Life!

If you buy a Parker Pocket Duofold you now can have a Desk Set without buying a second pen. Or if you buy a Parker Duofold Desk Set you also now receive a Duofold Pocket Pen guaranteed for life. Either way, you save the price of a second pen—$5, $7 or $10, according to the model.

By adding a tapered end, you convert your Duofold Pocket Pen to a Desk Pen in 10 seconds. By removing the taper and putting on the Pocket Cap you restore it to a Pocket Duofold on leaving office or home.

Thus every owner of a Parker Pocket Pen owns half a Desk Set. Getting a Desk Base completes it. We now include pen taper free with that.

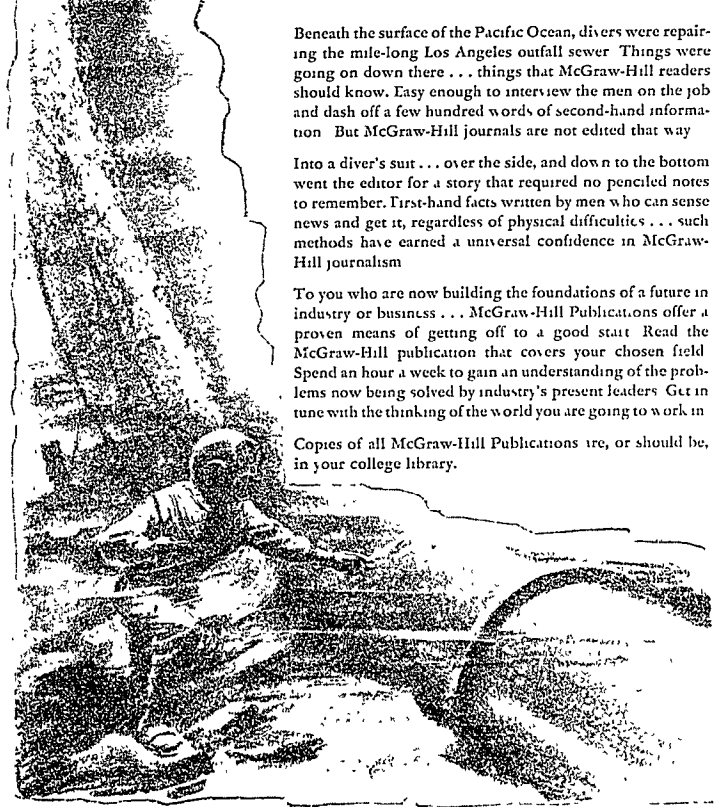

And to every buyer of a Parker Desk Set, we now give a Pocket Cap with Clip. Thus his Desk Pen is also a Pocket Pen—like 2 Pens for the price of one Set. Be sure to ask for the Pocket Cap with your Desk Set. Parker's new streamlined Duofold Pens (and Pencils to match) set lower in the pocket than others because the clip starts at the top—not halfway down the cap. This smart, balanced shape feels "at home" in the hand—and writes with our famous 47th improvement—Pressureless Touch.

—and so the editor turned diver

Beneath the surface of the Pacific Ocean, divers were repairing the mile-long Los Angeles outfall sewer. Things were going on down there... things that McGraw-Hill readers should know. Easy enough to interview the men on the job and dash off a few hundred words of second-hand information. But McGraw-Hill journals are not edited that way.

Into a diver's suit... over the side, and down to the bottom went the editor for a story that required no penciled notes to remember. First-hand facts written by men who can sense news and get it, regardless of physical difficulties... such methods have earned a universal confidence in McGraw-Hill journalism.
