

Lion Boxers Swamp Quaker Foes 6-1; Grapplers Fall Before Midshipmen 15-9

M'ANDREWS LOSES BOUT TO MERRICK

Lewis Knocks Out Opponent in Second Round—Chaikowsky Beats Captain Horne

Penn State's fistie sons fired a fusillade of leather-bound shot into Pennsylvania boxing ranks in Wightman Hall Saturday afternoon, felling their Quaker foes in six of the seven ring skirmishes.

Captain Marty McAndrews dropped the only bout of the meet, losing an extra-round decision to Frank Merrick, undefeated heavyweight. Merrick started off strong, sticking stiff lefts into Marty's face to earn the edge in the first round.

Marty turned the tables in the second stanza, dazing his gigantic foe with smashing lefts to the jaw. He resumed his aggressive offense in the last round, but the judges ordered an extra session. Although Marty floored Merrick for a no-count knockdown, the Quaker heavyweight retaliated with hard left jabs to win the decision and keep his record of victories unbroken.

Chaikowsky Wins

The other extra-round verdict went to Alex Chaikowsky in the 160-pound setto. Punching with both hands, Captain Horne of Pennsylvania carried the fight in the first two rounds. Chaikowsky came back in the third round, however, and jabbed Horne at will. In the extra session the Lion middlegeweight was all over Horne, hitting him with ease.

Bill Struble had things his own way in the light-heavyweight clash, diving home punches to the face and body of his burly foe, MacLean. The Quaker was on the defensive from ring to ring.

The opening bout was hard-fought, Julius Epstein, 115-pound title-holder, gaining the verdict over Mike Houdin, clever Quaker, after three grueling rounds. Both bantamweights reached on long, left jabs, with Epstein on the offensive most of the way.

Stoop Conquers Schadel

Davey Stoop came into his own in the 125-pound setto, pummeling Marvin Schadel, gamester and conqueror of Fitzgerald, Navy champion Davey went after Schadel at the opening going, throwing hard lefts and rights into the body of his touted rival at will. The Pennsylvania weathered the storm, however, by holding off Stoop with a left jab after a fey second round.

Hanging up his first win in four bouts, Bon Casoni outpunched Meyer Saslow in a spirited slugfest. The rival 135-pounders were evenly matched, Casoni gaining the edge by dropping his Quaker foe for a count of nine early in the second round.

Al Lewis added one more knockout to his list when Refetee Bryan Hayes stopped his bout with Rosenbloom in the second round. The Pennsylvania welterweight was practically out on his feet.

The results follow:
115-pound class—Epstein, Penn State, won decision over Houdin, Penn, three rounds.
125-pound class—Stoop, Penn State, won decision over Schadel, Penn, three rounds.
135-pound class—Casoni, Penn State, defeated Saslow, Penn, three rounds.
115-pound class—Lewis, Penn State, won by technical knockout from Rosenbloom, Penn second round.
160-pound class—Chaikowsky, Penn State, defeated Captain Horne, Penn, four rounds.
175-pound class—Struble, Penn State, won decision over MacLean, Penn, three rounds.
Heavyweight—Merrick, Penn, defeated McAndrews, Penn State, four rounds.

TENNIS TEAM TO ENCOUNTER 1 OPPONENTS AWAY, 3 HERE

With four matches away in two two-day trips, the Penn State tennis team will encounter three opponents at home during the seven engagements scheduled for the coming season.

Opening with Franklin and Marshall here May 3, the courtmen will travel to Georgetown and Navy May 9 and 10. A match with Gettysburg at home is listed for May 17, while the team will journey to Syracuse and Colgate May 23 and 24. The season will close with a match with Bucknell here May 31.

Wolff To Make Debut In Professional Ring

Allie Wolff, for three years considered the outstanding boxer in intercollegiate fistie circles, will make his debut in the professional ring this spring, following the example of his teammate Steve Hanay.

Wolff will be managed by Sammy Goldman, pilot of Tony Canzonetti, who recently lost his world's featherweight championship. He will fight in the middleweight class, the weight at which he boxed for Penn State.

Never lasting defeat at college, Wolff set a record of twenty-eight consecutive victories. He held the 160-pound title for three years, and was twice elected captain of the Nittany pugmen, leading the team to the championship in 1929.

COURTMEN SUBDUE BUCKNELL, 57-33

Brand Scores 9 Field Goals as Lions Sweep to Decisive Victory Over Bisons

Running up their largest score of the season, Penn State's courtmen swept to an easy 57-33 victory over Bucknell in Recreation Hall Saturday night.

The flying Nittany quintet fought its way to an impressive lead early in the first quarter and steadily increased this margin until the scoreboard read 29-16 at the half. At no time during the game was Bucknell within scoring distance.

Fred Brand strengthened his claim to the season's high scoring honors when he sent nine field goals through the cords. Captain Stanley followed him with five two-pointers. Chenoweth, stocky Bucknell sophomore, sank five goals from field and four free throws to capture scoring honors for the Lewisburg five.

Lion Passes Effective
With a well-executed pivot play piercing the Bison defense often the Nittany attack functioned at the highest point displayed this season on Recreation Hall floor. Stanley, Leyda, and Fry took passes from Brand on the pivot play to sink field goals repeatedly, while Lee dropped in four from the sidelines.

A short passing game enabled the Nittany five to work the ball under the basket for a majority of the scores. Only six of the twenty-five lion field goals were made from beyond the foul line. Bucknell sank six of its eleven two-pointers from within the free throw stripe.

LOSE FIRST MATCH OF YEAR TO NAVY

Falls Absent as Enemies Stage Hard-Fought Meet—Hubler, Pearce, Campbell Win

Completing their conquest over the Nittany Lion, the Midshipmen gained a 15-to-9 victory over the Penn State wrestling team in a closely-contested meet at Annapolis Saturday. This win places the Navy grapplers as one of the outstanding teams in the East.

Although the score was rather one-sided, the match was close throughout and no falls were secured by either team. Captain Hubler and Ed Pearce continued their undefeated record by turning in victories, while Paul Campbell recorded the other Blue and White score.

Paul Long, with victory resting almost entirely on the result of his match, put up one of the most interesting bouts of the afternoon against Plug Hughes, undefeated Navy leader. The Middle, however, managed to triumph by a 3-4 time advantage in a 175-pound battle that was full of thrills.

Hubler Scores 13 Wins

The service team secured its easiest victory of the meet when Tommy Theobald of the Academy secured an 8-11 advantage over Jimmy Harkin in the opening setto. This is only the second time this year that the Navy matman has not scored a fall.

Larry Covell put up a strong fight against Lincoln in the 125-pound match, but dropped a time decision to the Midshipman. Lincoln secured a short advantage right at the start of the bout and ran it up to four minutes near the end.

Thirteen consecutive victories was the record established by Captain Hubler by winning from Vorhees in the lightweight setto. The Nittany leader managed to get his man near the close of the bout and held him to secure a 1-11 time advantage.

Campbell and Pearce Win
The Kaiser-Gray battle in the 145-pound class was hard-fought, although the Navy grappler managed to run up a 5-04 time advantage. Karl barely succeeded in preventing a fall toward the close of the engagement.

Silvestein won the following match for the Middies by a time advantage of more than six minutes over Teddy Raybitz, who fought hard throughout the entire skirmish. Paul Campbell by a number of brief advantages, managed to gain a 2-33 decision from Mush Morton in the 165-pound scrap.

Ed Pearce kept his record for the season clean by beating Kirkpatrick in the closing minutes of the unlimited fray and secured a time decision of 1-28. The Navy scrapper succeeded in holding Ed down for a short time at the start of the clash, but the Lion flash came through at the end.

Lion Lacrossmen Begin 1930 Season As 100 Candidates Report to Call

Coach Ernie Paul yesterday gave the opening impetus to Nittany lacrosse for 1930 when he sent his charges through the first outdoor practice of the season. One hundred candidates were signed up for the sport.

Seven games are listed in the official schedule released by the Athletic association yesterday. Opening with Western Maryland here May 3, the Nittany stickmen will meet Colgate at Hamilton, May 9, Syracuse at Syracuse, May 10; Penn at State College, May 17; Army at West Point, May 24, and Toronto here, June 3. The Onondaga Indians will encounter the Lions in the commencement tilt here June 7.

NATIONAL 125-POUND MAT CHAMPION TO COME HERE

Lawrence Mantooh Heads Oklahoma Team in Title Contest

Lawrence Mantooh, national 125-pound collegiate wrestling titleholder, will head the University of Oklahoma matmen, champions of the Missouri Valley conference, when they come here to compete in the national meet March 28 and 29.

The westerners, who placed third in last year's meet at Columbus, O., probably will bring a complete team of eight men East. Three members of their team remain undefeated this year, although the team was downed by the Oklahoma Aggies.

In addition to the national champion on the team, Leach, 115-pounder, and Miller, 115-pounder, were runners-up last year. Both these men will come here in an attempt to secure the collegiate crown in their respective divisions.

The Pipe

even helps you say nothing at all...

YOU'VE noticed how expressive the pipe can be, what meaning it can put into the simplest gesture. The pipe even helps you say nothing at all—and that, O mortal, takes a man among men!

Men to their pipes and women to their lipstick—but suppose you had no pipe and faced repression? Suppose you had no tobacco to put in your pipe? Empty pipes make empty gestures that have no meaning. Filled with good tobacco, your pipe becomes eloquent. Filled with Edgeworth, it is Olympian!

What, no Edgeworth? Lose not a moment—haste to the mails with the coupon. Let the machinery of government rush to you a free packet of good old Edgeworth, delicious and friendly Edgeworth, full-flavored, slow-burning, cool.

Edgeworth is a careful blend of good tobaccos—selected especially for pipe smoking. Its quality and flavor never change. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—“ready Rubbed” and “Plug Slice”—in pocket package to pound humor tin.

YEARLINGS DEFEAT BISON FIVE, 52-32

Gain Early Lead To Score 10 Points In Opening Period—Keep Home Record Unblemished

Completely outplaying a fighting Bison five, the Lion cub quintet piled up a total of 52 points against '22 amassed by the Bucknell visitors to hold the home record flawless for the season.

Gaining an early lead, the Nittany plebes continued wholesale scoring tactics throughout the first half, and ended the period at the long end of a 30-to-12 tally.

The Bucknell yearlings rallied at the opening of the third quarter and matched the Lions' markers for the greater part of the second half. Coach Conover substituted frequently. Uncontested supremacy at the pivot post gave the Nittany squad the advantage at the start of almost every play. Sigel tapped to a teammate successfully in the majority of tip-offs.
