Bezdek Drills Diamond Candidates; Football Rules Committee Clarifies Code

ST. FRANCIS ADDED TO LION SCHEDULE

Adverse Weather Forces Team Indoors for Pre-season Battery Practice

With the entire pitching staff in-tact, and four other regulars from last cosion's baseball team available, Coxch Hugo Bezdek is gradually weeking our promising candidates for Penn State's 1930 diamond aggrega-tion.

from State's 1930 diamond aggregation.

Although a three-game series with Penn in Mainte City April 18, 19, 21, was originally listed to open the Laon's campaigre, athletic authorities announced vestedry that St Francis college his been scheduled to begin the local season on New Beaver field April 12.

Forced indoors because of recen' adverse weather conditions, Coach Berdels's batters resorted mainly tright workouts and battery mactic in Recreation Hall Some mild daven the past few weeks, however, have challed the Nittany team to engage in stiff sessions out-of-doors with four-inning practice games usually climining an alternoon's work.

13 LAWS TO COVER COLLEGIATE TILTS

Lengthen Pause in Quick Shift Play-Deplore Poor

Reduction of the code from twenty-eight to thriteen rules and clarification of the entire set of laws governing the conduct of collegiate football has been completed by the football alles committee after two years of effort.

of effort.

No material changes in the existing rules were made by the committee. A count of six was decided on as necessary in measuring the moment of puise in the execution of the shift play instead of four. The rule was changed to read "a period of at least one second," replacing the former wording "approximately one second."

Oklahoma Aggies Boast Record of 56 Straight Wins

Favolites to cop top honors in the third National Collegiate wrestling tournament, Oltahoma A and M, will enter a band of wissliers upholding in impressive record of fifty-six consecutive dual meet wins.

If the Oklahomans capture the 1930 crown as predeted, they will also have upheld an untarnished record in Collegiana's premier grappling tourney. Since the inauguration of the title matches in 1928, no team haven able to tear the Aggies from their strangle hold on first place.

Besides the pain of collegiate crowns. Conch Dad Galleghei's husky proteges have buttled their way to three National A A U, championships With seven entered in the National analest matches last year the Westen team teliuned home with five individual champs.

Six dual encounters have been consected this season in which but seven
