orchestra in a concert at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon on the front campus.

With Dean Edward Steidle of the School of Mineral Industries as chairman, a committee of the Alumni association met Wednesday to make plans for the alumni's part of commencement exercises. June 9 has been selected for Alumni Day. A baseball game with Syracuse university will take place Monday afternoon.

Penn State Players will present "The Meanest Man in the World" at 7:15 o'clock Monday night in Schuylkill auditorium, and the commencement dance in Recreation hall will conclude the day's entertainment.

The commencement procession will form in front of Carnegie library at 9:15 o'clock Tuesday morning. The procession will be led by the College band and will march to Recreation hall for commencement exercises at 10 o'clock. The final event on the program will be a senate luncheon given in honor of the trustees at 1 o'clock that afternoon at the Centie Hill country club.

MISS HADT TO PROPOSE CO-ED SUPPORT OF POOL

Names E Louise Hoffedtz Chairman Of All Class Committees

Endeavoring to boost the swimming pool project among the women students, Miss Marie Hadt, women's director of physical education, will address members of each of the classes in their meetings next week.

"If the women want to swim in the proposed pool," stated Miss Hadt, "they will have to lend the men their support in furthering the project."

Miss Hadt named E Louise Hoffedtz '31 general chairman in charge of committees from each class. Posters will be distributed tomorrow at the various dormitories while booster talks will be given in class meetings scheduled next week. Finally a vote will be taken to determine the stand of each class.
