

LION NINE MEETS URSINUS THURSDAY

Defeats Susquehanna Batsmen
12-6—Loses to Colgate in
Fast Game, 9-8

Penn State will engage Ursinus college on the diamond at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon on New Beaver field. The Lion nine divided a weekend double-header by winning from Susquehanna university Friday afternoon, 12-to-6, and losing to the strong Colgate aggregation Saturday, 9-to-8, after hammering three Maroon pitchers for sixteen base hits.

Inability to hit at opportune moments caused the Nittany downfall when they encountered a fast moving Colgate nine. With the Maroon maintaining a one-run advantage in the eighth inning, Penn State filled the bases when French and Livezey singled and Diedrich received a free trip to first base. Slought replaced Davis in the box for Colgate, and the New York relief pitcher retired three Lions in a row to save the game for his team.

Hal Stokes went the whole way on the mound for Penn State. The Lion right-hander, although touched for sixteen safeties, kept the hits fairly well scattered except in the fifth inning. In this frame, five singles in a row gave the visitors three tallies. All of the runs made by Coach Bezdek's team were bunched in two innings, the first and sixth.

Scoring in all but two innings, Penn State had little trouble in downing Susquehanna. Captain Rod Fry pitched until the sixth when Bezdek used both Pinkerton and DeBonis to stem the visitors' threatening rally. DeBonis finished the game and held his opponents to a pair of singles. Sol Saltzman and Walt Drill knocked out their first home runs of the season in this encounter.

Jack Livezey has established a two-game record for Lion infielders to try for during the remainder of the season, by handling eighteen chances in the field without an error. Against Susquehanna, Jack made three put-outs and five assists, while the Nittany short-stop was credited with six outs and four assists in the Colgate game.

How to be everywhere at once

READ the New York Herald Tribune every morning. It takes you to the theatre with men like Percy Hammond and Arthur Ruhl. Real sports experts (W. O. McGeehan, Harry Cross, W. B. Hanna, Rud Rennie, Richards Vidmer, Murray Tynan, W. J. Macbeth, William Taylor are only a few of the many), write knowing stories of all the sports every morning. Trained political observers take you back-stage in Washington. With Lawrence Gilman and his aids you go to concerts and recitals; for lighter moments, Richard Watts and others are ready with news of the newest talking pictures.

Every day there are adventures to experience with the hundreds of Herald Tribune representatives who are at the four corners of the earth—reporting the things that are making history—writing the facts, yes, but putting into their stories an eagerness, a keen note of sincerity and enthusiasm that accounts for the Herald Tribune's never being heavy-footed or dull.

Tomorrow morning start being everywhere at once, and enjoy it.
