CLASSES MOVE UP SATURDAY, MAY 17

Tap Day Exercises, Tug of War Planned—Dr. Hetzel, New Officers To Speak

Following a parade of the four classes from Co-op corner to the scene of the program, annual Move-Up Day and Tap exercises will be held on Holmes field at 2 o'clock next Saturday afternoon

Upon arrival at the field, eligible members of the junior and sophomore classes will arrange themselves in separate bodies. Palmi Nous and Skull and Bones, upperclass honorary societies, will then proceed to select members for their organizations

Stage Tug of War

Prominent members of the College, student body, and the newly elected class officers will address class members and visitors Arrangements are being made to have President Ralph D Hetzel speak

At the conclusion of the program, underclassmen will stage the traditional tug of war below the Horticulture building Teams from each class will run off three heats for the title with water from a fire-hose being played on the middle of the rope The winning class will parade its numerals at a football game next fall.

Quinsy Sends Senior President-Elect Home

David C McLaughlin, senior class president-elect, was not present to receive the congratulations due him when the results of the class elections were announced yesterday afternoon

After suffering from an attack of quinsy during the morning, McLaughlin left at noon for his home in Juniata Gulch Altoona. While he was enroute to his home the ballots were being tabulated and anxious friends wired him of his victory when the final count was announced
