

Batsmen Encounter St. Vincents Tomorrow; Lacrossmen To Engage Quakers

JUNIATA DEFEATS NITTANY TEAM, 9-4

Visiting Pitcher Holds Lions to 6 Base Hits—Hal Stokes Fans 9 Batters

Penn State's baseball team will make a strong effort to regain its batting laurels against St. Vincents college at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on New Beaver field. The Lion nine suffered a serious hitting slump Wednesday and lost to Juniata college, 9-to-1.

Either Captain Rod Fry or Al DeBonis will take the mound against St. Vincents. The Lion leader should be in top form for tomorrow's game. He worked last against Susquehanna two weeks ago, and has had plenty of chance to get his arm into good shape.

Coach Jerome will bring a fast St. Vincents nine here to engage the Lion team. The visitors have won seven games out of eight played this season, and last week they defeated West Virginia university. Arthur Reed, a southpaw, will probably pitch against Penn State.

Westfall May Pitch

If Reed does not start against Bezek's tossers, Coach Jerome will probably use Captain Creed Westfall on the hill. Westfall leads both the baseball and basketball teams at the Lattrobe institution. At present he leads the nine in home runs.

Ed Young will meet his equal in length in the person Andrew Sugen, St. Vincents first baseman. Sugen is supposed to have the longest reach in college baseball, and this season he has handled eight-six chances in the field without an error.

Inability to fathom the delivery of Blough, Juniata twirler, was the main reason for the unexpected Lion defeat Wednesday. The visiting moundsman held the Nittany team to six hits scattered throughout a half-dozen innings.

Hal Stokes pitched the entire game for Coach Bezek's nine. The Juniata team bunched its hits in their first three frames and gained a four run lead from which the Lions never recovered. Hal struck out nine men and walked only two, but was touched for a total of fifteen safeties.

LION TEAM DOWNS COLGATE GOLFERS

Defeats Maroon, 4-2—Will Meet Williamsport Linksman Away Tomorrow

Defeating a strong Colgate golf team 4-to-2 in its second intercollegiate encounter on the College course Tuesday afternoon, Lion golfers will engage Williamsport country club linksman in an informal match at Williamsport tomorrow afternoon. In the first match of the afternoon Captain Toots Panaccion, Lion leader, was paired with Jim Nelson, Maroon veteran, who shot a 78 to secure one point for the visitors, while the Nittany contender covered the course in the same number of strokes to gain one half point for the Lion team.

Freddy Brand, last year's College champion, took Charlie Connell of Colgate over by one stroke with a 76 to annex one and a half points for Penn State. Johnny Murray of the Lion foursome shot the best ball of the afternoon with a score of 75, to gather another point for the Lion team but his opponent, George Tamlyn had a 76 to net Colgate one half point.

OPPOSE PENN IN SECOND HOME TILT

Coach Ernie Paul Selects Team For Red and Blue Fracas Tomorrow Afternoon

Opposing a confident Quaker twelve the Penn State lacrossmen will play their second home engagement at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on New Beaver field.

Filling the in home berth Captain Ken Kaiser will lead the same men that defeated the Orange twelve into tomorrow's fray. Anderson and Koth, prove mainstays of the attack, will battle speed against brawn of the Quaker defense, composed of gridiron material. Utz and Borshlow, playing in the first and third positions, furnish the predominating opposition.

McMillan, who is approaching ten-second speed, Reilly, Prizer, Edwards, and Stahley will protect the defense half of the field. Joe Weber and Warren Seabel will alternate in the center of the green. The goal position still remains in doubt. Coach Ernie Paul intends to make a last minute decision between Karl Kaiser and Johnny Gwynn.

Coach Paul feels confident that it will require several substitutions to continue a fast game. To meet this requirement he will use Kaplan, Decker, Miller, Lewis, and Herm Weber to replace the defense line-up. Crooke, Green, and Heppenstahl will no doubt see service on the attack.

NITA NEE HOCKEY ELEVEN

DEFEATS FRESHMAN TEAM

With the advent of hockey as a spring sport, the Nita-Nee eleven defeated the freshman by a 2-to-1 score on Holmes Field Tuesday afternoon.

This is the first of the series of games to be played for the championship of the dormitory and sorority teams, and will be followed by other preliminary games.

Diedrich, With .452, Leads Lion Batters

After Wednesday's game with Juniata, Yutz Diedrich still maintains his lead over Penn State's nine with a batting average of .452. Cooper French has moved up to second place with an average of an even .400, while Dan Musser is third with .382.

Diedrich leads in number of runs scored with seventeen to his credit, while Jack Livezey has thirteen, and French is next on the list with twelve. The entire team is batting .311, and has scored ninety-three runs in nine games.

CUB NINE TO PLAY SYRACUSE TODAY

Open Foreign Invasion On Hillmen's Diamond—Meet Colgate At Hamilton Tomorrow

Hoping to continue its impressive showing against Kiski Prep last week, the Lion cub baseball team will open its way from home series by meeting Syracuse freshmen at the New Yorkers diamond this afternoon and Colgate plebes at the Hamilton institution tomorrow.

Coach Leo Houck left yesterday afternoon with a squad of fourteen batsmen for the two contests. Ben Minton and Paul Winn will probably handle the bulk of the pitching assignment against the Syracuse nine and Bud Houquet and Maty Stockdale are slated to twirl against the Maroons the following afternoon.

LIONS WILL MEET BULLET COURTMEN

To Play Gettysburg Tomorrow Afternoon at 1 O'clock On Varsity Courts

After winning two of their first three matches, Penn State courtmen will engage Gettysburg for the fourth assignment of the season on the Varsity courts at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Five singles matches and two doubles contests will be staged with the singles posts going to the men who played in the opening engagement with Franklin and Marshall. Paul Barber will hold the number one position while Captain Ted Wolfe will be second man. Ed Butler, Johnny Metzner and Robbie Robinson will fill the remaining posts.

Coach Dink Stover declared that if it is possible, the second string men would be assigned the doubles contests. He stated that the Nittany racquet wielders should find no difficulty in downing the Gettysburg team.

After returning from the Georgetown and Navy engagements, the racqueters resumed practice on the Varsity courts on Monday and Tuesday.

Last year the courtmen defeated Gettysburg 6-to-1 and indications point to a repetition this year. The Bullet racquet squad lost to Franklin and Marshall in their second match of the season by the same score that the Lions downed F. and M. in the opening meet here, 5-to-2.

THETA NU EPSILON DEFEATS PI KAPPA ALPHA NINE, 14-0

Theta Nu Epsilon defeated Pi Kappa Alpha 14-to-0 Wednesday afternoon to become eligible for the third round of the Interfraternity baseball tournament. Alpha Phi Sigma also downed Phi Kappa Sigma in the second round.

Six games are scheduled to be played this week in order to complete the second round of the contest. Thirty-two teams entered the contest but the field has narrowed to fourteen.

PLEBE NINE DOWNS JUNIORS IN INTERCLASS GAME, 14-0

Defeating the junior baseball team by a 14-to-0 score in the interclass tournament Tuesday, the plebe nine was forced to postpone a game with the seniors on account of rain Wednesday.

Freshmen mound service was divided equally between Minton, Winn, and Stockdale. Trostle, Swan and Baird served behind the bat. The junior battery was composed of Cook as pitcher and McCalister as catcher.
