

Diamondmen Face Bucknell Tomorrow; Lacrosse Team Loses to Quakers, 4-3

LION NINE DEFEATS ST. VINCENT, 9-2

Al DeBonis May Oppose Steve Trudenak on Mound in Bison Contest

After defeating the strong St. Vincent team Saturday, 9-2, Penn State's batsmen will renew athletic rivalry with Bucknell at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on New Beaver field.

Cochs Snively will bring a team here that may cause trouble for the Lions. The Bisons, although defeated by the fast-moving Gettysburg tossers in two games, have won a majority of their contests this season and will place a well drilled aggregation on the field tomorrow.

Penn State fans will have another opportunity to see Clark Hinkle, of football fame. The stocky Bison fullback plays a fast game at shortstop for the Lewisburg team. He is a heavy hitter and has made very few errors in the field this year.

Bucknell's outstanding twirler, Steve Trudenak, will probably be Snively's choice on the mound against the Lions. Trudenak has pitched a majority of the Bison games this season. Coach Bezdek will send Al DeBonis to oppose the Bucknell right-hander, with Hal Stokes a possible choice.

Hammering out base hits when hits were needed, backed up by Rod Fry's excellent pitching throughout the entire encounter, were the reasons largely responsible for the St. Vincent downfall. Fry allowed only two safeties until the seventh inning, and lost in the whole game. In addition to this he fanned eight visiting batters, and passed only two.

Saltzman Hits Homer

The Lions scored two runs in the opening session on Livezey's triple, and singles by Diedrich, Musser, and Saltzman. Four countess were pushed across the plate in the fifth on two infield errors, Hobb's three-bagger and Saltzman's home run. St. Vincent scored its first run in the third on Livezey's error, a single and a sacrifice. In the fourth the Latrobe team again scored on a double, followed by Dill's error.

Sol Saltzman led the Nittany team in battling with a homer and two singles to his credit. The Lion receiver, in addition to his circuit clout to right field in the fifth, went around all the bases in the seventh when his single was allowed to slip past the visiting right fielder. Walt Dill also accounted for a home run to left center in the fourth.

Former Lion Pitcher Ends Ruth's Record

Phil "Lefty" Page, former Penn State pitcher, and at present on the staff of the Detroit Tigers, struck out Babe Ruth last Monday and ended the latter's record for reaching first base.

Babe had reached the initial sack on fifteen consecutive visits to the plate until he faced "Lefty" last week and Phil curved the third strike over in the eighth inning of the Yankee-Tiger encounter.

COURTMEN DEFEAT GETTYSBURG, 5-4

Lions Win 1 Singles, 1 Doubles Match on Varsity Courts Saturday Afternoon

Penn State's racquet wielders defeated Gettysburg 5-to-2 on the Varsity courts Saturday afternoon by winning four of the singles matches and one of the doubles contests.

In the first singles match Paul Barber lost to Captain Hood of Gettysburg 6-4, 4-6, 3-6, while Captain Wolfe downed Lauer in straight sets 6-2, 6-4, in the second tilt. Butler defeated Ziegler in the third contest 6-1, 7-5, and Metzner won over Stock 6-2, 6-2, in the fourth assignment. Robinson clinched the last singles event 6-3, and 6-2.

Coach Dink Stover instituted a new doubler combination for the Bulletin engagement which matched Barber and Metzner in the first dual contest. The Lion duet lost to Hood and Lauer in extra sets 1-6, 6-1, 4-6, while Wolfe and Butler defeated Ziegler and Stock in the second doubles match 6-2, 6-1.

PENN GAINS TILT IN EXTRA PERIOD

Koth, Anderson, Weber Score Points—Magai Injured During Contest

After securing a two point lead in the first half, Lion lacrossemen lost a hotly contested game to the Quaker twelve in an extra period of play Saturday when Reser scored his second tally of the contest.

Deane Koth and Andy Anderson registered two points in the first twelve minutes of play while their teammates prevented the Red and Blue stickmen from placing a shot near the Nittany goal. Magai, Quaker captain, was forced to leave the field with a face injury. In the last minute of the first half Reser, clever Penn attack, scored on Bud Kasper Lion goal.

Joe Weber again increased the Lion advantage by placing a clever shot in the net with five Quaker defense men surrounding him. Penn State held the lead 7-to-1 until near the end of the second half but were unable to cope with Irwin and Hunt, Penn attacks, who tallied a goal each. The second half ended in a deadlock.

Loose playing by both teams was evident in the extra period. Penn State had three shots at the Quaker goal but was unable to find the net. After several attempts, Reser shot the ball from a difficult angle and scored the winning point. The Quaker twelve covered up for the remaining six minutes of play and were successful in keeping the score 4-to-1 although Hadnut and Reser received penalties in the last three minutes of the game.

Plebe Discovers New Way To Score Birdie

A plebe golfer, Wendell E. Minton, discovered a new way to score a birdie when he drove a low ball down the fairway into a robin's back on the course Friday afternoon.

The bird was skidding across the fairway about fifty yards from the tee when the ball struck him. He was unconscious for several minutes, but was revived by hasty first aid and flew away apparently unharmed. Minton credited himself with two under par on the hole without playing it out.

LION GOLFERS WIN THIRD CLUB MATCH

Defeat Williamsport Linksman in Informal Match 6 1/2 to 1/2 Saturday Afternoon

Lion linksmen won their third county club victory when they defeated Williamsport golfers 6 1/2 to 1/2 in an informal match at Williamsport Saturday afternoon.

In the first match Toots Panaceon and Freddy Brand downed their opponents, four up and three. Defeating the club players six up and four, Johnny Murray and Hugo Bezdek, Jr. scored the easiest win of the afternoon. In the next match Wally Cott and Bob Jackson overcame the Williamsport twosome four up and three to annex another point for Penn State.

Dick Smith and Charlie Stoddard proceeded to take the fourth straight point for Penn State when their match resulted in a win of four up and three. Overcoming their Williamsport opponents three up and two, Chuck Young and Bob Shepard scored the fifth win for the Lions.

LION PLEBES LOSE TO MAROON NINE

Syracuse Cancels Game Scheduled For Friday—Minton Pitches In Colgate Contest

Failure to bunch hits coupled with untimely errors brought the Lion freshmen baseball team a 5-to-1 defeat in its contest with Colgate plebes at Hamilton, N. Y. Saturday. The game scheduled with Syracuse for the previous day was cancelled by the fillmen.

Ben Minton, twirling the contest for the Lions, allowed but seven hits to eight for Shaw, his opponent on the mound. The Lion pitcher struck out three men to one by the Maroon woundmen. Penn State failed to take advantage of its hits, leaving seven men on bases compared to five for its opponent.

Colgate scored its only two earned runs on a home run by Hubbell, catcher, in the fourth inning, and a double by VanLeusen, second baseman, in the ninth following Hubbell's three-base smash. The remaining three runs were scored on errors by the L. team.

The Nittany plebes scored their lone tally in the sixth when Stockdale's double allowed Ott, who had singled before him, to score. The Lion Cubs lost a chance for another score in this inning when Kilpatrick, the first man at bat, was caught stealing at second after batting out a single.

The plebe team will engage Wyoming, Saturday afternoon in the next contest to be held Saturday afternoon.

Golf Teams Advance In I.F. Tournament

Eight teams entered the second round of the Interstate golf tournament as a result of the matches played this week. This round will be completed before the end of the week.

Kappa Sigma's golfers will meet Sigma Nu, while Chi Phi and Alpha Sigma Phi compete for the right to enter the third round. The Delta Gamma foursome will engage Beta Theta Pi, and Phi Gamma Delta will play Delta Chi.

The second round will be played in five days, and the four winning teams will enter the semi-finals, which will be run off next week. Following these matches, the winners will enter the final round to decide the interstate championship.
