71 Years of Compulsory Chapel Will End Sunday

Farmers' High School Establishes Attendance Requirement in February, 1859

Seventy-one and one-half years of college compulsory chapel will end with the services to be held in Schwab auditorium Sunday morning at which Prof. John F. Fizzell, acting college chaplain will address chapel-goers on "Are You Getting It?"

The first service was held in a classroom in the west wing of Old Main from 1859 until 1863. From 1863 to 1868 services were conducted in the central wing of Old Main on the second floor, and from that time until 1893 the old chapel, as it was in Old Main at the time of its razing last year, was the scene for chapel services. In 1893, Schwab auditorium was constructed and chapel has been conducted there since that time.
