

Varsity Coaches To Give Courses

Football, Track Tutors Will Teach Here

Two Penn State mentors, Bob Higgins of football fame and Nate Cartmell, renowned on the track, will offer courses in their specialties during the Summer Session.

A three-week course in football coaching will be given by the Lion leader starting tomorrow, the track study to follow in the last three weeks of the Session.

Both subjects are designed especially for coaches in the high and normal schools. They include study of the fundamentals of the sport, special phases, and interpretation of rules.

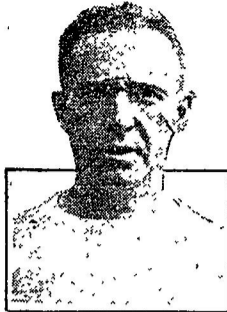

Lion Football Immortal

Bob Higgins is hailed as one of Penn State's football immortals. He was chosen as an all-American end by Walter Camp and mentioned as one of the greatest ends of all time by John Hestman. Captain of the national championship eleven in 1919, Higgins earned a forward pass thrown from behind his own goal line to a touchdown and victory over Pitt.

Higgins will succeed Hugo Bezdek as football coach here this fall. For the past two years he has acted as line coach. Before coming to Penn State he was an assistant coach.

Nate Cartmell has been track coach here since 1923. Within that period his track team set a six-year mark of unbroken triumphs in dual meets. In addition, his cross country teams captured the intercollegiate titles in 1929, 1927, and 1928. Among the winners of national and international note he developed were Alar Bellrich, middle distance champion; Schuyler Enck of Olympic fame, Chip Moore, world recordholder over the hurdles; Al Bates, Olympic broad-jumper; Bill Cox, Olympic distance runner; and Marion Ide, champion hammer thrower.

Cartmell was the only man ever to hold both the intercollegiate 100 and 220-yard crowns three years consecutively. He held national sprint crowns and was a point scorer in the 1908 Olympics.

J E GILDER RECEIVES AWARD

James E. Gilder '30, has been awarded the medal of the American Association of Architecture offered to the student at Penn State who does the most creditable work for four years. Gilder was selected by the faculty of the department and his name submitted to the Association headquarters in New York.
