

PENN STATE COLLEGIAN

Published semi-weekly during the College year, except on holidays, by students of The Pennsylvania State College, in the interest of the College, the students, faculty, alumni, and friends.

THE MANAGING BOARD

WILLIAM K ULRICH '31
Editor

ROY E. MORGAN '31
Managing Editor

WILLIAM C McELVAIN '31
Sports Editor

JACOB L. COHN '31
News Editor

CHARLES A. SCHMIDT JR. '31
News Editor

NORMAN D. SOMPLER '31
News Editor

MARY J. ADAMS '31
Women's News Editor

ALAN B. CUTTING '31
Business Manager

ALBERT J. MILLS '31
Circulation Manager

HARRY C. WOOD '31
Advertising Manager

WILLIAM B. HILMAN '31
Foreign Advertising Manager

JAY E. L. BROWNBACK '31
Women's Editor

LOUISE HOFEDTITZ '31
Women's Managing Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

Hugo K. Frear '32, H. J. P. ..., Stewart Townsend '32
William H. Irvine '32, Theodore A. Serrill '32, Edward W. White '32

John Marquardt '32, Margaret Tachan '32, Mary M. Wright '32

Entered at the Postoffice at State College, Pa., as second-class matter

Editorial Office.....313 Old Main
Business Office.....Nittany Printing Co. Bldg.
News Room.....312 Old Main

Member Eastern Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

News Editor This Issue.....Charles A. Schmidt Jr. '31

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1930

BUCKNELL VS. LAFAYETTE

Student opinion, evenly divided at first, has swung sharply in favor of the day of the Lafayette game as the date of the annual half-holiday rather than November 1, the Saturday of the Bucknell encounter, which at present is the official choice. A little thought will show that this trend is logical.

When last year's Student Council decided on Bucknell as the holiday date it was not realized generally that Easton would become the goal of the student exodus which formerly went east for the Penn game. As this realization grows, the Lafayette contest has assumed more importance. To make this trip possible to many, it will be necessary to change the date of the free period from November 1 to October 18.

The majority of students probably will attend both games regardless of which date is finally chosen. From the standpoint of class cutting, absences will be less numerous if the half-holiday is on the Saturday of the Lafayette game. Students will leave Friday noon for Easton, cutting classes that afternoon and Saturday morning if there is no holiday. Leaving at 11 o'clock or the morning of the Bucknell game would permit ample time for the journey to Lewisburg with a cut of but one hour necessary at the most. Scholastically, a Lafayette game holiday would be the most satisfactory.

The question of student support for the team at Easton and Lewisburg also should be considered. Many will go to the former if there is a half holiday but will not consider the Lafayette trip if there is no suspension of Saturday classes. Just as surely, many will go to Lewisburg; even if there is no holiday. To assure a large number of students at both games, the one at Easton should be favored with the holiday. Taking everything into consideration, October 18, the date of the Lafayette game should be the date for the half-holiday.

Confusion resulting from instructors' failure to dismiss classes on the hour would be eliminated if the practice of ringing the Old Main Bell before and after each period was resumed.

THE DECISION THAT COUNTS

With the silence period in the women's rushing season beginning at midnight tonight, the sophomores will finally be given a chance to weigh the relative merits of the fraternities before signing the preferential ballots which shall commit them to one group for the rest of their college careers. They, and the club girls, will undoubtedly welcome the conclusion of the intensive rushing campaign of the past ten days.

The decision the prospective fraternity girls are to make is a momentous one requiring deep consideration. In judging the different groups one should look upon them as entities and not in terms of their individual members, for it is impossible to find a group every member of which one would choose for an intimate. Each girl should go where she has the most friends. It is with the fraternity as a whole that she will spend the greater part of her college life. One or two girls in a club should not be sufficient reason for joining that group if the other members do not measure up to one's standards.

Often there is indecision on the part of roommates or close friends who do not want to separate. Because they may be of entirely different natures, the same fraternity may not suit them both. In such cases it is well to remember that true friendships are not broken merely by joining different organizations. In some instances, too, a girl on intimate terms with one group, knowing them as they really are throughout the year as well as when they are at their best, may be carried off her feet by another group which suddenly pays attention to her during the rushing period. In the glamor of these new associations it is well but often difficult to remember sincere friends.

Perhaps the best way to join a fraternity is to disregard everything one has been told during the rushing season and to make one's choice only after a cool and careful evaluation of the various groups and oneself.

JANET L. BROWNBAC

The entrance of Kappa Kappa Gamma, women's national social fraternity, to Penn State is another indication that the women of the College are rapidly winning the recognition and prestige due them as college women not only here, but in all collegiate circles. Kappa Kappa Gamma is to be congratulated for seeing the merits of Sycamore Club which we feel sure is worthy of the national.

THE LION'S DEN

BY DANIEL

Can't He Ever Be Convinced?

The other afternoon a sweet co-ed was walking down the campus with an elderly—well, not too elderly—professor by her side. Trailing along a few steps behind, it couldn't be helped if their conversation was overheard.

They were talking together quite friendly, when suddenly the girl looked attentively at her companion and asked, "Do you believe in love?"

The professor without a moment's hesitation replied, "Why, of course, I've been married four times!"

But he's one of those fellows who still believes that Prohibition is "a noble experiment."

A Sad, Sad Story.
(Told by an I. F. C. Delegate)

This fellow plays a saxophone and the other a violin mauls.

What's that you say?

Ah, yes—two black balls!

A Musical Suggestion.

Did you notice that the band played "Ramona" at the game last Saturday? And wasn't it too sad for words—the song, that is? Bandmaster Thompson and his boys must have remembered that line "beside a waterfall." Maybe at tomorrow's game they'll play another appropriate tune for the Lebanon Valley visitors, say "The Anvil Chorus"

With a vocal refrain by the Co-op coaches.

Are We Right—Or Right?
(Some corrected items)

1. The American Smuley.
2. Physical Damnation
3. Squawking Movies.
4. The Deformity.
5. Commerce and Finesse

Professorial Definitions—No. 1.

LOVE is that thing which makes you think that only one will do, whereas anyone will do.

Dr. XYZ

By what perversity of Fate can ALL QUIET on the Western Front be a talking picture?

How Times Change!

One of the western papers in a headline the other day stated, "Ag Enrollment Is High Despite Crop Failures" Can that mean this year's "crop"? If it does, we didn't know that out there they sent them to school so young.

Add Simile.

As deserted as an outdoor immature golf course in December.

Wm K

Add 1: Simile—and Plea.

As empty as Daniel's mailbox.

That cataact must have affected the Niagara boys' sight. At least they couldn't see the goal in the first three quarters.

We Agree.

SPARKING SITUATION IS BECOMING ACUTE
Headline in Indiana paper.

Alas, Poor Yorick!

Have you heard the latest? Texas Guman is now a full-fledged columnist, just like Cal Coolidge. To paraphrase her own battle cry, do you suppose that anyone will "give this little girl a great big hand" in getting out her column every day—and Sunday?

*Hunt your Shakespeare.

That's all this time

NEW COLORS

Remington Portable Typewriters

New Tabular Key!

KEELER'S Cathaum Theatre Building

LONDON MUSICIANS SING INFORMALLY

English Choristers Will Present First Concert of 1930 Artists' Course

English Singers of London, opening the second annual Artists' Course program sponsored by the College, will bring to Penn State a new development in concert singing when they appear here October 30.

Replacing the formality which characterizes concert music throughout the world, the English choristers will present their program in an atmosphere of informality paralleled only by a fireside discussion. Modeling their procedure after old anglican methods of group singing as a conclusion to the evening meal, the London singers will present their concert from comfortable chairs at a table on the stage.

Taking the audience into their confidence, the singers frequently informally discuss the song they are to present as a means of interpreting their version of it. Thus to their informal choruses they add familiar and unstilted explanation of their program.

Although they may be declared pioneers in a new field of singing, the choristers are veterans of the concert stage. Since their initial appearance in New York they have played successfully on several national tours.

That critics share the popular praise which has welcomed the English Singers is evidenced by a review in the New Yorker, in which the critic declared:

"The English Singers make it clear that great music can be great fun. Anyone who wonders what is meant by vocal color can find out by listening to these choristers."

RETURNS FROM EDINBORO

Prof. Clarence S. Anderson of the rural education department has returned from Edinboro, Pa., where he spoke on "The Value of the Community Fair" at the Edinboro community fair. Byron Decker '25 is supervisor of vocational agriculture at the Edinboro high school.

ELECTED ASSOCIATION HEAD

Contrary to the story printed last week, Ralph C. Wernich '31 was elected president of the Eastern States College Comic Association, and not secretary, at a meeting at Cornell university, during the summer. The next meeting of the association will be held at Yale university, October 25.

Foster Coal and Supply Co.

GENUINE ANITA Punxsutawney Coal

Phone 114-M

ALWAYS OPEN ALWAYS SOMETHING DOING AND JUST A 20-MINUTE DRIVE

NITTANY MOUNTAIN KOFFEE SHOP

"Pete" COLDREN, Prop.

FISHER TO ATTEND OIL, GAS MEETING

Bonnie, Fettle, Hanks, Sisler, Zook, Chesley, Robinson Will Speak Here October 21, 25

Inaugurating a new conference here, Pennsylvania's oil and gas men will assemble at the College October 24 and 25. Governor John S. Fisher, his cabinet, and members of the Legislature are expected to attend this conference.

Dean Edward Sterdle of the School of Mineral Industries will welcome the guests at the Friday session. Speakers for the initial meeting include Prof. Chesley, A. Bonnie of the geology department and Prof. William R. Chesley of the mining department. Dr. C. R. Fettle, professor of geology at Carnegie Institute of Technology, and Mr. J. D. Sisler, state geologist of West Virginia will also speak.

Speakers for the Saturday morning session include Mr. George J. Hanks, president of the Bradford Transit Company and Mr. Ralph T. Zook, president of the Sloan and Zook Company, of Bradford. Mr. Noel Robinson, vice-president of the Tidewater Oil Company and Mr. Raymond Rubincam, president of the Young and Rubincam Company of New York City. Discussion will be in charge of Mr. Forest D. Dorn, president of the Forest Oil Corporation of Bradford.

RECEIVES MONT ALTO POST

Joseph N. Knoll, graduate of Penn State, has been appointed senior research entomologist at the Pennsylvania Forest Research Institute at Mont Alto. For several years he has been engaged as entomologist in the State Department of Agriculture. Mr. Knoll received his master's degree at Ohio State university.

RECEIVES THEATRE POSITION

Donald E. Herwick '30, of Conneville, was recently appointed assistant to George W. Sullivan, manager of the local Cathaum and Nittany theatres. Herwick served as chief usher at the theatres for two years while in college.

STARBUCKS & HARPER

Waterbury's

Next to the Movies

Dental Specials

LENAL SPECIAL

A 50c TOOTH BRUSH Free with each pint of R-D 29

at the regular price of 69c—Mouth Wash, Antiseptic and Refreshant.

50c Pepsodent Paste.....	33c
50c Orphos Paste.....	31c
50c Mercitan Lotion.....	39c
$1.00 Litoris.....	77c
40c Squibbs Paste.....	29c
50c Dr. West Brush.....	39c
50c Prophylactic Brush.....	39c
65c Forhans Tooth Paste.....	39c
50c Iodent Tooth Paste.....	33c
50c Pebecco Paste.....	33c

A Week End Special You Cannot Afford to Overlook

Doherty Regular 75c Playing Cards for 49c

At Our Fountain When You Want the Best—Get It Here

1 pt. Grape Juice.....	29c
2 for 50c
1 qt. Size Gingerale Pale Dry 35c
3 for $1.00

Delicious Fresh Chocolate

Coated Thirmitins, lb.	49c
Fresh Chocolate Coated Whipped Creams, lb.	39c
1 lb. Sugar Coated Filberts	29c
1 lb. Spanish Peanuts.....	25c
1 lb. Jumbo Peanuts.....	49c
1/2 lb. Cashews.....	49c

HERE IS A REAL VALUE!

Cheramy Lile.....	$1.00
Gillette Razor.....	$1.00
Palmolive Shav. Cr.....	.35
Total.....	$2.25

Our Price for Combination Only $1.00

POULTRY DEPARTMENT GAINS 2 NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

Two additions to the faculty of the poultry husbandry department were announced last week, when Dr. E. R. Marble of Cornell university was named to succeed Prof. Ernest M. Funt who resigned last spring to teach at the University of Missouri.

R. R. Murphy '29 who received his M. S. degree last spring from the Kansas State Agricultural college has been appointed a graduate assistant on the staff of the poultry husbandry department.

PENN STATE HOTEL

A Home-like Place for Those Who Care

AMERICAN EUROPEAN

JNO. GARBEL

Ready Printed Song Sheets

For Smokers and Banquets

Appropriate Songs Selected by Director Grant

The Nittany Printing and Publishing Co.

Between Movies and the Corner

CATHAUM

(Matinee Daily at 1.30 except Saturday of home football games.)

FRIDAY—
Ramon Novarro, Dorothy Jordan, Ernest Torrence in "CALL OF THE FLESH"

SATURDAY—
Doug Fairbanks, Jr., Anita Page in "LITTLE ACCIDENT"

MONDAY and TUESDAY—
(Matinee Daily)
First National and Vitaphone present
Dick Barthelmess, Doug Fairbanks, Jr. in "THE DAWN PATROL"

WEDNESDAY—
Warner Bros and Vitaphone present
Donny Mackay, Lewis Stone in "THE OFFICE WIFE"

THURSDAY—
Constance Bennett, Lew Ayres in "COMMON CLAY"

NITTANY THEATRE

FRIDAY—
Joe Cook, Louise Fazenda in "RAIN OR SHINE"

SATURDAY—
"CALL OF THE FLESH"

TUESDAY—
Ann Harding, James Rennie in "GIRL OF THE GOLDEN WEST"

Rea & Derick

106 W. College Ave

CUT RATE DRUG STORES

BEAT LEBANON VALLEY

Football Hero!

Get His Picture

KODAK at the Game

SAVE FOOTBALL thrills in snapshots! The crowd, your friends, the day's particular hero—countless other picture subjects will recall many a pleasant memory, in your album in years to come.

The No. 1 Pocket Kodak Junior, in brown, green, blue or black, makes an ideal companion at the game. Strikingly handsome and easy to carry, it takes excellent snapshots. Its price, with case to match, is $11; without case, $9. See it here.

Fountain Pen Special

You need this free flowing fountain pen. Unbreakable barrel, iridium point, fine and medium point. You cannot afford to be without one for

$1.98

We guarantee Satisfaction

Toiletries

HAIR GROOM

Keeps Hair in place all day!

HAIR GROOM 39¢

Fresh Whiteman Candies

Weekly.

We Pack for Mailing

HAIR GROOM

Keeps Hair in place all day!

HAIR GROOM 39¢

$1.50 Coty Bath Powder	$1.08
25c April Showers Bath Crystals, 3 for	69c
$1.00 Coty Face Powder	69c
$1.00 Coty Talcum	77c
$1.00 Houbigant Quelque Fleur Perfumes	83c
$1.00 Raquel Bath Salts	49c
$1.50 Raquel Bath Powder	59c
75c Houbigant Bath powder	49c

50c Ingrams Shav. Cream	35c
10c Squibbs Shaving Cr.	31c
$1.00 Gillette Blades	89c
50c Probak Blades	39c
35c Gem Blades	25c
50c Mennens Shaving Cream	33c
$5.00 Schick Razor	$4.69
75c Schick Razor Blades	63c
$2.00 Shaving Brushes	$1.39
$1.50 Shaving Brushes	98c