١.

1

PENN STATE COLLEGIAN		ARTISTS' COURSE	Land, $10,000 Gift	MECHANICAL ENGINEERS	matics, English and physics that we
Published semi-weekly during the College year, except on Londays, students of The Pennsylvania State College, in the interest of the ege, the students, faculty, alumni, and friends	THE CAMPUSEER	PASS SALE OPENS	Places Penn State	TOTAL 257 STUDENTS	this year's freshmen and the n men showed a marked superior over then predecessors.
THE MANAGING BOARD	BY HIMSELF		In Centre County	Department Head Reports Largest Enrollment in Years
Editor Business Manager	As president and first member of the Fluke	Ticket Distribution for Concert Entertainments Begins in	Why 18 Penn State situated in Cen-		CATHANIN
LLIAM C Merlyain 'n HARRY C WOOD '31	of the Month club, I hereby nominate Tilly Zilch* of the class of '34. Tilly was on her way to phone duty	Treasurer's Office	tie county?	Two hundred and fifty-seven stu- dents have enrolled in the regular	CALLIAUM
Sports I dutor OR L COHI'N 31 News Feltor MULLIAN B HPILWAN '31 Loraign Advertising Manager	or the second floor of Grange Dorm last week Un-		vales met in Harrisburg seventy-seven vents ago the main issue was to es-	course in mechanical engineering, of
ARLI'S A SCHWIDT Jr '21 JANIT L BROWNBACK '11 News Filtor Women's Filtor	schooled in the ways of the world, Tilly threw hei- self upon the wolfish mercy of a student for direc-	is recognized arcives to remit blate,	tablish an agricultural and mechan-	men and eighty-two are sophomores,	(Matinee at 1:30)
RMAN B SOBLER 31 F LOUISE HOLFFDITZ '31 News I ditor Women's Managing Editor	tions to the doim.	the second annual Artists' Course opened the ticket sale for its entire	anti- the sheater stars adopted by the	ment of mechanical engineering, re-	i wooisey, Liverett Marshall in
MARY J ADAMS '11 Women's News Fultor	Five minutes later, naturally, little Miss Inno- cence was climbing the stairs of Valsity Hall. Not	program yesterday morning Passes for the series of entertain-	Transa Tallaste the next evention to	These numbers are considerably	"DIXIAN A" mber Eastern Intercollegiate Newspaper Association	knowing the whereabout of the phone, Tilly knocked	ments may be secured at the Treas- urer's office in Old Main every day	what now is Penn State	larger than at any other time in the thirty years that the department has	Return Showing of
8 Editor This Issue	on a door Out stepped a big, bold athlete, more or less in a state of dishabille.	this week. No takets will be sold for single programs during the ad-	citizens of the State for inducements	existed. In addition to the regular engineering students, seven naval of-	WESTERN FRONT"
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1930	With the naive trustfulness of youth, Tilly still	statute distribution	The first response came from James	ficers are registered for graduate	THURSDAY-saw nothing amiss. "Where," she asked timorously, "is the telephone I'm on duty this evening."	Singers of London will present the first concert of the season October 30	miles, who offered 200 acres of land ir Eile county	in the department	"WHAT A WIDOW"
AN UNGRIHODOX SATURDAY	"What the," choked our athlete Recov-	Composed of six artists who sing in- formally with a table as their only	offering any one of thice farms in	The facilities of the laboratory are being extensively enlarged by the ad-	FRIDAY
Early Octobel up-cts, the outstanding feature of tuiday's football games, have made a most uncom-	ering from his speechlessness, he finally managed "Oh, no, you're not!"	cians employ old English music dur-	emption right to 20J aduitional acres	dition of new equipment. A number of research problems are now under	CATTIND AN musing tangle out of the 1930 season. A glance at	"Yes I am," Tilly insisted petulantly. After	Annear Timura 10 the Char		way, most of them relating to the development of heat engines leading	(Matinee at 1:30) uiday's scores reveals that Purdue, Big Ten cham- ns, lost to Michigan, Stanford and Minnesota tied,	scoral similar exchanges she brought out the fact that she had been assigned to Grange Dorm Resist-	Aitists' Course number. Three bio-	of Old Main, the first College building Several other offers were made by	toward greater fuel economy	Billie Dove, Doug Fairbanks, Jr., "ONE NIGHT AT SUSIE'S" shington State downed Southern California, Yale	ing all temptation-that is, to piolong the jest-the	of merit have united to form the	Pennsylvania citizens, but it remained for a petition presented by II II	FRESHMEN BETTER TRAINED defeated by Georgia, Brown took Princeton's meas- , while a deadlock was the best Washington and	male proved himself a gentleman and scholar by set-	As the climax to the program, the	McAllister, General Irwin, and A G Curtin to decide the location These	Fleshmen entering college in re-	The Nittany cison could do against Wittenbeig. If succeeding	ting Tilly right The moial of this tale is that while there's one	Cleveland Symphony orchestre will offer the third concert February 11	men pledged $10,000 in behalf of Cen- tre and Huntingdon counties if the undars produce like results, the national football une will reflect a decidedly kaleidoscopic tint by the	borr every minute, she isn't always taken in.	The otchestra has appeared in New	site in Centre county be accepted	investigation made by Purdue uni-	The Strangest Picture Ever Film
e Thanksgiving Day finales hold the center of the	"Note' This is not her real name. Ha' ha'	American cities	establish the Farmers' High School	versity the same tests in mathe-	THURSDAY-
ge. While not as startling as those mentioned above,	Eddie Malmed '33. the Thespians' leading comic	With Sylvia Lent, violinist, as as-	of Pennsylvania Aided by State ap- propriation of $50,000 in 1857, granted	1	"ALL QUIET ON THE WESTERN FRONT" activities of Penn State's six remaining opponents	(*) 1° quite a cagey lad. Spying a beauteous plebe	club will present the fourth program	with the provision that a like sum be raised by friends of the institution,	~ 资意赞·	FRIDAY-en the week-end present a confusing and paradovical zzle. Temple nosed out Bucknell which may or may	spectator during the Stunt Night antics, he suddenly yearned for the life of a freshman again. He had		the school finally took form and opened its doors to 119 students Feb-	Materdashers	"WILAT A WIDOW" SATURDAY-
z/le Temple nosed out Bucknell which may or may t mcan that the Bisons have not hit last year's stride,	some classmates threaten him with a good tanning	UNEMPLOYMENT PROVES	iuary 16, 1850 These students rep-		"RAFFLES"
gate overwhelmed Lafayette to cast a threatening	unless he proposed and was rewarded with a kiss Eddie carned his reward and went to it with vim	NO THREAT TO DAIRYMEN	seven counties in Pennsylvania.	5
moon shadow over Nittany Alummi Day skies and, haps, to goad the Leopards to fever pitch for the	and vigor When questioned as to the lady's occula-		MeFARLAND WILL ATTEND	CIMBI V.	PHONE 264 nn State game, and Syracuse was impressive in	tory technique he replied. "The co-eds are getting better every year. This is going to be some college	Graduates Find Position in Nearly Every Phase of Wo.k	CONFERENCE OF ADVISORS	11	. C
opping Rutgers Iowa lost to an unknown Centenary even, but Pitt continued its undefeated march at the	five years from now."		Di David F McFailand, head of the department of metallungy, will at-	THE HILA	AND SHOP
pense of Westein Reserve	Leading handsome police dogs around the campus	Unemployment holds no threat for the dauy husbandry graduates of the	tend the fourth annual meeting of the	Dollar Dry Cleaning	. Repairing
In brief the summary shows that a threatening o, Colgate, Pitt, and Syracuse emerged unscathed	is coming into greater favor every year. Duke	of they actuation monored by Bra-	United States Bureau of Mines and		lete Laundry Service fayette, Bucknell, and Iowa may be determined to	Miller, demon pianist, may be seen daily trotting about with Joe La Barr's canine "Sychor," the pet of the	ment head shows	at Pitubuigh Filday	WE CALL FOR rn then defeats into stepping stones to victory. But e most reassuring ray of all in the murky mix-up was	Kappa house. If any shapely brunette with a well-	All lines of dairy activity are rep-	CHOB BATFRIALS FRESH HER e Nittany Lion's decisive rout of Marshall.	behaved pooch is in need of a man, will she please apply to me at the COLLEGIAN office? As a matter	held by the young men Four rie employed by ice cream manufactur-	Fifty non-fraternity freshmen were entertained at the annual freshman
A STUDENT POCKETBOOK	of fact, she can even apply without the dog	ers and an equal number are associ-	smoker held last Monaay by the Penn State Club Adi. n O More, execu-	11	•
Signs of a bright day for democracy in higher edu-	Fire threatened destruction of the west stands at	Three have fellowships for graduate study. Two are on darry farms, and	Hetzel, addressed the first year men	PLAY	GOLF ation were revealed in figures recently released by the	the Marshall track meet Saturday. Danger was	there are two engaged in dairy im-	on "Adapting One's Self to College inversity of Missouri showing how students in that istitution are aided in getting through college by the	averted by two bottles of coke and a plug of chew- ing tobacco	One graduate is working with his father in the milk business and an-		11	e for Ladies and Men niversity student loan fund	01000000	other is managing his father's estate in Porto Rico. One is with a com-	ALBERT DEAL	118	-Practice Season Now On
Under the plan, as adopted by the mid-western uni- ensity, financially dependent students may borrow from	Seen and Heard About the Campus, Johnny Guvan tiging Lil Fisher's shoe lace while Julia Sul-	mercial milk company, another is as- sistant county agent, a third is bac-		For the Inter-Fra	ternity Tournament
ie fund enough money to assist them in completing	hvan, the Gill Friend, looks on Maige Stitt, a Kappa luminary, plans to be graduated in February,	tenologist and chernist, and the re- maining two are associated respec-		· · ·
nen education. Payment of the loan is not required ntil after the student graduates from the university,	making college in three and one-half years-Marge	tively with a refigerating company and a dairy council.	HEATING	Cathau	ım Kilty
	1 *		and PLUMBING		•
	admits she's in a huriy to be mairied, the man in the case haing Dec Kally '30, of course			I Contraction of the second se	o Goir Course
The widening usefulness of this system can be	admits she's in a huriy to be mairied, the man in the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course	ATTEND 70TH ANNIVERSARY		Country Clu
The widening usefulness of this system can be ainly seen by a glance at last year's figures During at period more than one-tenth of the student body	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Maczis, taking a breather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping her breathe	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W	117 Frazier St.	Country Clu	······
The widening usefulness of this system can be anily seen by a glance at last year's figures During at period more than one-tenth of the student body ade use of the fund They borrowed nearly $70,000,	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Maczis, taking a breather from Johnstown practice	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Flotcher, head of the depriment of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell,	117 Frazier St.	Country Clu
The widening usefulness of this system can be and; seen by a glance at last year's figures During int period more than one-tenth of the student body add use of the fund They borrowed nearly $70,000, I aligest rum even loaned in one year Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Maczis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping hei bicathe Red Mehlman, that irrepressible New Yorker, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safety man to play the fourth hand	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stavenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth	117 Frazier St.	Country Clu
The widening usefulness of this system can be ainly seen by a glance at last year's figures During at period more than one-tenth of the student body ide use of the fund They borrowed nearly $70,000, e largest rum even loaned in one yean Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Maczie, taking a breather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping hel breathe Red Mchiman, that rriepressible New Yorken, was all for a bridge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stavenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and directoj of extension work, iccentiv attended the fiftieth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More	This where the internet of the second		AA
The widening usefulness of this system can be amby seen by a glance at last year's figures. During at period more than one-tenth of the student body ide use of the fund. They borrowed nearly $70,000, e largest rum ever loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education ice demiceration. It gives to the poor as well as the b c still greater chance to secure advanced training	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Maczie, taking a breather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping hel breathe Red Mehlman, that ir repressible New Yorkei, was all for a bridge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safety man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the griditon during a training secsion Spook Irvine, who durly haunts the Phi Sigma Kappa house,	Ralph L Watts, dcan of the School of Agriculture, Di Stavenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dcan and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftheth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State , are connected with the New Jensey	117 Frazier St.	Why do Most
The widening usefulness of this system can be anily seen by a glance at last year's figures. During at period more than one-tenth of the student body did use of the fund. They borrowed nearly $70,000, e largest rum ever loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education are demicentic. It gives to the poor as well as the b s still greater chance to secure advanced training opens the doors of learning to a larger group, which	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzie, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping hel bicathe Red Mehlman, that rriepiessible New Yorken, was all for a hidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gidnion during a training session Spook livine, who daily hauts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig girl hope on the plebe team Pat Glargov, a	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Flotcher, head of the depritment of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and directoi of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thity graduates of Penn State	117 Frazier St.	Why do Most	s?*
The widening usefulness of this system can be ainly seen by a glance at last year's figures During at period more than one-tenth of the student body add use of the fund They borrowed nearly $70,000, e largest rum even loaned in one year Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education the demicentic It gives to the poor as well as the b c still groater elanne to seeme advanced training ones the doois of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Maczie, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping hel bicathe Red Mehlman, that ricepressible New Yorken, was all for a bildge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the girldion during a training session Spock livine, who daily haunts the Phi Sigma Kappa house, making a trip to lend moral support to the Phi Sig girld hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precerous co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses	Ralph L Watts, dcan of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the depritment of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dcan and directo of extension work, recently attended the fiftight annwersary of the New Jersey agin- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white as identifies Ch'Y & Turner Ly um year Studen	Why do Most uts buy Sheaffer's	s?*
The widening usefulness of this system can be unly seen by a glance at last year's figures During at period more than one-tenth of the student body to use of the fund They horrowed nearly $70,000, blargest rum even loaned in one year Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education are demerature. It gives to the poor as well as the b c still greater chance to seeure advanced training turn can step out into the world and help others to sure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN!	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping hel bieathe Red Mehlman, that irrepressible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safety man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridinon during a training secsion Spook livine, who duily haunts the Phi Sigma Kappa house, making a trip to lend moral support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed a '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A litthe wooden A litthe wooden	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the depritment of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and directoi of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversarily of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thity graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St.	Why do Most	717
The widening usefulness of this system can be unly seen by a glance at last year's figures During at period more than one-tenth of the student body du use of the fund They borrowed nearly $70,000, a largest rum even loaned in one year Not only does a plan like this and the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education are demicentic. It gives to the poor as well as the b a still greater chance to secure advanced training onens the doors of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to prove the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Maczie, taking a breather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping hel breathe Red Mehlman, that ir repressible New Yorken, was all for a bridge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safety man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the griditon during a training secsion Spook livine, who duily haunts the Phi Sigma Kappa house, making a trip to lend moral support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the depritment of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and directoi of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversarily of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thity graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This where Straffer sche Charles Char	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's tr proven by sales figures that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student	s .
The widening usefulness of this system can be unly seen by a glance at last year's figures. During at period more than one-tenth of the student body do use of the fund. They borrowed nearly $70,000, b largest rum even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education ne demerate. It gives to the poor as well as the b c still greater chance to secure advanced training onens the does of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to sure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his me, always hounded by that evil maxim huiled at m by digruntled eneues—"The pun is the lowest	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping helping helping Rei Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftheth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white as identified Striven Li, tom? pen Studen No firstro. Studen Lis a fac among J leges, e Green	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's tr proven by sales figures, that America's hundred leading col-	s rs.
The widening usefulness of this system can be unly seen by a glance at last year's figures During at period more than one-tenth of the student body the use of the fund They borrowed nearly $70,000, a largest rum even loaned in one year Not only does a plan like this and the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education are democratic. It gives to the poor as well as the b c still greater chance to secure advanced training concers the dools of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to sure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his me, always hounded by that evil maxim hulled at m by disgunted enemes—"The pun is the lowest in of wit—the punster has led a haid life these	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping helping helping Rei Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftheth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white Charling Charlin	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student pred, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide a know the answer. These soph	s rs. nat? BALANCE
The widening usefulness of this system can be unly seen by a glance at last year's figures During at period more than one-tenth of the student body due use of the fund They horrowed nearly $70,000, e largest rum ever loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education ne demeratue. It gives to the poor as well as the b e still greater chance to secure advanced training onens the doors of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to eare the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his me, always hounded by that evil maxim huiled at m by digrunted enenues—"The pun is the lowest in of vit"—the punster has led a hard life these iny years "Now, however, the day has dawned for his strain and we gladly join in the movement to in-	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping helping helping Rei Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftheth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white Straffer asho Charles This white Straffer Straffer Ly time Pen Ly time Pen It is a fact among J leges, c register Stru Lis su Yon Control Structure Lis su Structure Lis su Structure Lis su Structure Lis su Structure Lis su Lis su Structure Lis su Structure Structure Structure Lis su Structure Lis su Structure Structure Lis su Structure Structure Structure Structure Lis su Structure St	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's tr proven by sales figures that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student ered, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide hen were answer. These soph ed pen users have found that	is rs. mt? BALANCE usti- they they
The widening usefulness of this system can be unly seen by a glunce at last year's figures During the period more than one-tenth of the student body do use of the fund They borrowed nearly $70,000, hargest run even loaned in one year Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education to demecratic If gives to the poor as well as the be still greater chance to searce advanced training onens the doors of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to ure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his me, always hounded by that evil maxim hurled at b by digrunded ensure—"The pun is the lowest m of wit"—the punster has led a hard life these my years Now, however, the day has dawned for his rate at a dwe gladiv join in the movement to im- duce hi b annichild, the pun, into the best circles.	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftheth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white the indentifies Straffer sche Civita Pan Ly time Pan Student Montre, Straffer St	Why do Most uts buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures, that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student red, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide a know the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that the Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B	s rs. int? BALANCE The only Bolence" pen they points, Balance
The widening usefulness of this system can be inly seen by a glance at last year's figures During it period more than one-tenth of the student body dues of the fund They horrowed nearly $70,000, largest rum ever loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this and the individual, but also helps to make our sistem of higher education to democratic. It gives to the poor as well as the best all greater chance to secure advanced training onens the doors of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to ure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air bits with in the privacy of his ne, always hounded by that evil maxim hurled at b bit digrunted enenues—"The pun is the lowest in of vit"—the punster has led a hand hife these my venus Now, however, the day has dawned for his such and help unt to the best ruces. Undoubtedly, we nigue, a pun of the best grade mot le formulated on a moment's notice On the	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftheth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white the indentifies Straffer sche Civita Pan Ly time Pan Student Montre, Straffer St	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's tr proven by sales figures that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student red, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide a know the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that ke Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that t	s rs. int? BALANCE isti- they points, salance? they like
The widening usefulness of this system can be inly seen by a glance at last year's figures. During it period more than one-tenth of the student body do use of the fund. They horrowed nearly $70,000, largest rum even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education to demerative. It gives to the poor as well as the be still greater chance to secure advanced training onens the doors of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to ure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air bits wit in the privacy of his me, always hounded by that evil maxim hulled at by digunt'ed enemics—"The pun is the lowest m of vit"—the punster has led a hard life these my veats. Now, however, the day has dawned for his return at and we gladly join in the movement to in- duce his bian-child, the pun, into the best circles. Undoubtedly, we nigue, a pun of the best grade mot be formulated on a moment's motice. On the trainy, it must be mulled over mentally many times	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftheth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white the indentifies Straffer sche Civita Pan Ly time Pan Student Montre, Straffer St	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's tr proven by sales figures that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student rred, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide h know the answer. These soph ed pen users 'have found that ke Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that the streamlined, modern cont Balance' pen and pencil,	s rs. rs. rs. rs. rs. rs. rs. BALANCE The only Belence are points, Salance ^o they like our of the and that
The widening usefulness of this system can be inly seen by a glance at last year's figures During t period more than one-tenth of the student body largest rum ever loaned in one year Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but ido helps to make our system of higher education e demicratic. It gives to the poor as well as the e still greater chance to secure advanced training mores the doors of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to are the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his is, always hounded by that evil maxim hurled at by disguinted ensues—"The pun is the lowest on of vit—the punster has led a hard life these my years. Now, however, the day has dawned for his ince in the an-held, the pun, mit the best cricles. Undoubtedly, we nigue, a pun of the best grade not the formulated on a moment's notice. On the tray, it must be mulled over mentally many times is it is dans the under for any times.	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftheth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white the indentifies Straffer sche Civita Pan Ly time Pan Student Montre, Straffer St	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures, that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student rred, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide how the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that ke Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance° pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime° guaran	s rs. int? BALANCE usti- they points, salance ^o they like our of the , and that thee of satis-
The widening usefulness of this system can be nly seen by a glance at last year's figures During the use of the fund. They horrowed nearly $70,000, largest rum even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this and the individual, but loa helps to make our system of higher education e demicratic. It gives to the poor as well as the still greater chance to secure advanced training mens the doors of learning to a larger group, which urn can step out into the world and help others to the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his as a low grounded by that evil maxim hurled at by digrunt/ed enemise—"The pun is the lowest in of vit"—the punsite has led a hand life these is yousin Now, however, the day has dawned for his increater and we gladly join in the movement to in- luce he bit an-child, the pun, into the best grade not le formulated on a moment's notice. On the tray, it must be mulled over mentally many times is a taxt an auspicion, moment before he hulls it at unsuspecting victims. A pun of this type is truly a	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftheth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white Statifies Statifies Statifies Statifies Student Ly time year Student No BETC. Student Lis a fact among J Leges, of To Store Statifies Student Lis a fact among J Leges, of To Store Statifies Statifies Student Lis a fact among J Leges, of To Statifies	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures, that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student rred, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide a know the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that ke Sheaffer's individualized pen that they like the comfortable E designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern contt Balance ^o pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime ^o guaran factory service means som	s rs. rs. rs. rs. rs. rs. BALANCE The only Bolomer's an they points, balance ^o they like our of the , and that thee of satis- lething.
The widening usefulness of this system can be nly seen by a glance at last year's figures During t period more than one-tenth of the student body largest rum ever loaned in one year Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but ido helps to make our system of higher education e demicentie. It gives to the poor as well as the e still greater chance to secure advanced training mens the dons of learning to a larger group, which is not only does a plan like the world and help others to are the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his is, always hounded by that evil maxim hurled at by digrant'ed enemes—"The pun is the lowest in of wit"—the punster has led a hard life these ny years. Now, however, the day has dawned for his nucleal the annihild, the pun, into the best circles. Undoubtedly, we ingue, a pun of the best grade not le foriumlated on a moment's notice. On the trary, it must be mulled over mentally many times at await an auspierous moment before he hurls it at unsuspecting victures. A pun of this type is truly a k of a it and re used by many of the nation's well- wing futures.	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftheth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white the indentifies Straffer sche Civita Pan Ly time Pan Student Montre, Straffer St	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures, that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student ered, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide the know the answer. These soph ed pen users 'have found that ke Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance ^o pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime ^e Buaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's Leadership, and prompts	s rs. mt? BALANCE isti The only Bolence on they points, salance they like our of the and that teeting. s college sales s the suggestion
The widening usefulness of this system can be nly seen by a glance at last year's figures During t period more than one-tenth of the student body largest rum ever loaned in one year Not only does a plan like this and the individual, but idso helps to make our system of higher education e demicentie. It gives to the poor as well as the e still greater chance to secure advanced training mens the doors of learning to a larger group, which inter a still greater chance to secure advanced training mens the doors of learning to a larger group, which urn can step out into the world and help others to the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUNY! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his is, always hounded by that evil maxim hurled at by digrunt/ed enemies—"The pun is the lowest in of wit"—the punster has led a hard life these sy years. Now, however, the day has dawned for his increation and we gladly join in the movement to m- luce hi hi ann-child, the pun, into the best circles. Undoubtedly, we nigue, a pun of the best grade not be formulated on a moment's notice. On the trainy, it must be mulled over mentally many times in et auant an auspicious moment before he huils it at unsuspecting victums. A pun of this type is truly a k of ait and is used by many of the nation's well- win figures. This pun's little brother, the common pun, is just	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Flotcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and direction of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station. More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white Statifies Statifies Statifies Statifies Student Ly time year Student No BETC. Student Lis a fact among J Leges, of To Store Statifies Student Lis a fact among J Leges, of To Store Statifies Statifies Student Lis a fact among J Leges, of To Statifies	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's tr proven by sales figures that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student rred, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide h know the answer. These soph d pen users 'have found that ke Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that the streamlined, modern cont Balance' pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime' guaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts' that if you'll give She	The party Bolescore and that they like our of the they like our of the they like our of the they like os satistication and that the suggestion and that and that the suggestion and the
The widening usefulness of this system can be inly seen by a glance at last year's figures During t period more than one-tenth of the student body largest rum ever loaned in one year Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but ido helps to make our system of higher education e demicratic. It gives to the poor as well as the r still greater chance to secure advanced training mores the doors of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to are the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his is, always hounded by that evil maxim hurled at by digrant's domines. ⁴ The pun is the lowest mof viti-the guastic has led a hard life these my scats. Now, however, the day has dawned for his nature an anothed, beyon, in the movement to mathem is an in-held, the pun, into the best cricles. Undoubtedly, we nigue, a pun of the best grade not the formulated on a moment's notice. On the trary, it must be mulled over mentally many times is at an anspicous moment before he hurls it at unsuspecting victims. A pun of this type is truly a k of nit and is used by many of the nation's well- wen figures. This pun's little brother, the common pun, is just potent an influence in the country's humor. Anyone produce a common, odmary pun but just because it	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Fletcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and director of extension work, recently attended the fiftheth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white Statifies Statifies Statifies Statifies Student Ly time year Student No BETC. Student Lis a fact among J Leges, of To Store Statifies Student Lis a fact among J Leges, of To Store Statifies Statifies Student Lis a fact among J Leges, of To Statifies	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student red, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide har they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance ^o pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime ^o guaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give Sha Lifetime ^o a class-room	s rs. int? BALANCE usti- they points, salance° they like our of the , and that itee of satis- iething. s college sales s the suggestion eaffer's Balance° t test, you'll adopt
The widening usefulness of this system can be unly seen by a glance at last year's figures During it period more than one-tenth of the student body do use of the fund. They horrowed nearly $70,000, bargest run even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this and the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education is democratic. It gives to the poor as well as the be still greater chance to secure advanced training onens the doors of learning to a larger group, which furn can step out into the world and help others to ure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his me, always hounded by that evil maxim hurled at be budget and his within the privacy of his me, always hounded by that evil maxim hurled at be budget and his within the privacy of his me, always hounded by that evil maxim hurled at be budget and be gladly join in the movement to in- suce his bit and, the pun, into the best circles. Undoubtedly, we migue, a pun of the best grade not be formulated on a moment's notice. On the stratist in an superious moment before he hurls it at a unsupecting victures. Apun of this type is truly a sta diation is used by many of the nation's well- own figures. This pun's little brother, the common pun, is just potent an influence in the country's humor. Anyone is produce a common, ordinary pun but just because it the property of the butcher, baker, and candilestick	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Flotcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and direction of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station. More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This whise Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Studen	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures, that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student rred, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide a know the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that ke Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance ^o pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime ^o guaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give She Lifetime ^o a class-room that pen for your Li	s rs. int? BALANCE usti- they points, salance° they like our of the , and that itee of satis- iething. s college sales s the suggestion eaffer's Balance° t test, you'll adopt
The widening usefulness of this system can be unly seen by a glance at last year's figures. During at period more than one-tenth of the student body do use of the fund. They borrowed nearly $70,000, bargest rum even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education is demerate. It gives to the poor as well as the ble still greater chance to secure advanced training oners the doors of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to ure the same opportunity. ILONG LIVE THE PUN! Tong forced to air his wit in the privacy of his me, always hounded by that evil maxim hulled at b by digruntled enemics—"The pun is the lowest in of vit"—the punster has led a hard life these may eval. Now, however, the day has dawned for his incruciant and we gladly join in the movement to in- bloce his ham-child, the pun, into the best grade into the formulated on a moment's notice. On the into the formulated on a moment's notice on the into it attains the right flavor. Then, its sponsoi tet avait an auspicious moment before he hulls is at a unsuspecting victims A pun of this type is truly a olk of ait and is used by many of the nation's well- own figures. This pun's little bother, the common pun, is just potent an influence in the country's humor. Anyone is produce a common, odinany pun but just because it the property of the butcher, baker, and candlestick they is no i eason why this pun should be looked down	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Flotcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and direction of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversarily of the New Jersey setural experiment station. More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This whise Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Studen	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures, that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student rred, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide a know the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that ke Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance ^o pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime ^o guaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give She Lifetime ^o a class-room that pen for your Li	as rs. mt? BALANCE usti- they points, inlance ^o they like our of the and that ttee of satis- tething. s collede sales s the subjection eaffer's Balance ^o ttest, you'll adopt fetime ^o .
The widening usefulness of this system can be unly seen by a glance at last year's figures During at period more than one-tenth of the student body due use of the fund. They horrowed nearly $70,000, e largest rum even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this and the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education are demicentic. It gives to the poor as well as the b e still greater chance to secure advanced training onens the doois of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to sure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his me, always hounded by that evil maxim hulled at by by digrantide enemies—"The pun is the lowest on of vid—the punction has dawned for his "rate" at " and we gladly join in the movement to m- aduce his hain-child, the pun, into the best cricles. Undoubtedly, we ingue, a pun of the best grade mota to formulated on a mement's notice. On the nitiary, it must be mulled over mentally many times the stawait an auspicious moment before he huils it at s unsupecting victures. A pun of this type is truly a bik of art and is used by many of the nation's well- own figures. This pun's little bother, the common pun, is just potent an influence in the ecountry's humor. Anyone is produce a common, onlinary pun but just because it the property of the butcher, baker, and candlestick use more laughter, often genuine, often feigned, but	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Flotcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and directo of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth annoversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station. More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This whise Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Studen	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures, that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student rred, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide a know the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that ke Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance ^o pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime ^o guaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give She Lifetime ^o a class-room that pen for your Li	The party Bolence of the party Bolence of the party Bolence of the party Bolence of the party like our of the part that the of satistication is the subjection and that the su
The widening usefulness of this system can be liand, seen by a glance at last year's figures. During and period more than one-tenth of the student body bade use of the fund. They borrowed nearly $70,000, he largest run even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education one democratic. If gives to the poor as well as the cle still greater chance to secure advanced training oneas the does of learning to a larger group, which the turn can step out into the world and help others to secure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Tong forced to air his wit in the privacy of his more, always hounded by that evil maxim huiled at in by dig tuntled enemies—"The pun is the lowest and of vit"—the punster has led a haid life these 'my years. Now, however, the day has dawned for his ording the formulated on a moment's notice. On the output of the sourd on a moment's notice. On the ontally, it must be mulled over mentally many times of at atams the sight flavor. Then, its sponsor that and is unselicious. Appun of the hauls it at is unsuppecting victures. A pun of the nation's well- nown figures. This pun's little brother, the common pun, is just potent an influence in the country's humor. Anyone as produce a common, odinary pun but just because it the poperty of the butcher, baker, and candlestick vaket is no reason why this pun should be looked down pun These two types of pun reach more people and use more langhter, often genue, often feigned, but vertheless langhter than any other kind of humor.	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Flotcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and direction of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth annoversary of the New Jersey station. Don't Experiment station More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station. Don't Experiment Willy your Appearance Fine CLOTHES WHY KEEP THAT COLD? Heneph	117 Frazier St. This whise Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Studen	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures that imerica's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student ered, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide han with 1700 or more student ered, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide has they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that the streamlined, modern cont Balance ^o pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime ^o guaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give Sh Lifetime ^o a class-room that pen for your Li AT BETHER STOR SHEEA	s rs. they points, salance ^o they like our of the and that tee of satis- tething. s college sales s the suggestion eaffer's Balance ^o test, you'll adopt fetime ^o . RES EVERYWHERE FFERRS
The widening usefulness of this system can be limitly seen by a glance at last year's figures. During that period more than one-tenth of the student body adde use of the fund. They horrowed nearly $70,000, he largest run even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education one democratic. It gives to the poor as well as the ch e still greater chance to secure advanced training concess the dois of learning to a larger group, which is turn can step out into the world and help ethers to secure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his one, sheavy hounded by that evil maxim huiled at up by diggunted enemies—"The pun is the lowest sing of vit"—the punsite has led a hard life these "any ceats". Now, however, the day has dawned for his performed and any gladly join in the movement to in- contract and we gladly join in the best circles. Undoubtedly, we migue, a pun of the best grade much le formulated on a moment's notice. On the outlast, it must be multied over mentally many times officie it attains the right flavor. Then, its sponsor inst await an auspicous moment before he huils it at is unsuppering victims. A pun of this type is truly a look of ait and is used by many of the nation's well- nowin figures. This pun's little bother, the common pun, is just potent an influence in the country's humor. Anyone are produce a common, odinary pun but just because it is the property of the butcher, baker, and candlestick vake is no reason why this pun should be looked down on. These two types of pun reach more people and muse more laughter, often genuine, often feigned, but evertheless laughter than any other kind of humor. his, alone, is an overwhelming vote in favor of the un	the case being Doc Kalb '30, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping help bicathe Red Mchiman, that rriepicesible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moial support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheel ender from severe lassitude at the game-ut's, a good thing it gave him something to	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Flotcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and directo of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth annoversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station. More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This whise Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Studen	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures that thereica's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student red, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide know the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that the Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance° pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime° Auaram factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give She hat if you'll give She hat if you'll give She hat fire a class-room that pen for your Li AT BEITER STOP SHEAFER PEN COMPA- VANIENTER PEN COMPA-	s rs. int? they points, salance° they like our of the and that teee of satis- tething. s college sales s the suggestion eaffer's Balance° test, you'll adopt fetime°. RES EVERYWHERE FFFERERS -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS -SKRIP -DESK SETS -SKRIP -DESK SETS -SKRIP -DESK SETS -SKRIP
The widening usefulness of this system can be amby seen by a glance at last year's figures During the period more than one-tenth of the student body add use of the fund They borrowed nearly $70,000, be largest rum even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education one demiceratic. It gives to the poor as well as the che still greater enance to secure advanced training onens the doors of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to euror the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to an his wit in the privacy of his more shaps shounded by that evil maxim huiled at in by dig untiled enemies—"The pun is the lowest of an of vil"—the punsite has led a hind his these "ny years" Now, however, the day has dawned for his or an "it"—the punsite has led a hind his these "ny years" Now, however, the day has dawned for his or an "it"—the pung the best cricles. Undoubtedly, we migue, a pun of the best grade unot be formulated on a moment's notice. On the mutary, it must be mulled over mentally many times is unsuspecting victures. A pun of this type is truly a oik of att and a used by many of the nation's well- nown figures. This pun's little brother, the common pun, is just a produce a common, odmany pun but just because it to the property of the butcher, baker, and candlestiek date is no reason why this pun should be looked down pon. These two types of pun reach more people and use mole laughter than any other kind of humor- has, alone, is an overwhelming vote in favor of the user mole laughter than any other kind of humor- has, alone, is an overwhelming vote in favor of the user mole laughter than any other kind of humor- has, alone, is an overwhelming vote in favor of the un-	the ease being Doc Kalb '90, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping helping helping Red Mehlman, that irrepressible New Yorken, was all for a bidge game during the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridinon during a training secsion Spook livine, who duily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moral support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed al '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wiong with it A lifth wooden -pole savel a cheeleader from severe lassitude at the game—it's, a good thing it gave him something to lean on all after noon	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Flother, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and direction of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversary of the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This whise Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Studen	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures that thereica's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student red, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide know the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that the Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance° pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime° Auaram factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give She hat if you'll give She hat if you'll give She hat fire a class-room that pen for your Li AT BEITER STOP SHEAFER PEN COMPA- VANIENTER PEN COMPA-	s rs. int? they points, salance° they like our of the p and that tree of satis- tething. s college sales s the suggestion eaffer's Balance° test, you'll adopt fetime°. RES EVERYWHERE FFFERERS -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS SKRIP
The widening usefulness of this system can be limitly seen by a glance at last year's figures During hat period more than one-tenth of the student body hade use of the fund. They borrowed nearly $70,000, he largest run even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education one democratic. It gives to the poor as well as the ch is still greater chance to secure advanced training concess the does of learning to a larger group, which is turn can step out into the world and help others to secure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his one, she does of learning to a larger group, which is used of the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his one, always hounded by that evil maxim huiled at in by digg untied enemics—"The pun is the lowest at our by "t"—the punsite has led a hard life these "any cents". Now, however, the day has dawned for his orthan and we gladly join in the movement to in- outed with is am-child, the pun, into the best grade unnot be formulated on a moment's notice. On the outlany, it must be multiced over mentally many times effore it attains the night flavor. Then, its sponsor uset await an auspicous moment before he huils it at is unsuspecting victims. A pun of this type is truly a oik of ant an auspicous moment before he huils it at is unsuspecting victims. A pun of this type is truly a oik of ant an influence in the country's humor. Anyone are produce a common, ordinary pun but just because it is the property of the butcher, baker, and candlestick vaket is no leaves why this pun should be looked down pon. These two types of pun reach more people and must more laughter, often genuine, often feigned, but evertheless laughter than any other kind of humor, his, alone, is an overwhelming vote in favor of the un.	the ease being Doc Kalb '90, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping helping helping helping Red Mehlman, that irrepressible New Yorke, was all for a hidge game during the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridinon during a training session Spook Irwne, who daily haunts the Phi Sigma Kappa house, making a trip to lend moral support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glargow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A lifth wooden -pole savei a cheeleader from severe lassitude at the game—it's, a good thing it gave him something to lean on all after noon	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Flotcher, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and directo of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth annoversary of the New Jersey agri- cultural experiment station. More than thirty graduates of Penn State are connected with the New Jersey station. Don't Experiment With your Appearance Fine CLOTHES WHY KEEP THAT COLD? Heneph Cold Tablets	117 Frazier St. This whise Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Studen	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures that thereica's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student red, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide know the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that to Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance° pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime° Auaram factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give She hat if you'll give She hat if you'll give She hat fire of concurre that pen for your Li AT BEITER STOP Sheaffer PEN COMPA "Income Indo."	s rs. int? BALANCE int: they points, solance° they like our of the p and that tree of satis- tething. s college sales s the suggestion eaffer's Balance° test, you'll adopt fetime°. RES EVERYWHERE FFFERERS -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS 'S KRIP -DESK SETS' SKRIP -DESK SETS' SKRIP
hand, seen by a glance at last year's figures During hat period more than one-tenth of the student body had use of the fund. They borrowed nearly $70,000, he largest run ever loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this and the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education once demicratic. It gives to the poor as well as the cb e still greater chance to secure advanced training concers the doors of learning to a larger group, which is turn can step out into the world and help others to secure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his one, always hounded by that evil maxim hurled at in by disguntled enemies—"The pun is the lowest of not of it"—the punster has led a hard life these only of it"—the punster has led a hard life these only of it"—the punster has down of the best grade annot be formulated on a moment's notice. On the outrary, it must be mulled one mentally many times of a rit attains the right flavor. Then, its sponsor oust awat an autspicous moment before he huils it at is unsupecting victures. A pun of this type is truly a solk of ait and is used by many of the nation's well- nown figures. This pun's little brother, the common pun, is just - potent an influence in the country's humor. Anyone approduce a common, odinary pun but just because it is the properity of the butcher, baker, and candlestick value is no reason why this pun should be looked down pon These two types of pun reach more people and any the humorits, is an overwholming vote in favor of the unse model and is used by many often favor of the inner the theory of the individed down pon These two types of pun reach more people and any moduce is an overwholming vote in favor of the unsemicel angliter, in contrast to other hum- rists, is privileged to laugh at his own wit. Your the humorits are required by convention to present ever countenances while inwardly convilsed with laugh-	the ease being Doc Kalb '90, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping helping helping Red Mehlman, that irrepressible New Yorke, was all for a hidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edvalds stioll across the gridnon during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moral support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wiong with it A little wooder ople savel a cheelender from severe lassitude at the game—it's, a good thing it gave him something to lean on all after noon	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Flother, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and direction of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversary of the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This whise Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Studen	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures that it proven by sales figures that inmerica's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student red, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide know the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that to Sheaffer's individualized pen- hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance° pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime° guaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give Shh Lifetime° a class-room that pen for your Li AT BEITER STOR SHEAFFER FEN COMPA- time of state. The ONLY penne Loftal bedeen but Sheaffer's fac.	s rs. rs. int? isti- they points, salance ^o they like our of the and that thee of satis- tething. s college sales s the suggestion eaffer's Balance ^o test, you'll adopt fetime ^o . RES EVERYWHERE FFERENCS, DESK SETS SKRIP DESK SETS SKRIP DESK SETS - SKRIP
The widening usefulness of this system can be limitly seen by a glance at last year's figures. During hat period more than one-tenth of the student body hade use of the fund. They borrowed nearly $70,000, he largest rum evel banned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education one demeratic. It gives to the poor as well as the che still greater chance to secure advanced training to nones the doors of learning to a larger group, which is the doors of learning to a larger group, which is the assessed on the world and help others to ceure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his one, always hounded by that evil maxim huiled at in by dig untied enemics—"The pun is the lowest of works however, the day has dawned for his origination of vit"—the punster has led a hard life these "any yeats". Now, however, the day has dawned for his origination and we gladly join in the movement to in- fortice of a much be put here to be best grade unnot the formulated on a moment's notice. On the origination, must be multiled over mentally many times office it attains the right flavor. Then, its sponsor nust await an auspicious moment before he huils it at is unsupecting victures. A pun of this type is truly a took of att and is used by many of the nation's well- nowin figures. This pun's hills bother, the common pun, is just 's potent an influence in the country's humor. Anyone as produce a common, ordinary pun but just because it is the property of the butcher, baker, and candlestick vaket is no reason why this pun should be looked down point. These two types of pun neach more people and ause more laughter, often genuine, often feigned, but evertheless laughter than any other kind of humor- these humorists are required by convention to present type confirmed punster, in contrast to other hum- rists, is privileged to laugh at his own wit. Your then humorists are required by convention to present type confirmed pu	the ease being Doc Kalb '90, of course Teddy Mazers, taking a breather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping helping helping Red Mehlman, that irrepressible New Yorken, was all for a bridge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridhon during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trap to lend moral support to the Phi Sig gridhope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wrong with it A little wooden ople savel a cheelender from severe lassitude at the game—it's, a good thing it gave him something to lean on all afternoon	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Plother, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and direction of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversarily of the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This whise Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Scalify sub- Constraints Studen	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures that imerica's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student ered, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide has the answer. These soph ed pen users 'have found that the Sheaffer's individualized pen- hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that the streamlined, modern cont Balance ^o pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime ^o guaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give Sh Lifetime ^o a class-room that pen for your Li AT BETHER STOR SHEAFER PEN COMPA "second Factors' promoted aga "second factors' promoted aga version of states" The ONLY Senune Lifeti be descued All fourtant defects, but Sheaffer's Li comally for your life, a force promoted aga reactor promoted aga states for the other states and the states. The ONLY Senune Lifeti be descued All fourtant defects, but Sheaffer's Li compare promoted aga reactor promoted aga the states. States and the states and defects, but Sheaffer's Li compare promoted aga the states. The only senure Lifeti be descued All fourtant defects, but Sheaffer's Li compare promoted aga the states. States and the s	s rs. rs. rs. they points. salance ⁶ they like our of the and that thee of satis- tething. s college sales s the suggestion eaffer's Balance ⁶ test, you'll adopt fetime ⁶ . RES EVERYWHERE FFEERS DESK SETS'SKRIP NY FORT MADISON, IOWA, U S A. OWA, U S A. WALLES STATES DESK SETS'SKRIP NY FORT MADISON, IOWA, U S A. OWA, U S A.
The widening usefulness of this system can be amby seen by a glance at last year's figures During at period more than one-tenth of the student body add use of the fund. They borrowed nearly $70,000, he largest rum even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education one democratic. It gives to the poor as well as the ch is still greater chance to secure advanced training one on the doors of learning to a larger group, which is turn can step out into the world and help others to euror the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his one, shaps hounded by that evil maxim hulled at m by dig untiled enemies—"The pun is the lowest and of vit"—the punsite has led a hard life these "my years" Now, however, the day has dawned for his orthorad that and child these strates. Undoabtedly, we nigue, a pun of the best grade that has the multed on a moment's notice. On the antiany, it must be multed one mentally many times offor it attains the right flavot. Then, its sponsor uset await an auspicious moment before he huils it at is unsupecting victures. A pun of this type is truly a oke of mit and is used by many of the nation's well- nown figures. This pun's little bother, the common pun, is just "potent an influence in the country's humor. Anyone are more a common, oidmary pun but just because it the property of the butcher, baker, and candlestick date is no reason why this pun should be looked down on. These two types of pun neach more people and two endeles hughter, often genume, often feigned, but wortheles hughter, often genume, often feigned, bu	the ease being Doc Kalb '90, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping helping helping Red Mehlman, that irrepressible New Yorke, was all for a hidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edvalds stioll across the gridnon during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moral support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wiong with it A little wooder ople savel a cheelender from severe lassitude at the game—it's, a good thing it gave him something to lean on all after noon	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Plother, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and direction of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversary of the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St.	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's tr proven by sales figures that America's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student red, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide know the answer. These soph ed pen users have found that to Sheaffer's individualized pen hat they like the comfortable B designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance° pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime° guaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give She Lifetime° a class-room that pen for your Li AT BEITER STOR SHEAFER FEN COMPA View of Ref.	S TS. Int? BALANCE The only Bolance's they points, solance's they like our of the and that thee of satis- tething. s college sales s the suggestion eaffer's Balance's test, you'll adopt fetime'. RES EVERYWHERE FFEESERS -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS SKRIP -DESK SETS - SKRIP - DESK SETS
The widening usefulness of this system can be analyseen by a glance at last year's figures During at period more than one-tenth of the student body allo use of the fund. They borrowed nearly $70,000, e largest rum even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but allos helps to make our system of higher education one demorratic. It gives to the poor as well as the the still greater elance to secure advanced training oness the doois of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to cure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his more, and we gladity join in the movement to in- olduce his loarn-child, the pun, mit the lowest tim of vit?—the punster has led a hard life these tray years. Now, however, the day has dawned for his perior. And we gladity join in the movement to in- olduce his harm-child, the pun, mit the best cricles. Undoubtedly, we rigue, a pun of the best grade must be formulated on a moment's notice. On the intrativ, it must be mulled over mentally many times for it attains the right flavor. Then, its sponsor ust await an auspicous moment before he huils it at s unsuspecting victims A pun of the nation's well- hown figures. This pun's little bother, the common pun, is just potent an influence in the country's humor. Anyone are produce a common, ordinary pun but just because it the properity of the butcher, baker, and candlestick due is no reason why this pun should be looked down boom. These two types of pun reach more people and use more laughter, infer genuine, often feigned, but vertheless laughter than any other kind of humor, hus, alone, is an overwhelming vote in favor of the an- tist, is privileged to laugh at his own wit. Your het humorists are required by convention to present we countenness while invaridly convised with laugh- tist, is privileged to hangh at his own with. Your het humorists are required by convention to present we countenness while invaridly convised with	the ease being Doc Kalb '90, of course Teddy Mazers, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping helping helping Red Mehlman, that irrepressible New Yorke, was all for a hidge game during the first quarter the Marsh- all safdy man to play the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edvalds stioll across the gridnon during a training session Spook livine, who daily haunts the Phi Signa Kappa house, making a trip to lend moral support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed of '31, tells one of our leading houses just what's wiong with it A little wooden pole saved a cheel leader from severe lassitude at the game—it's, a good thing it gave him something to lean on all after noon	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Plother, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and direction of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversarily of the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St.	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures that imerica's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student ared, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide the sheaffer's individualized pen- hat they like the comfortable designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance ^o pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime ^o guaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give Sh Lifetime ^a a class-room that pen for your Li AT BETTER STOR SHEAFER PENCILS W.A. SHEAFFER PEN COMPA "second states" The ONLY Accuracy for the Sheaffer's Lifetime ^a and show that pen for your Life is deserved All fourtan defects, but Sheaffer's Li computed for your life states for States and defects, but Sheaffer's Li computed for your life the deserved All fourtan defects, but Sheaffer's Li computed for your life states for States and defects, but Sheaffer's Li computed for your life and defects, but Sheaffer's Lifetime states and the states and defects and sheat sheat sheat states and the states and defects and sheat sheat states and sheat sheat sheat sheat states and sheat sheat sheat sheat states and sheat sheat sheat sheat sheat sheat states and sheat sheat sheat sheat sheat sheat sheat states and sheat she	S TS. TS. TS. TS. TS. TS. TS. TS
The widening usefulness of this system can be unly seen by a glance at last year's figures. During at period more than one-tenth of the student body the use of the fund. They borrowed nearly $70,000, e largest rum even loaned in one year. Not only does a plan like this aid the individual, but also helps to make our system of higher education ne demerate. It gives to the poor as well as the b c still greater chance to secure advanced training onens the does of learning to a larger group, which turn can step out into the world and help others to sure the same opportunity. LONG LIVE THE PUN! Long forced to air his wit in the privacy of his me, always hounded by that evil maxim huiled at b b d signaled ensures. The pun is the lowest tim of vit"—the punster has led a hard life these tury years. Now, however, the day has dawned for his not b d dig untiled ensures. The pun is the lowest tim of vit"—the punster has led a hard life these tury years. Now, however, the day has dawned for his module hi brain-child, the pun, into the best grade mote the formulated on a moment's notice. On the notare his brain-child, the pun, mote the best grade into the formulated on a moment's notice. On the notar and we gladly on an the movement to un- strat attains the night flavor. Then, its sponsoi us await an auspicious moment before he huils it at a unsupecting victims A pun of this type is truly a not of at and is used by many of the nation's well- sown figures. This pun's little bother, the common pun, is just potent an influence in the country's humor. Anyone is pioduce a common, odinary pun but just because it the piopetty of the butcher, baker, and candlestick alsel is no reason why this pun should be looked down on These two types of pun reach more people and use more laughter, often genuine, often feigned, but wortheless laughter than any other is favor of the in. The confirmed punster, in contrast to other hum- rist, is piivileged to laugh at his own wit. Your her humorists are required by convention to present use countenn	the ease being Doc Kalb '90, of course Teddy Mazzis, taking a bicather from Johnstown practice teaching, with Harry Zeising helping helping helping helping Red Mehlman, that irrepressible New Yorker, was all for a bidge game during the fourth hand Madeline Delaney and Flo Edwards stioll across the gridion during a training session Spook Irwne, who duly haunts the Phi Sigma Kappa house, making a try to lend moral support to the Phi Sig grid hope on the plebe team Pat Glasgow, a precocious co-ed a '31, tolls one of our leading houses just what's wong with t A lifth wooden -pole savel a cheeleader from severe lassitude at the game—it's, a good thing it gave him something to lean on all afternoon	Ralph L Watts, dean of the School of Agriculture, Di Stevenson W Plother, head of the department of horticulture, and Milton S McDowell, vice dean and direction of extension work, recently attended the fiftieth anniversary of the New Jersey station.	117 Frazier St. This white Schutzer school Charles Station No. Hirdror, Sissi No. Hirdror, Sissi No. J. Trac. No. J. Trac. No. J. Trac. Station No. J. Trac. Station No. J. Trac. No. J. Trac. Station No. J. Trac.	Why do Most its buy Sheaffer's the proven by sales figures that imerica's hundred leading col- ach with 1700 or more student ared, Sheaffer's outsell all other ch leadership ever an accide the sheaffer's individualized pen- hat they like the comfortable designed into Sheaffer's, that it the streamlined, modern cont Balance ^o pen and pencil, Sheaffer's Lifetime ^o guaran factory service means som That explains Sheaffer's leadership, and prompts that if you'll give Sh Lifetime ^a a class-room that pen for your Li AT BETTER STOR SHEAFER PENCILS W.A. SHEAFFER PEN COMPA "second states" The ONLY Accuracy for the Sheaffer's Lifetime ^a and show that pen for your Life is deserved All fourtan defects, but Sheaffer's Li computed for your life states for States and defects, but Sheaffer's Li computed for your life the deserved All fourtan defects, but Sheaffer's Li computed for your life states for States and defects, but Sheaffer's Li computed for your life and defects, but Sheaffer's Lifetime states and the states and defects and sheat sheat sheat states and the states and defects and sheat sheat states and sheat sheat sheat sheat states and sheat sheat sheat sheat states and sheat sheat sheat sheat sheat sheat states and sheat sheat sheat sheat sheat sheat sheat states and sheat she	S TS. inf? int? balance ⁹ they balance ⁹ they like our of the and that thee of satis- tething. s college sales s the subgestion eaffer's Balance ⁹ t test, you'll adopt fetime ⁹ . RES EVERYWHERE FFFERS DESK SETS SKIP DESK SETS SKIP DESK SETS - SKIP DESK SETS