

Sidelines

The keen rivalry between Penn State and Bucknell will once more be in evidence tomorrow. Naturally the Lions will enter the game with heavy odds against them, caused, no doubt, by the recent Colgate reverse and the Bison's overwhelming victory over a strong Gettysburg eleven. Feeling among the student body is gradually increasing and the desire for victory is probably more acute than ever before. To an unprejudiced outsider a Lion victory would seem impossible, but to one who has seen the team's spirit increase to a fever heat during this week a Nittany triumph is by no means out of the realms of possibility.

Success in predicting the scores of grid contests during the last two weeks, leads us to try our hand at forecasting the results of tomorrow's varied assortment of colorful attractions with our choice italicized. Brown at Syracuse, N. Y. U. at Carnegie Tech, Cornell at Columbia, Dartmouth at Yale, Duke at Villanova, West Virginia at Fordham, Michigan State at Georgetown, Indiana at Notre Dame, Princeton at Chicago, Purdue at Illinois, Pittsburgh at Nebraska, Kansas University at Penn.

The only collegiate twins playing varsity football on the same team are found at the University of Iowa. Jenevold and Jenevold is the combination who will probably face the Lions November 15 at Iowa City. Leo and Lloyd are both backfield stars on the Hawkeye eleven. In the Purdue game Leo carried the ball thirty-one times out of the even fifty occasions in which the Westerners put the ball in play from scrimmage.

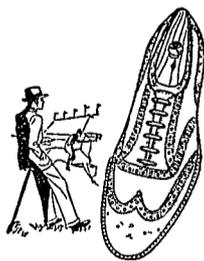

Headgear will be replaced by a brand new Dobb's hat for each member of the Nittany team if the Lions bag the Bison, according to a tip from Montgomery's.

With W. O. McGeehan, sports columnist, at its head, an enlarged committee will get together at the close of the 1930 football season and pick the championship grid team. The group will be made up of 250 sports editors of newspapers scattered throughout the nation. Notre Dame won the award last year which consisted of a large silver cup presented by Albert Russel Eiskine.

The evolution of scouting is interesting. During the early days of football the scout came by nightfall and chanted the plays of a team behind the stands, or some other obstacle near the playing field. Now, everything is in the open. When a scout arrives at a college his first duty is to call on the athletic authorities at that institution where he receives every courtesy and choice seats for the game.

After completing a hard schedule of ten games, the University of Idaho team will journey to the Hawaiian Islands where it will play the University of Hawaii and the Honolulu All-Stars during the Christmas holidays.

Nittany-Bison Grid Series Starts as Rugby Football

Teams Play 24 Games Over 49 Years of School Rivalry

Bucknell, Penn State's time-honored foe on the gridiron, will play host to the Lions tomorrow in the twenty-fifth meeting between the two institutions.

Rivalry between the schools was started in 1881 when a game under rugby rules was played at Lewisburg, and Penn State was victorious. However, it was not until 1887 that the actual series began. In that year the Lions met the Bisons twice and defeated them on both occasions.

In all, twenty-four non-consecutive games have been played during a span of forty-nine years. One contest, in 1888, ended in a dispute, so actually only twenty-three games have taken place. Of these, the Lions have won seventeen, to six for the Thundering Herd. The two teams have never been deadlocked.

Bucknell won three of its six victories in the 'ninties, these occurring in 1891, 1896, and 1899. The Lions won from 1889 to 1898, inclusive, and also in 1900. From this date until 1926 the two colleges contested only five times, Penn State winning all of the games by overwhelming scores.

In 1926 the Nittany team carried off the honors again, but the next season Bucknell scored its first victory over Penn State in twenty-eight years. The Bison eleven repeated this victory in 1928, and last year the Lewisburg Collegians won again from the Blue and White, scoring more points than ever before in the series' history.

In twenty-three encounters the Lions have rolled up 432 points while Bucknell has amassed 117. Penn State has blanked the Bisons eleven times, while the Nittany team was held scoreless in 1895, 1899, and 1928. The game tomorrow will be the first contest to take place at Lewisburg since 1909.

INTERFRATERNITY HARRIERS WILL COMPETE WEDNESDAY

As the second contest on a program of intramural sports arranged by Coach Nate Catmell, an Interfraternity cross country meet will be held Wednesday afternoon.

Each team will be composed of four members who will run over the 3-mile course. Team entries will be made at the starting line on New Beaver field on the day of the race.

SPORT MANAGERS ORGANIZE

Sport managers of the University of Southern California have formed the "Ball and Chain" club, an organization for promoting spirit.

SENIORS CAPTURE INTERCLASS RACE

Sophomores Place Second, Plebes Third—Cartmell Will Hold Trial Tomorrow

By placing men in four of the five low-scoring positions, the senior jill and dailers won the annual interclass cross country meet, scoring thirty-seven points, over the short course Wednesday afternoon. Sophomore harrers with forty-five points were second, and freshmen third, with seventy-six.

Captain Paul Rekers and Dick Detwiler, as in every race this season, finished in a dead heat for first place in the two distance races were timed in 14 minutes 27 seconds. Messinger was the next runner to complete the course, ahead of Space, of the sophomore team. Ralph Robinson, a senior and King a sophomore, crossed the line together in fifth place.

Sunny Glassburn, of the juniors, and Vandermark, a plebe harrier, were the next to finish, followed in order by Napoleon, Van Cise, Baird, Rishel, Haive, England, Wolf, Turner, Siesky, Crossman, Norton, Beal, and nineteen other starters. The juniors did not enter a complete team, therefore did not figure in the scoring.

Coach Nate Catmell will send the varsity harrers over the long course in a time trial run at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning to select the team that will race Syracuse here next Saturday.

CO-EDS WILL PLAY SOCCER

Adding a new feature to the physical education classes, co-eds at Bucknell university will organize soccer teams this year, according to Miss Riberta Melcher, director of women's athletics at Bucknell.

Classes in tennis, hockey, riding, and field sports, as well as interclass baseball competitions are being offered this year.

LION SOCCER TEAM TO MEET PRINCETON

Coach Jeffrey Shifts Forward Wall for Nittany-Tiger Game Tomorrow

With a shift in the attack lineup, the Penn State soccer eleven will engage in the second league contest when they meet the Princeton Tigers at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on the Princeton field.

Bud Anderson, who has been performing from center forward, will start from out left. He will be replaced by Holmes, sophomore attack man. Holmes has shown remarkable improvement during the past two weeks and shows promise of becoming an outstanding player.

Al Daykin and Herb Masters are scheduled to return to the team for the Tiger contest. Daykin will play at the center half berth while Masters will alternate with Musser at inside left. If Masters should be placed at left Musser will be shifted to the right side of the line.

The attack is bolstered by the return of Dutch Miller, steady light wing. Shepard will also see service in tomorrow's contest. Bill Tyson, out right completes the offense lineup.

Tiger Line Inexperienced
Captain Bill Hutchinson and Bill Hensley remain in the fullback positions while Bob McKune continues at goal. Messelman, Daykin, and Evans are placed at halfback posts. The utility half post sees among Shea, Buleigh and Segal, a new addition to the team.

In three games played, the Tiger booters won 2-to-1 over Swarthmore, tied the Crescent A C of Brooklyn 1-to-1, and lost to Cornell 1-to-0 in a close battle. Coach Al Nics, Princeton mentor, was forced to replace six regulars lost by graduation last year.

First Penn State Physical Director Serves Bucknell

Hoskins Led Victorious Lion, Bison Gridmen In Nineties

From the Bucknell side of the field tomorrow at Lewisburg, George W. Hoskins will watch Penn State's team come on the field with more than usual interest.

The name of Hoskins means little to many undergraduates, but those who have followed the fortunes of Nittany teams from year to year will remember this venerable figure as the first director of physical training at Penn State, and practically the father of football here.

Mr. Hoskins is at present attached to the Bucknell squad in the capacity of trainer. In this line of work he has spent practically his entire life. During the professional baseball season he acted as trainer for the Cincinnati National League baseball team.

Born in Philadelphia in 1861, Mr. Hoskins received his early education in that city, and graduated from a four-year course in physical training which fitted him for a life of usefulness among athletic teams. He won the middleweight wrestling championship of the A. A. U. of the United States. In addition to becoming a great amateur carman, he won the American championship in throwing the 56-pound weight, 2-mile walk, and running broad jump.

In 1891, after serving as head coach and trainer for the University of Vermont, Hoskins came to Bucknell to coach the gridmen, and defeated Penn State. It was the first Bison victory over the Lions. In 1892, Hoskins was persuaded to come here where he was named director of physical training. With his appointment this position was established at the College. He acted as trainer and coach of the football teams in 1892, 1893, 1894, and 1895, and defeated Bucknell every year.

Football Excursion Tickets Go on Sale

Tickets for the football excursion team to Lewisburg for the Bucknell game will be put on sale at the athletic association office at 8 o'clock this morning and at Lemont station tomorrow.

The special train, which is run by the Pennsylvania Railroad, will leave Bellefonte at 9:30 o'clock and Lemont at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. Students will arrive in Lewisburg at 12:25 o'clock.

On the return trip, the excursion will leave Lewisburg at 10 o'clock Saturday night to reach Lemont at midnight and Bellefonte at 12:30 o'clock.

ment this position was established at the College. He acted as trainer and coach of the football teams in 1892, 1893, 1894, and 1895, and defeated Bucknell every year.

Now, when Penn State visits the Lewisburg institution for the first time in twenty-one years, an odd series of circumstances has returned Hoskins to the Bison camp. He will watch the two teams renew their ancient dispute on the gridiron with the interest of one who has been closely bound in sympathy to both institutions.

ADOPTS "NO CAPTAIN" PLAN

Last year's football squad at the University of Illinois turned in halts marked "no captain" in the annual election and requested Coach Pop Zupple to select a field captain for each game. This is the first time in forty years that Illinois has had no captain.

GRID TOURNAMENT OPENS NEXT WEEK

Athletic Association Will Give Silver Football Trophy to Winning Intramural Eleven

With a full-sized silver football as the prize, intramural football teams will engage next week in an elimination tournament to be played off at night under floodlights on the varsity practice field, according to Leo E. Carter '31.

The tournament, which may be entered by any organized group, is sponsored by the Athletic Association and is in accordance with the policy of Hugo Beddek, dean of the School of Physical Education and Athletics. All teams will be provided with equipment and lockers by the Athletic Association, which is the donor of the trophy.

About fifteen managers of teams have already signed up for the tournament and numerous others have signified their intentions of doing so. Drawings will be held Sunday night. Once the drawings are made, no other groups will be admitted to the contest.

Varsity football men and physical education instructors will act as officials in the competition. All managers wishing to enter teams should communicate with Leo E. Carter '31, 512 W. College Avenue.

Better every way

THRILL to the flavor of Kellogg's Pep Bran Flakes. That's the matchless flavor that has made them known throughout the nation as better bran flakes.

PEP for flavor—bran for health—whole wheat for nourishment. No wonder Kellogg's Pep Bran Flakes are so popular and so good for you.

Ask to have them served at your fraternity or campus restaurant.

The most popular ready-to-eat cereals served in the dining-rooms of American colleges, eating clubs and fraternities are made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. They include ALL-BRAN, Corn Flakes, Rice Krispies, Wheat Krumbles and Kellogg's Shredded Whole Wheat Biscuit. Also Kaffee Hag Coffee—the coffee that lets you sleep.

Even brain-workers and frat-house fans get "ATHLETE'S FOOT"

YOU don't have to be an athlete to get "Athlete's Foot." Men who do their daily dozen in the library giving the old bean a big workout; and the boys who do a mental marathon in class but never try for the track—as well as those who really do give their muscles to Alma Mater—any and all are just so much good red meat to the tiny germ which has spread this ringworm infection everywhere. Tinea trichophyton is its name and it's the cause of "Athlete's Foot"

In universities from Pennsylvania to California, it has been found that 50% of the men have it. The U. S. Health Service has reported that "at least half of all adults suffer from it at some time." Co-eds are not immune from this trouble, either.

It lurks in the very places where we all go for cleanliness and health—on the edges of swimming pools and showers—in gymnasiums—on locker- and dressing-room floors. In spite of modern sanitation (you have to boil socks 15 minutes to kill it) this fungus parasite infects and re-infects bare feet almost any time they come in contact with damp floors.

Absorbine Jr. kills the germ of "ATHLETE'S FOOT"

Tests in a famous New York "lab" have revealed that Absorbine Jr. penetrates flesh-like tissues deeply and that wherever it penetrates, it KILLS the ringworm germ.

It might not be a bad idea to examine your feet tonight. At the first sign of redness between toes, itching, peeling or blisters, douse on Absorbine Jr., and keep a bottle handy in your locker as a preventive. Use it after every exposure of bare feet on damp floors. At all drug stores—$1.25. W. F. Young, Inc., Springfield, Mass.
