Mr. James Spence, referee of the Haverford-Penn State soccee game, paid a high compliment to Coach Bill Jeffrey and the Lion soccee eleven in a letter to Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletes, Mr. Spence said: "I have been patieularly impressed with the deportment of the entire Penn State team and its coach, and have also been delighted with the fine sportsmanship shown I question if there are two better ceaches in the game today than Mr. Jeffrey, of Penn State, and Mr. McPete, of Haverford. These gentlemen combine moral character with per sonality that cannot fail to get the best out of the young men in their charge"

Mr. Spence continued: "While the cut of the young men in their charge"

TIGER SOCCERMEN DEFEAT LIONS, 3-2

Anderson Scores Both Tallies For Nittany Eleven in League Contest

A fighting Nittany soccol team was defeated in a close contest by a Nassau eleven 3-to-2 at Princeton Saturday afternoon This is the second time that the Lion socceimen suffered defeat in the last five years. The Penn State machine prevented the Tiger booters from scoring during the second and fourth periods of the contest The well-that Lion team, although playing a slightly oce-anylous game, succeeded in carrying the ball down into the enemy goal territory for several trys while the Tiger booters made few holes in the Nittany defense.
