Confidence reigns supreme in Pittsburgh. Quoting from the Pitt Weekly: "The State boys will have to pull a Notre Dame act if they spoil the Panther's usual Thanksgiving meal. It wouldn't be surprising to see State smothered by a fast and furious barrage of passes. Anyway, the Panthers are all set for their sixth win and the Lions of State College are destined to be the not so peaceful victims."

Another half-columnist believes that history is destined to repeat, and that the Panthers cannot possibly lose more than two games this year. "We were defeated twice in 1926 and 1928, and had undefeated seasons in 1927 and 1929, so this is an even year." The writer has evidently forgotten that game on the West coast last year.

Earl Edwards and Jess Quatse, Panther tackle, played football together at Greensburg high school.

Pitt-State football games started in 1897 when the Panthers were known as the Western University of Pennsylvania. The Lions won this first contest, and then won every game until 1904. The series has been unbroken from 1900 until the present date, and the teams have clashed at Pittsburgh on Thanksgiving Day every year from 1903. Bob Higgins led the last Blue and White team to victory in 1919, 20-to-0. Scoreless ties were played in 1920 and 1921. In all, Pitt has won 18 times, against 12 for the Lions, and have scored 397 points to 701 for State.

Eddie Baker, captain of Pitt's gridmen, is also co-captain of the basketball team. For the last two seasons he has been one of the highest scoring basketball guards in the country. Until this season when he ran back Western Reserve's kickoff for 97 yards and a touchdown, he had never scored a point in a football game.

Our predictions were correct in twelve of the seventeen football games forecast before Saturday's contests. Four of our five bad guesses might be considered upsets in the sporting world, for instance Harvard's victory over Yale, Iowa's defeat of Nebraska, Villanova's win from Georgetown, and the defeat of Purdue by Indiana.

Yale, Harvard, Penn, and Cornell are in a four-cornered deadlock for the intercollegiate soccer championship. All of these teams have lost one game and are untied. The Penn-Cornell battle Thursday will narrow the field to three competitors for the crown. Second in the league standing come Haverford, Penn State, and Navy.

Pittsburgh has held nine places on all-American football teams. The Panther players who were so honored were Peck, Hilty, Davies, Stein, Chase, Welch, Getto, Montgomery, and Donchess. The last two named were members of Pitt's 1929 eleven.

Held to a 7-to-7 tie by Albright, Western Maryland lost its place as the East's only undefeated and untied team. The little Reading eleven held a one touchdown advantage over Dick Harlow's team until the closing minutes of the game.

paned together, should have the advantage over Pittsburgh in this department of play. MacLundo and Collins, experienced Panther ends, have been declared ineligible by the Pitt faculty committee on athletics, and the wing assignments will go to Danley and Hushberg, who are light and less experienced.

Captain Eddie Baker, Panther quarterback, is the only veteran player in the Pitt backfield. Three lettermen from last season, Walchus, Williams, and Clark, have been displaced by Reider, Heller, and Hood. These players have never won a varsity letter at Pittsburgh. Heller and Reider, halfbacks, are sophomores, and the latter did not even make the Blue and Gold freshman team in 1929.

Ralph Daugherty, Panther center, is the outstanding player on Pitt's forward wall. He was mentioned on several all-American teams last season, and this is his third year on the squad and his second as a letterman. Tully, left tackle, and Lewis, left guard, are also powerful and experienced linemen. They will be paired with Quatse and Hart Morris.

Ohio State Defeats Panthers
Pitt lost eight lettermen from last year's eastern championship team. These men were Uansa, Parkinson, Donchess, Montgomery, D'McCoo, Rooney, Barnes, and Edwards. To supplant these serious losses Coach Jock Sutherland has developed several varsity men from last year's reserve material, in addition to members of the 1929 yearling outfit.

Smiling from their unexpected 16-to-7 defeat at the hands of Ohio State ten days ago, the Panthers are out to administer the Lions a crushing defeat. A Notre Dame victory and a scoreless tie with Nebraska are the only other blemishes on the Pitt record this year. The Panthers' smoothed Waynesburg and Western Reserve both by 52-to-0 scores. They defeated West Virginia 16-to-0, Syracuse 14-to-0, and barely nosed out a victory over Carnegie Tech, 7-to-6.

LION BOOTERS WIN FINAL GAME, 3-0

Down Western Maryland Team Saturday—Miller, Holmes, Daykin Score Goals

Miller, Daykin and Holmes, netting one goal each led the Penn State soccer team to a 3-to-0 victory over Western Maryland in the final game of the season here Saturday afternoon.

Although the Lion booters managed to invade the Southerners' territory and hold the visitors on a strict defensive, they lacked the necessary punch to score heavily until the final quarter. Rushton, Terror goalie, proved the leading bulwark for the Green Sox defense.

By a short kick from near the center of the field, Miller accounted for the first goal in the first quarter. Several other attempts were foiled on reaching Cross, left fullback, and Rushton, outstanding Western Marylander.

At Daykin from inside left tallied the second point on a cross play from Schwartz who during the second half substituted for Tyson out right. Shifted into Miller's post, Holmes banked a head shot through goal for the final point. Miller replaced Masters at inside right. Miller was relieved by Musser late in the second half while Anderson and Shepard alternated from outside left.
