Couch Leo Houck and the Nittany boxers are to be complimented on the splendid showing of the team. There were no one-sided battles and every fight was contested with a fine show of spirit on both sides.

There can be no doubt that Referee Bryan Hayes made his decisions impartially. Most of the Penn State fans and a majority of the sports writers present were of the opinion that Davey Stoop had a shade over Fitzgerald of the Navy, but the necessity for a quick decision of a close fight will often cause a referee to call a match deadlocked. It is one of the unfortunate results of the new boxing rules.

Captain Julie Epstein put up his usual clever exhibition. Meeting a fighter of the rushing style, Julie had little trouble in sidestepping a volley of lefts and rights, and at the same time working in his famous left jab.

The four ringmen implicated in the draw decisions, in addition to the Nittany captain, were undoubtedly the class of the meet. Some great fights should take place between these boys at the intercollegiate. Lewis and Hall have met three times, with one victory apiece and one draw.

Couch Houck made a wise decision when he shifted Stoop to the featherweight class. The Nittany mentor believed that either Epstein or Stoop would be able to defeat the Navy bantamweight, while Davey would have more chance against the heavy-hitting midshipman 125-pounder.

Fitzgerald, Wallace, Hall, Andrews and Crinkley, of the Navy team, will graduate in June. Reports from Annapolis indicate that Coach Spike Webb will have to work wonders to develop another team of the usual Navy caliber next season. According to Webb there are no outstanding substitutes on the squad, and the material from the plebes is not as good as usual.

CORNELL BOWS TO WRESTLERS, 14-12

Reybitz Gains Only Fall—Maize, Lorenzo, Pearce Win by Decisions Saturday

With a fall by Reybitz, Nittany 105-pounder, over Hessney of Cornell, giving the Lions a two-point margin of victory, Penn State's wrestling team won a 14-to-12 decision over the Ithacans in their New York stronghold Saturday afternoon.

Each team won four bouts with the Nittany grapplers gaining time decisions in the first match, the 145-pound class, and the heavyweight division. Ted Reybitz registered the only fall and his five-point win proved to be Penn State's salvation in a meet which saw-sewed back and forth throughout its entire length.

Lorenzo Springs Surprise

The New Yorkers received referee's decisions in the 125 and 135-pound classes. Both bouts were hard fought and Davey nearly scored a fall near the close of his match with Beyland, Cornell 135-pounder. The Ithacans gained their remaining time advantages in the 155-pound and light-heavyweight classes.

Maize opened the match with a time decision of 7 minutes 24 seconds, over Raycraft, Cornell bantamweight, but the New Yorkers evened the score when Beyland held a similar advantage of 4 minutes 41 seconds over Davey in the 125-pound class. They forged ahead in the next bout as Stein, Lion 135-pounder, lost a referee's decision of 2 minutes 20 seconds to Butterworth.

Springing a surprise on the Ithacans, Lorenzo held Captain Lipschitz, Cornell's undefeated 145-pounder, for a 2 minute 21 second win in a fast and skillful bout. However, the Lions again trailed when Gullner lost a decision of 5 minutes 57 seconds to Roers in the middleweight class.

In a fast bout, Reybitz easily threw Hessney with a half Nelson and body hold in 7 minutes 35 seconds. Penny of Cornell gave the Ithacans a one-

Officials Ask Formal Dress at Army Meet

Formal attire for spectators at the Army boxing meet Saturday is requested by College athletic officials, according to J. Cooper French '31, president of the Athletic association.

"In keeping with this request, which is made out of respect for the visiting cadets, those in formal dress will have the preference of seats," French stated.

PHI GAMMA DELTA WINS I.F.C. TROPHY

Defeats Phi Kappa Sigma 20-16 To Secure Intramural Court Victory

Phi Gamma Delta's passers gained possession of the intramural basketball trophy by defeating Phi Kappa Sigma in the final round of the tournament by a 20-to-16 score in Recreation hall Saturday night.

Wilson was high scorer of the game and led the Phi Gamma Delta trossers with four field goals and one successful free throw while Johnny Murray was chief getter for Phi Kappa Sigma with two baskets. In the semi-final round Thursday night, Phi Kappa Sigma defeated the Lambda Chi Alpha 15-to-10. Phi Gamma Delta advanced to the final round by a 24-to-16 victory over the Unknowns, a non-fraternity five. The first and second all-intramural teams of the tournament, in which seventy-two teams were represented, will be selected by K Weineke and the various referees, who will announce their choices in Friday's COLLEGIAN.

point lead when he held Metzger for 9 minutes 27 seconds in the light-heavyweight division. Captain Ed Pencee clinched the meet for Penn State by gaining a 4 minute 10 second time advantage over Falkey in the heavyweight class.

NAVY VANQUISHES LION BOXERS 5-2

Epstein Wins, Lewis, Stoop Gain Draws Over Midshipmen Saturday Night

After a valiant effort to end the twelve-year undefeated record of the Midshipmen, Lion boxers bowed to a superior Naval Academy team, 5-to-2, at Annapolis Saturday.

Captain Julius Epstein was the only Nittany man to win a bout, while Davey Stoop and Al Lewis received draws for the rest of the Blue and White score.

Fighting at 115-pounds, Epstein made Dolan miss, consistently while he easily outpointed the Midshipman with a fast left jab to win the bout.

Stoop and Fitzgerald, Navy bantamweight, fought an exceptionally fast bout in the 125-pound class to a draw. Davey appeared to have the advantage over the Midshipman, sidestepping his rushes with ease while landing effective rights to the jaw.

Meeting for the third time, Al Lewis and Hall in the welterweight class, slugged three rounds in the closest fight of the meet for a draw. Al stated the bout with a rush and had the Midshipman in trouble from the start but Hall withstood the punishment and was able to return the fight to the Nittany slugger.

Captain Wallace of Navy outpunched Johnny McAndrews to win the 135-pound bout, while Bubb lost the decision to Davey in the middleweight division. Joe Miller was unable to withstand the superior punching ability of Andrews, Navy 175-pounder. In the unlimited class, Crinkley, of Navy, scored a technical knockout over Skobeine in the second round.

TRACKMEN TRAIN FOR IC-4A GAMES

Coach Nate Cartmell Picks Probable Entries To Compete in Title Meet Saturday Night

Following a trial meet on New Beaver field Saturday afternoon, Coach Nate Cartmell is grooming the Nittany trackmen for the IC-4A championships to be held Saturday night in New York city.

Although the Penn State entry list has not been decided upon definitely, Rekers, Melinger, and Detwiler will probably run in the 2-mile, McDowell and Hill in the hurdles, Fullerton and Yale in the dashes, King in the mile, and Palmer will enter the high jump.

In the event that Coach Cartmell decides to take a 2-mile relay team to New York city, it will probably be composed of Dunaway, Wolf, Hughes, and Baird, who finished in that order in the half mile race on Saturday.

Rekers, defending titleholder of the indoor intercollegiate record for the 2-mile, will meet stern opposition this year in Joe McCluskey, sophomore distance star of Fordham. Pennsylvania's well-balanced team is picked by the experts for meet honors.

HILLMEN, COLGATE SUBDUED LION FIVE

Last Minute Rally Gives Maroon Victory, 30-27—Syracuse Passers Win, 47-29

Two second half spurts spelled defeat for the Lion five when Colgate eked out a 30-to-27 victory in the last minute of play Friday, and Syracuse piled up a decisive second period margin, 47-to-29, the following night.

The Nittany passers led the Maroon, 19-to-8, at the half, and maintained a slender margin until the final sixty seconds. Moses and Maresz edged the first Blue and White points with a two-player apiece after several minutes of the first half had passed without a score.

From this point the Lions remained ahead until Sullivan deadlocked the count at 26-to-26. Brand netted a free throw, but Anderson gave the Hamilton countmen a one-point lead with a long shot, and Peckham clinched the game for Colgate with a second double-header as the whistle blew.

Hillmen Amass Large Lead Brand led the Nittany scoring with four field goals, while Maresz, Moses and Sal Saltzman each netted a pair of two-players. The Maroon countmen were held to three double-headers in the first period, but Sullivan and Peckham each chalked up eight points during the final twenty minutes.

Although the stubborn Lions held Syracuse to a four-point lead at the half, the speedy Hill five launched a strong scoring attack in the opening minutes of the second period, and overwhelmed the Blue and White by amassing a fifteen point lead that could never be overtaken.

Beagle, Orange captain, led the New Yorkers' attack in the first period with three double-headers, and Hayman tallied five of the second-half Syracuse points. Moses effectively stopped E. Katz, high-scoring Hill guard, holding him to a single tally.
