

UNION WILL HOLD FIRST OPEN HOUSE TOMORROW NIGHT

Student Organization To Meet Visitors, Contestants in Title Tournament

FRESHMEN MAY REMOVE CUSTOMS FOR FUNCTION

Blue Key, Archonai Members Offer Ushering Service At Initial Affair

Students and visitors at the intercollegiate boxing tournament will gather in Old Main following the final ring bouts tomorrow night at the first open house to be sponsored by the newly-formed Student Union.

Distinguished athletic officials from leading colleges throughout the East, together with the contestants in the boxing tournament will be among the invited guests.

With the Nittany Nine, campus orchestra, furnishing the music, a dance will be held in the second floor lounge.

Members of Blue Key, men's campus society, and Archonai, women's senior honor society, will serve as honorary ushers.

CHOIR WILL OFFER MUSICAL PROGRAM

To Take Place of Regular Chapel Speaker at Weekly Service In Schwab Auditorium

Presenting the annual spring musical service, the College choir will replace the regular weekly chapel speaker at the Sunday morning exercises in Schwab auditorium.

Comprising over 100 students the choir will be led by Richard W. Grant, director of music, while Prof. John H. Frazzell, acting College chaplain, will preside at the service.

COLLEGE SENATE CHANGES REQUISITES FOR 2 SCHOOLS

Entrance requirements to the School of Education and the School of Physical Education have been changed to place more responsibility in the hands of secondary school authorities by the College Senate at its last meeting.

WILL GIVE DIESEL LECTURE

L. H. Morrison, associate editor of "Power" will lecture on "Practical Aspects of High Speed Diesel Engine Design" in 211 Main Engineering building at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Miller '31 Will Head Group on Elections

Arthur C. Miller '31 was appointed chairman of the committee on elections by David C. McLaughlin '31, president of Student Council, at a short meeting of the body Wednesday night.

Six other seniors, Norman E. Blair, Raymond A. Bowers, Thomas D. Eastburn, William R. McCallister, Paul A. Mitten, and Bruce V. Weidner, were chosen members of the group at the same time.

Council also decided to recommend to the College Senate that October 10, the day of the Penn State Temple university football game in Philadelphia, be set aside as the regular half-holiday for next year.

PLAYERS PREPARE 'MASTER BUILDER'

Miss Lillie A. Kell '33 Will Enact Lead in Norwegian Drama From Henrik Ibsen

Weird psychological studies which made Henrik Ibsen famous will live again on the stage when the Penn State playlets embody the characters of the playwright's "Master Builder" in Schwab auditorium next Saturday night.

Hilda Wangel who has long been an enigma to theatre-goers, will be brought to life by Lillie A. Kell '33. The Norwegian dramatist drew this character of a young woman so finely and with such complex motivations that to this day all critics have not agreed upon the correct interpretation, according to Director Frank S. Newbarn.

Baffled repeatedly by Hilda's unorthodox behavior is the middle-aged successful master builder, Halvard Solness, who will be portrayed by Ralph D. Hetzel jr. '33. Driven almost to insanity by his own black moods, Solness is further confused by his lovelaking Hilda.

The crushed, lifeless wife of the builder is to be enacted by Mae Kaplan '34. She is startled and hurt by her husband's attitude towards Hilda and Kina Fesli, secretary to Solness, who will be played by Myrtle H. Webb '32.

Dr. Herdal, friend of the family and village doctor, will be characterized by Jesse M. MacKnight jr. '31. Working in the office of Solness is Ragnar Brovik acted by Ralph E. Evans '34 who terrifies the master builder with his threats upon Solness' supremacy in the building field.

In conjunction with the national Druid convention to be held here April 24-25, the annual Druid-Friar all-College dance will take place Saturday night, April 25, probably at the new Nittany Lion Inn, according to John R. Napoleon '33, chairman of the committee.

With representatives of nine colleges meeting here for the twenty-fourth annual convention of Druids, national college campus society, the dance will end the two-day assembly. A college orchestra will play at the subscription affair.

The committee, headed by Napoleon of the Druids, is made up of Bennett M. Minton, and Albert Daykin from that society, and H. Paul Swan, Fred E. Kane, and Edward D. Plonken, of Friars, local sophomore society.

HARRISBURG PAPER URGES LARGER M. I. APPROPRIATION

Recommendation that the appropriation requested for enlarging the School of Mineral Industries be granted, an editorial in the March 11 issue of the Harrisburg Telegraph commented favorably on the work of the school, according to Dean Edward Steidle.

Who's Dancing

Tonight Tau Phi Delta (Closed and Formal) Varsity Tau Tomorrow Night Student Union in Old Main (Open) Nittany Nine

WOMEN SANCTION EARLIER RUSHING BY 6-TO-3 VOTE

Panhellenic Association Decides Upon Bidding Throughout Second Semester

FRATERNITIES FAVORING MOVE DRAW UP PETITION

Proposal Must Meet Approval Of Senate Committee on Student Welfare

Second semester bidding by women's fraternities was approved by a two-thirds vote of Panhellenic association Tuesday, when six fraternities favored the measure and three opposed.

Before this revision of the rushing code can be adopted, it must receive the approval of the Senate committee on student welfare which will meet Monday afternoon, according to Dean Arthur R. Warnock, chairman.

Because women's fraternities were chartered here with the provision that they have their semester bidding, the sanction of this committee is required. Draw Up Petition

A petition for the approval of the earlier bidding season has been drawn up and presented to the committee by the fraternities favoring the measure.

When the Senate committee meets Monday it is probable that the Misses Laura J. Griffiths '31, E. Louise Hofffeldt '31, and Anne E. McGuire '31, will appear as advocates of second semester bidding. Representatives for the opposition have not yet been chosen.

HONORARY GROUP LOWERS STANDARD

Phi Kappa Phi Reduces Eligibility Average From 2.6 to 2.1 As Prerequisite

In keeping with the results of a survey of scholarship attainment in the past seven senior classes, Phi Kappa Phi, honorary scholastic fraternity, voted last week to change its eligibility requirements from 2.6 to 2.4 grade points for the upper twentieth of the senior class.

Under the old system of grading, 87 percent was considered the dividing line for those eligible. The revised rules provide that those in the upper twentieth of the senior class are eligible for membership if they have maintained an average of 2.4 grade points while undergraduates.

According to the new ruling, summer session students as well as those who graduate at mid-term may become members of the society. The same grade point average, coupled with the requirement that the student has spent two consecutive semesters at the College or earned thirty credits in summer sessions, applies to this group.

Boxing Rules Governing Intercollegiate

Based on the rules issued by the committee on boxing of the National Collegiate Athletic Association the following are the most pertinent regulations which will be in effect at the intercollegiate boxing tournament.

Collegian To Print 2 Boxing Specials

Two extra editions of the COLLEGIAN will be published tomorrow, a boxing special in the morning containing the results of the musical bouts tonight, and a boxing special after the tournament is completed. The editions will be distributed by a street sale.

All-time collegiate boxing teams have been picked exclusively for the COLLEGIAN by Leo Houck, Spike Webb, Dick Harlow, and Roy Simmons, Syracuse mentor, and will appear in the special edition tomorrow morning. In addition, Houck has selected his all-time Penn State team.

FORESTRY ALUMNI MEET TOMORROW

Hibshman To Organize Group in Old Main Lounge Room At 1:30 O'clock

To observe the twenty-fifth anniversary of the College forestry department and Men's training school, more than 500 alumni will be present at a general meeting here tomorrow.

An organization meeting will be held at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on the second floor lounge of Old Main under the direction of Edward K. Hibshman, executive secretary of the Alumni association. The graduates will entertain members of the class of 1901 in the forestry department with dinner at the Centre Hills country club at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

Included in the list of speakers who will talk at the dinner are President Ralph D. Hetzel, Mr. Lewis E. Staley, secretary of the State department of forests and waters, Mr. George W. Wurt, State fire warden, Dean Ralph L. Watts of the School of Agriculture, and Mr. Hibshman.

Discussion of policy will occupy the attention of the department's advisory council when it meets at 7 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Col. Henry W. Shoemaker, United States ambassador to Bulgaria, Mr. Staley, Dr. J. N. Rule, acting superintendent of the State department of public instruction, Dean Watt, Prof. George Teicher of the Mansfield State Teachers college, and E. D. Ehrhart, forester for the New York-Pennsylvania paper company of Johnsburg complete the membership of the group.

CAMPUS POLICE FORCE TO REGULATE PARKING

18 Men Will Enforce Traffic Laws At Bouts Today, Tomorrow

Parking at the intercollegiate boxing tournament and tomorrow night will be regulated by the entire force of eighteen campus policemen, with the possible addition of three, according to Chief Andrew Zager.

Usual parking laws will be enforced while making use of the available space in front of Recreation hall and the areas in the front and rear of campus fraternity row.

The total capacity of these lots is approximately 110 automobiles, over 600 places less than the number of cars expected. The total estimate is based on the number in attendance at the bouts here two years ago.

Of the boxer who displays the best aggressiveness and style. The term "generalship" shall indicate the development of natural advantages, coupled with intuition and the ability to grasp quickly the advantage of any opening given by an opponent.

Mitmen Defend Intercollegiate Title Tonight, Tomorrow; College Becomes 'Mecca' for Visitors

Representatives of 20 Universities Plan Attendance

15 STATE LEGISLATORS WILL TOUR PENN STATE

Guests From Princeton, Cornell, Harvard, Yale, Dartmouth Among Celebrities

Penn State, for two days the mecca of intercollegiate boxing representatives in the East, will entertain officials of nineteen colleges and universities, as well as a committee from the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, today and tomorrow.

In addition to the competing teams who will arrive today for the semifinal bouts tonight, guests from Princeton, U. S. Military Academy, Harvard, Yale, Brown, Columbia, Cornell, New York university, Lehigh, Swarthmore, Dartmouth, Temple, Pitt, and West Virginia have been invited.

Many of the visitors will attend meetings of the Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing Association to be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Penn State debaters will meet Lincoln university orators on the unemployment insurance topic in Schwab auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Friday night.

Coches Meet Pittsburgh Forensic relationships between the visitors and Penn State have existed for five years and College debaters have been entertained in Oxford three times by the negroes.

Representing Harvard, William J. Dingham and H. W. Clark will come here. Jack A. Camp, director of athletics, will attend for Yale, and Dr. F. W. Marvel has been invited from Brown.

Columbia will send Reynold Benson, graduate manager, and Lou Little, football coach, to the bouts here, and Honorary Bery of Cornell will be another guest of the College. A. B. Nixon, graduate manager, has been asked to attend as New York university representative.

Walter Okeson, Lehigh, H. R. Henegar, supervisor of athletics, Dartmouth, Earl Yocaman, graduate manager, and Bert Bell, football coach, at Temple, W. Don Harrison, director of athletics, and Jack Sutherland, football coach, University of Pittsburgh, H. A. Sturtevant, director of athletics, at West Virginia university, and Bill Hollenback, of Pennsylvania, are the remaining sports celebrities who have indicated that they will be present.

It is possible that Dr. Charles W. Kennedy, president of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, will attend, as well as Lou Young, and Dr. E. LeRoy Merce, athletic director at Penn.

Merce May Attend Columbia will send Reynold Benson, graduate manager, and Lou Little, football coach, to the bouts here, and Honorary Bery of Cornell will be another guest of the College.

Points shall be deducted for stalling (prolonging contests, lack of earnestness, or going down without being hit), covering up with hands or clothing, hitting while holding opponent, and for all other infractions of the rules.

Points shall be deducted for hitting below the belt, hitting an opponent who is down or who is getting up after being down, holding an opponent to deliberately maintaining a clinch, holding an opponent with one hand and hitting with the other hand, pushing or butting the head or shoulder or using the knee hitting with inside or but of the hand, the wrist or elbow, hitting or "flicking" (Continued on last page)

TO LEAD Lion Boxers in Defense Of Intercollegiate Title

CAPTAIN JULIE EPSTEIN

LINCOLN ORATORS TO DEBATE HERE

Coches O'Brien Chooses Herpel, Saybolt, Hoch as Team In Friday's Meet

Penn State debaters will meet Lincoln university orators on the unemployment insurance topic in Schwab auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Friday night.

Coach O'Brien has selected E. Herpel '32, Coleman E. Herpel '32, and John A. Hoch '31 to defend the negative against the visiting colored team. The contest will be conducted in the Academic style of argument and all three members of the team will talk constructively as well as give rebuttals.

In defense of the unemployment insurance question the Misses Elizabeth N. Hepper '31, Sarah A. Ferris '31, and Ruth H. Nibel '31 represented Penn State against the University of Pittsburgh women orators in room 107 Main Engineering building Wednesday night. The contest was a non-decision affair.

'Y' SCHEDULES 78 FIRESIDE SESSIONS

Non-Fraternity Men To Hold Series Of Discussions in Boarding Houses, Old Main

Seventy-eight Fireside Sessions are being held in twenty-three fraternity houses, William L. Hutchinson '31, chairman of the Fireside Sessions committee, announced yesterday.

In addition to the sessions in fraternities, there will be a number of discussion groups held in boarding houses, the chairman added. (Lan A. Buzzard '31 has been made the head of the non-fraternity sessions.)

The non-fraternity men will also hold a series of meetings in the second floor lounge of Old Main. The first of these meetings will be held Sunday, Buzzard announced.

Adrian O. Morse, executive secretary to the president, will speak at the first session on "What Campus Practices Should Be Changed." Other speakers who have been secured for these discussion periods are Harry W. Seaman, Dr. Carl W. Hasek, and Dean Ralph L. Watts.

Nittany Boxers Seek Fifth Ring Crown In Tourney

PREDICTIONS INDICATE FOUR-CORNERED RACE

28 Ringmen From 6 Colleges Vie For Title Honors as Meet Opens at 8 O'clock

Standing on the pinnacle of collegiate boxing, Penn State ringmen will defend their intercollegiate title at the eighth annual tournament in the Recreation hall ring at 8 o'clock tonight.

Twenty-eight boxers from six colleges will vie for championships with the Nittany Lion, four times winner of the Eastern Intercollegiate boxing championship, versus six veterans of the Blue and White into the squared circle in quest of their fifth title.

Navv and Syracuse with six entries each will offer keen competition, while Western Maryland with five seekers of ring crowns will present a formidable array. Penn and MIT have three and two men entered respectively, and stand little chance of winning the team title.

Bouts To Start at 8 O'clock Pre-tourney predictions indicate a four-cornered race with a possibility of the winner being decided in the third place bouts.

With Dana Stoop defaulting his 115-pound title and moving up to 127 pounds there is a possibility of an entirely new list of intercollegiate champions being crowned tomorrow night.

Epstein Faces Vicari Tonight Crosby will have to dispose of Johnny McAndrews, Lion lightweight, tonight as the first obstacle in his march to the title.

Epstein Faces Vicari Tonight Crosby will have to dispose of Johnny McAndrews, Lion lightweight, tonight as the first obstacle in his march to the title.

In the 125-pound class, Dave Stoop will meet the Penn captain, Marvin Shadel, and Albeit Weathermer, Syracuse, will fight it out with John Fitzerald, Navv, for the right to enter the finals.

Johnny McAndrews will face Doug Crosby for the second time this year in the 175-pound class. Johnny dropped a close decision to the Western (Continued on third page)

Prof. William R. Cheslev, head of the mining engineering department, will travel to the mining and quarrying industries in the western part of the state today and tomorrow to obtain data for a survey which is being carried on here.

Prof. Camille E. Grippin, head of the department of architecture at the Carnegie Institute of Technology, will speak at a meeting of the Architects Club at 7 o'clock a. t. Friday night.