Director of Athletics Hugo Bezdek, who icturned Saturday from a meeting of the boxing rules committee in Philadelphia, reports an interesting discussion with Fiank Wener, chairman of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission The question of the recent action of that group in taving college boxing and wrestling meets and of sending a supervisor to all college contests, was brought up in the conversation.

According to Wiener, it was not the primary purpose of the Commission to tax college context, but rather to curb high schools and preparatory schools from holding unsupervised tourneys. Wiener stated that it was possible and probable that an amendment to the present ruling would be made eliminating colleges from the tax.

"I'm putting on a show for the Navy folk, but I'm not getting paid for it," Spike Webb, former Navy boxang coach, declared Saturday when he announced his resignation from the Naval Academy's caaching staff. Since 1919, when Webb took over the Midshipmen loving outfit, the only dual meet lost by the Navy mitmen was dropped to Syracuse late in the past season

Andy Anderson, captain and third defense mainstay of the Lion lacrosse team, was declared incligible to compete in lintercollegate sport this spring because of a semisster's absence fight school. FOR GAME FRIDAY

Coach Paul Drills Untried Lio To Meet Green Terrors In Opening Tilt

Preparing for the opening encounter of the season, Coach Enne Paul is drilling the Lion lacrosse twelve for its engagement with the Western Maryland stickmen at Westminster, Md. Friday and for the University of Maryland team at College Paik the following day

following day

In their first encounter of the season, the Western Maryland twelve was defeated by a strong Navy team 10-to-0. The stongest part of the Terrors' playing was evidenced in their defense which held for the first half only to break in the last minutes of play after repected attimpty of the Middes. The Western Maryland twelve will attempt to avenge a defeat at the hands of the Nittany strekmen last year by a 7-to-6 core. Although several men were lost by tenm into action against Syracuse Saturday afternoon on New Beaver Field.

Although failing to place in the Penn Relays Saturday, the Nittany indermen showed evidences of strength in several events. McDowdell, after winning his heat in the hurdles, lost in the finals. In this same event the relay iccord was bloken by Kellar of Ohio State.

The four-mile relay team, handisapped by the absence of Captain Meisinger, finished fourth in that event Penn, for the second year in succession, won this event, although the time was much slower than the present record held by a Penn State quartet.

Syracuse also failed to gain any outstanding victories in the relays on Franklin Field. The strength of the Olange team is mainly in distance runs and hurdle events. I. M. TRACK-FIELD MEET
