

Sidelines

In addition to being composed largely of members of the football squad, the Western Maryland lacrosse team which will meet the Nittany stickmen today claims an intercollegiate boxing champion in the person of George Ekstis, student-coach of the Green Terrors. Ekstis won the 175-pound title at the intercollegiate held here this spring when Athletics of Navy forfeited because of illness.

Appearing for the first time in the role of Lion golf mentor, Larry Conover, freshman football and basketball coach, will direct the Nittany linksmen in their invasion against Swarthmore and West Point teams, today and tomorrow, in place of Coach Bob Rutherford, who will be unable to accompany them on the trip.

Losing only one man from last year's varsity team, although graduation, Bucknell's baseball team should provide keen competition in the Penn State encounter May 29. The Bison will come to State College late in their season seeking revenge for an 8-to-7 defeat administered by the Lion batsmen last year.

The Duke university batsmen received their first defeat of the season at the hands of a Penn nine by a 11-to-10 score. In the opening game of the season on the southern trip during the first week in April the Nittany baseball team was nosed out by the Duke outfit, 6-to-5.

Lion batsmen will face a formidable baseball barrage when Hughes Brunger, Susquehanna hurler, steps up on the mound in the Penn State-Susquehanna encounter set for May 20. In his initial intercollegiate stint against Mohican college Saturday, Brunger pitched a no hit, no run game. In pitches he ascended the heights, fanning eight batters at times when a hit meant a run.

Syracuse hopes in the 120-yard high hurdles at the Penn Relays were shattered when Paul Brentlinger, star Orange trackman, tripped over the fourth hurdle in the final run after he had led his heat to the finish mark. McDowell, Hill, Fullerton, and probably Byers will line up with Brentlinger when the Orange trackmen oppose the Lions tomorrow.

A record that has been marked in blue and white on the books of the Penn Relay Carnival for six years was erased and chalked up in sordid Saturday. Keller, Ohio State hurdler, tripped in the woods in the 120-yard high hurdles to clip one-tenth of a second from Cup Moore's time of 14.8 seconds which had stood since 1925.

Saturday's game was the last home contest for the Lion nine before making an invasion in one trip of four deep and dangerous lairs Syracuse, Colgate, Rutgers, and Army. After this journey, the Blue and White will end the season with seven contests at home.

George T. Dunlap Jr., dangled an unwieldy bongo clock in front of him and grinned at photographers last week. Captain of the Princeton golf team, he had won the North and South Amateur golf championships at Elizabeth, N. C. As runner-up and captain of the University of Pittsburgh golf team, Sam Parks dangled a clock, but grinned. Parks won the College tournament here in the fall of 1927 as a freshman. The next year he left the college and became the mainstay of the Panther golfers.

LIONS OPEN TRACK SEASON TOMORROW

Runners Will Oppose Syracuse In Dual Meet on Beaver Field at 3 O'clock

In their first dual meet of the season, Nittany trackmen will oppose Syracuse runners on New Beaver Field tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Besides the men who competed at Philadelphia last Saturday, Coach Nate Cartmell has selected entrants on the basis of tryouts held recently. Dale, McDowell, Stokoe, Yoho, and Kennedy have been selected to compete in the 100 and 220 yard dash events.

Gritsavage, Hedinger, Space, and Sam Flenniken will get the call in the quarter mile event, while Willard King, Hughes, and Dunaway are probable selections for the half mile. Captain Meisinger, Rekers, and a Homm will seek victory in the mile. Entrants in the two mile race include DeWolter, Charles King, Slesky, and Van Cise.

The low hurdles will be run by McDowell, Fullerton, Hill, and Byers, while the same men have also been selected to enter the high hurdles. Palmer and Osbeck are entrants in the high jump and Osbeck will also compete in the pole vault. Shawley will throw the hammer and has also been selected for the shot put. Lion entrants in the broad jump will be McDowell, Funke, and Weaver.

Although failing to place in the Penn Relays, Syracuse is strong in the hurdles and the distance events, and has always been considered one of Penn State's major track opponents. The Lion trackmen have not competed with Syracuse since 1929 when the Orange runners won a 69 1/2 to 65 1/2 victory. Last year a triangle meet was scheduled with Syracuse and Colgate at Syracuse but was called off because of rain.

GOLF TEAM WILL BEGIN INVASION IN EAST TODAY

To Engage Swarthmore as Opener, Contest Army Tomorrow

Four Lion golfers will meet Swarthmore on Rolling Green country club course at Springfield at 2 o'clock this afternoon in their first match of the season. Tomorrow afternoon the College team opposes West Point linksmen on the Storm King course at Cornwall, N. Y.

Coach Bob Rutherford, although unable to make the two-game trip, has selected Captain Johnny Murray, Freddy Brand, Hugo Benzke Jr., and Bill Nacios to represent the Blue and White, with Larry Conover coaching.

Lewis '31 To Captain Lion Lacrosse Team

Donald G. Lewis '31 was elected captain of the 1931 lacrosse team at a meeting of letter men, coach, and manager Wednesday afternoon.

Lewis succeeds Karl O. Anderson '31, who was declared ineligible to compete in intercollegiate sport this spring because of a semester's absence from school. Lewis plays at the in home position and is in his third year of varsity competition. He was awarded his letter last year.

STICKMEN ENGAGE 2 TWELVES AWAY

Lion Lacrossemen To Meet Terrors Today, U. of Md. Tomorrow In Opening Contest

The Penn State lacrosse team will engage the Western Maryland twelve at Westminster, Md., this afternoon in their first contest of the season and will oppose the University of Maryland team at College Park tomorrow.

Coach Ernie Paul will start McMillen and Miller at the point positions with Day, Kaiser, and Edwards holding the defense assignments. Smith will serve at center while Cramer, Heppenstall, and Henry will occupy the attack positions. Keeler and Crooke are slated for the homes and Gwynn will play at the goal.

In the University of Maryland game Coach Paul will enter the same line-up with the exception of Decker at second defense and Edol at center. Additional changes are Saransky, Carlson, and Antoner in the attack positions with Weber and Lewis playing the homes.

The Western Maryland team, composed entirely of members of the football squad, has engaged in two contests this season. Navy defeated the Terrors 10-to-0 while the University of Maryland twelve piled up a 15-point score against the Western Maryland outfit.

Ranking first in the country in 1929 and second last year, the University of Maryland twelve has started its 1931 season with four victories by comfortable margins.

BATSMEN TO MEET HILLMEN, MAROON

Lions Will Encounter Orange At Syracuse Today, Face Colgate Tomorrow

Nittany batsmen left yesterday for Syracuse where they will meet the Orange nine this afternoon in Archbold stadium. The Lions will encounter Colgate tomorrow at Hamilton, N. Y.

Coach Bedenk has selected Dave Wendt to start against the Hillmen, while Hal Stokes will be the starting hurler in the Maroon contest. Sol Saltzman will be on the receiving end of today's battery and, in probability, will also catch tomorrow.

Since Danny Musser will return to State College tomorrow to haul the javelin in the Syracuse track meet, Hoopes has been shifted to third base for the Colgate game. His place in right field will be taken by Stockdale.

Seventeen men made the trip to the Hill school yesterday. Besides the regular nine, Meade and Stockdale, Swan, relief catcher, Wallace, utility outfielder, and Blowers, Min-ton, Mooney, and Winn, extra pitchers, were in the party.

The week-end's games will be the first of two consecutive road trips including Rutgers and Army.

YEARLING BATSMEN TO MEET COLGATE

Will Oppose Maroon Freshman Nine In Opening Game of Season Tomorrow Afternoon

In their opening game tomorrow, Coach Leo Houck's freshman baseball nine will engage the Colgate yearlings at 2:30 o'clock on the varsity field.

Keir will take the mound in the season's opener, Coach Houck has indicated, while Park as well as Knott will probably see service at this post. The freshman mentor plans to use each of these men for three innings.

Zawacki will start behind home plate, with Althouse slated to relieve him sometime during the game.

Marsh will start the season at first base, while Harris will hold down the second sack. Edwards, has been designated for the third base position in the infield, while Dietz and McPhailand probably will see duty at this post as well.

Greenstone will represent the Lion first year men at shortstop. Thomas may see service somewhere in the infield. Coach Houck expects to use Kas-sack in left field, and Jackson in center. Musselman will fill the right field assignment for the freshmen. Pimpstein, Slusser, Waugtel, and Palasin may also see service in the outfield.
