

LIONS WILL MEET TARHEEL RUNNERS

Cindermen To Seek Second Dual Victory in North Carolina Contest Tomorrow

Seeking to gain their second dual victory of the season, Nittany trackmen will meet a strong team from the University of North Carolina at 10 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on New Beaver field.

Although the Tarheels lost some of their outstanding track men through graduation last year, they are considered one of the best teams in the South. The North Carolina team defeated the Lions last year, 70 1/2 to 55 1/2, in a dual meet at Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

As a result of the meet last Saturday with Syracuse the Nittany athletes base their hopes in the distance events. Rekers, Captain Mesinger, and Slesky will compete in the mile, while Detwiler and King will again enter the two mile race.

McDowell, Funke, and Hill are entered in the 120-yard high hurdles and the 220-yard low hurdles. Kennedy, Dale and Yohe will enter both the century and the 220, while Flomken and Gutsavage will contend in the final dash event, the 440.

To Meet Temple Osbeck is slated again to enter the pole vault and Palmer will compete in the high jump. Edwards and Shawley are entered in the hammer throw while Shawley will also compete in the discus.

In addition to the mile Rekers may enter the half mile again this week. Dunaway, who finished third in the meet Saturday, will also compete in this event. McDowell, who gained a third in the broad jump against Syracuse, may enter this event again in addition to the hurdles.

Following the North Carolina meet the Lion trackmen will face Temple here next Saturday and conclude their dual meets when they engage the University of Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh the following week.

Danny Musser's .444 Average Leads Lions

Danny Musser leads Nittany diamondmen in hitting with a percentage of .444 gained by hitting safely 8 times in 18 trips to the plate, averages for the Lions' first five games reveal. Three other players, Drill, Hoopes, and Saltzman, are also batting .400 or over.

The left fielder is close on Musser's heels with a percentage of .429 earned when he batted out 6 safeties in 14 chances at the plate. Hoopes and Saltzman, who have each hit 8 times in 20 times at bat, share third honors with a percentage of .400 each.

PLEBES TO MEET BROWN PREP NINE

Will Encounter Philadelphia School Team Tomorrow Afternoon On Varsity Field

Freshman batters will attempt to offset their 5-to-1 defeat from Colgate here last Saturday when they encounter a Brown prep nine on the varsity diamond at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Coach Leo Houck will start a widely different lineup than that used last Saturday.

Kerr, who pitched eight innings of last week's game, probably will start again tomorrow, the coach has indicated. Parks, Lusher, and Grace stand a good chance of a trial in this game as well. Zawacki will start behind home plate again, while Altohouse is almost certain to see action at this post.

In the infield, Coach Houck expects to start McFarland at first and either Walker or Luers on the second bag. Thomas will open the game at third base, with Dietz ready to replace him. Wilson will get the call at short stop. Slusser and Pumpstein will start in the outfield, along with Jackson, who scored the only run for the home team against Colgate.

BATSMEN TO PLAY 2 EASTERN TEAMS

Will Engage Rutgers Today in New Jersey, West Point Nine Tomorrow

On its last road trip of the season, Penn State's varsity baseball team will engage Rutgers today at New Brunswick, N. J., and meet a strong Army nine tomorrow at West Point.

Although Coach Bedenk has announced no definite pitching choices for either of the games it is certain that Hal Stokes and Dave Meade will be the Nittany moundsmen in the two contests. The Lion monitor has indicated that Stokes may be the hurler to face the Scarlet today.

Hold Giants, 4-3

The same squad which made the trip to Syracuse and Colgate last week left for New Brunswick yesterday. Danny Musser will play third base in both contests as he will not return to State College for the North Carolina track meet tomorrow.

Laddy and Armstrong will probably be the starting Rutgers battery in today's game. The Scarlet nine has several football stars in its line-up, including Jack Grossman, hard-hitting shortstop. While little is known of the Army team's personnel, the cadet batsmen have a good record and recently held the New York Giants to a 4-3 score.

J. C. MEYERS SEEKS A. A. POST

Contrary to a statement published in the COLLEGIAN Tuesday, Jack C. Meyers '32 and not Robert B. Meyers '32 will oppose David A. Stoop for the secretaryship of the athletic association. Meyers was a letterman on the basketball squad this year.

SCHOOL TRACKMEN TO COMPETE HERE

Cindermen Sign for Interscholastic Meet on New Beaver Field Tomorrow Morning

High school and preparatory school trackmen will compete tomorrow on New Beaver field in the annual interscholastic track meet sponsored by the department of physical education. The events will begin at 9 o'clock in the morning.

Although the entry list is not complete twenty-two schools have already signified their intention of entering the events here. The teams will compete in two separate classes, preparatory schools entering class A division, and high schools competing in B division.

In addition to the defending champions, Kiski and Altoona high schools and preparatory schools throughout the state have entered the meet. Included in the entry list are Lock Haven, Sunbury, Millintown, State College, DuBois, Williamsport, Bedford, Langley, and Peabody high schools, and Pittsburgh, Dickinson, and Wyoming seminaries.

GOLFERS MEET MAROON TEAM HERE TOMORROW

Seek Victory in Lafayette Match To Retain Undeclared Record

With the hope of retaining their record of no defeats, Lion golfers will meet Lafayette on the College course at 1:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Coach Bob Rutherford has selected Captain John Murray, Fred Brand, Hugo Berdel, and Bill Nacos, the combination which defeated Swathmore and the Army last week-end, to face the Maroon golfers.

The Lafayette team downed Swathmore 6-to-0 two weeks ago at Lafayette Water gap.

STEPPING INTO A MODERN WORLD

The long arm of the telephone operator ~ ~ ~ made longer

How to extend the operator's range five-fold? There's an example of the problems put up to a telephone engineer.

This was part of a study in stepping up the speed of service to distant points. "Long Distance" used to relay your call to one or more other operators. Now she herself reaches the city you are calling, 30 or 300 or 3000 miles away.

Result: in five years the average time needed to complete a long-distance connection has been cut from 7 minutes to less than 2 minutes.

In this industry even long approved methods are never considered beyond improvement. For men of the right aptitude, that viewpoint is a stimulating challenge.
