

NITTANY TRACKMEN CONQUER TARHEELS

Defeat North Carolina Runners 74-51 in Second Dual Meet of Season

In its second dual meet of the season here Saturday, Penn State's track team defeated North Carolina runners by scoring 74 2/5 points to the Southerners' 51 3/5. It was the first defeat for the Tarheel team this year.

McDowell led the Lion athletes with firsts in the high hurdles and broad jump and a third in the low hurdles, while Shuster was high scorer for the Tarheels with wins in the century and the 220 yard low hurdles. The Nittany trackmen scored heavily in the half mile, mile and 2 mile, shot put, and javelin to gain their margin of victory.

North Carolina was superior in the dashes, pole vault, and discus, scoring most of their points in these events. Lion runners captured all three places in the half mile, which was won by William King. Rekers and Hughes finished second and third, respectively, in this event.

Win Javelin Throw

Rekers won the mile, nosing out his team mate, King, and Jones of North Carolina. After a close race, Charles King passed Captain Messinger in the last few yards, to bring Penn State victory in the 2 mile run in the century and 220 yard dashes, Kennedy placed third to the Tarheel sprinters.

Although handicapped by Messer's absence, Penn State gained the first two places in the javelin throw. Sigel finished first in this event with a throw of 181 feet 2 1/2 inches, and Shawley placed second. Shawley also won the shot put and finished second in the discus throw.

Ruble and Arnold placed first and second for the Tarheels in the pole vault, clearing the bar at 12 feet, while Osbeck gained a third in this event.

Robinson '31 Elected Nittany Tennis Head

Ralph A. Robinson '31 was elected captain of the Nittany tennis team Saturday at a meeting of tennis lettermen. The election was held immediately after the Navy-Penn State match.

SYRACUSE TWELVE BOWS TO LIONS, 5-4

Lacrossmen Win Second Victory Here Thursday—Will Engage Indian Team Saturday

Securing its second victory in three starts, Penn State's lacrosse team nosed out a Syracuse twelve, 5-to-4, on New Beaver field Thursday afternoon. The Blue and White stickmen will attempt to gain a third victory when they meet the Onondaga Indians here Saturday.

Although at no time during the game were the Orange stickmen in the lead, the score was tied 3-to-3 at the end of the half. The teams continued to alternate in the scoring until the Lions emerged with a win in the second half.

In the starting line-up against Syracuse, Gwynn played at goal, while McMillan and Day held the point positions. Hawk, Decker, and Edwards composed the defense with Edal at center. Carlson, Antonson, and Smith formed the Lion attack, while Lewis and Weber played in the home positions. Carlson scored three of the Nittany goals with Edwards and Antonson each making a point.

Coming to State College well on in their season the Onondaga Indians will attempt to avenge a 3-to-2 defeat they suffered last year.

BATSMEN TO FACE JUNIATA THURSDAY

Defeat Army 4-1 Saturday, as Stokes Fans 11 Cadets In Fourth Victory

With a 4-to-1 victory over a strong Army nine to spur them on, Penn State's varsity diamondmen will attempt to avenge last year's defeat at the hands of Juniata at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon on New Beaver field.

Blough, who will probably start on the mound for the visitors Thursday, held Penn State to six scattered hits last year and allowed Juniata opponents but 2.16 earned runs in eight games. Not only Blough but the entire team which will come here Thursday is likely to be exactly the same nine which upset the Lions last year.

Despite this fact, the Huntingdon team, which won eleven straight games last season, has already lost to Quantico Marines, Mount St. Mary's, Pennsylvania, and the Altoona works of the Pennsylvania Railroad twice. However, they defeated Lebanon Valley, 11-to-9, and Susquehanna, 12-to-3, recently.

Rutgers Game Cancelled

Gain 19-0 Victory Over Quaker Team Saturday—Innocent Allow Visitors 2 Hits

Parks and Balhuser upheld the pitching assignment for the Lions, allowing only two hits during the contest. Kallman and Cashill, opposing hurlers, were unable to keep the Nittany team from chalking up twenty-seven hits. Coach Houck used two full teams during the contest.

Harris, Lion second baseman, and Zawaicki, catcher, each had three runs to his credit, while Greenstone, shortstop, and Parks, pitcher, added two more runs each to the Blue and White score. Other runs were made by Balhuser, Edwards, Kasesak, Marsh, McFarland, Musselman, Pimstein, and Thomas.

Marsh and Pimstein each knocked a three-bagger. Greenstone, Parks, Zawaicki, and Lucas divided two-base hits honors. Parks struck out nine batters, while the Brown hurlers retired only two men between them.

Brand and Nacos won their singles matches by a 1 up score and, when paired together, their margin of victory was the same. Hugo Berdek jr. kept the Lion singles card clean with a score of 4 and 3, and when he and Captain Murray played together, they won by a 1 and 2 count.
