The complete shut-out of the Nittany trackmen by Temple university in the 100 yard dash and all but third in the 220 yard iun Saturday revealed an obvious Lion weakness in these events. Pitt with Harris, Utteiphack, and Monlein is expected to acore bravily in these events tomorrow, and bases its hope for winning the meet on the ability of the dash men to outpoint the Nittany entrants.

Captain Utterback dusky track leader of the Panthers, was the only Pitt man to score a win in the field events at the meet on New Beaver field last year. It's leap of 23 feet 11 inches gained him a victory in the broad jump. In addition Utterback placed second in the high jump and in the pole vault. He is the first colored athlete to be honored with a captaincy of a Pitt team.

Three college lacrosse teams are utstanding this year for the chamion-hip, according to Coach Ernie and, Nittany stack mentor With nidefacted seasons so far, the Johns lopkins, St. John's and Maryland came are the leading contenders. The faryland twelve defauted the Lions ya decisive score. Army, which nil meet the Nittany team tomorow, lost to the Hopkins twelve 4-to-1 t Baltimore.

Tufts college heads the list of Eastern intercollegiate baseball teans with an undefeated record. Penn State is among the ranking nines, with two defeats in seven games Lehigh with one victory, in cleven starts is on the other end of the list.
