Penn State To Hold Eleventh Dad's Day Exercises Tomorrow

Van Etten Will Speak At Sunday Chapel In Auditorium

SMOKER, CAMPUS TOURS INCLUDED ON PROGRAM

Informal Gathering Features Short Talks, Tap Dances, Piano Selections

Students will welcome their parents to the campus tomorrow and Sunday, joining in the celebration of the eleventh annual Dad's Day at Penn State with a program which includes a smoker, campus tours, and a chapel address by Rev. Edwin J. Van Etten.

"If Gideon's Well Could Speak," is the subject of the chapel address on Sunday morning in Schwab auditorium. Rev. Van Etten is the pastor of Calvary church, Pittsburgh. He is a graduate of Amherst and the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, Mass.

Myers To Preside

Rev. Van Etten has received the doctor of divinity degree from the University of Pittsburgh and Allegheny College. In 1921 he was a pioneer in broadcasting his church services over the radio. Rev. Van Etten is active in work with the blind and has been honored by being inducted into Phi Beta Kappa.

An informal smoker in the Armory at 7 o'clock tomorrow night with short talks by Prof. John H. Frazzelli, College Chaplain, and Robert E. Galbraith, instructor in English composition, is one of the features of the week-end. Emanuel Perkin, '32 chairman of the Dad's Day committee, announced H. Aubrey Myers '32, president of the Student Council, will introduce the speakers.

To Conduct Campus Tours

In addition to the informal addresses, J. Ewing ("Sock") Kennedy and H. Grace Baer '34 will present a tap dance. Prof. Emanuel Fishburn will offer a number of impromptu piano selections at various times on the program. Cider, pretzels and cigarettes will be distributed during the smoker.

Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women, will be in her office on the second floor of Old Main all day tomorrow to welcome visiting mothers. Dad's Day will officially open with the business meeting of the Parents association tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Auditorium.

Following the business meeting the visitors will be conducted on an intensive tour of the campus by members of Blue Key and the Penn State club. Additional entertainment will be offered at the Penn State-Dickinson football game in the afternoon where it is planned to hold special formations between the halves.

ALUMNAE TO HOLD RECEPTION OCT. 31

State College Group Will Welcome Graduates in Second Floor Lounge of Old Main

The State College group of Penn State Alumnae will hold a reception for the returning alumnae from 6 to 7 o'clock October 31 in the second floor lounge of Old Main, as part of the annual Homecoming celebration that week-end.

The reception will be so timed that it will take place in the period following the football game and prior to the Alumni benefit concert in Recreation hall at 7 o'clock the same night. Dinner will be served to those attending the reception in the Old Main sandwich shop.

Plans for the alumnae include participation in almost all of the events announced for alumni last week. They will attend the luncheon Saturday afternoon and plan enthusiastic participation in the annual eider party in the Armory that night.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the returning alumnae is composed of Ellen Burkholder '28, assistant to the Dean of Women, Prof. Julia G. Brill '21 of the English composition department, and Mrs. Mary E. Willard '21, president of the State College alumnae club.

WILL SPEAK at Eleventh Dad's Day Chapel

DR. EDWIN J. VAN ETTEN

P.S.C.A. WILL OPEN FINANCE CANVASS

175 Division Leaders To Attend "Kick-off" Dinner at Inn On Monday Night

The annual financial drive of the Penn State Christian association will open Monday night at 6:30 o'clock when over 175 division leaders and captains attend the "Kick-off" dinner at the Nittany Lion.

Clarence E. Christian '32, head of the financial committee, will preside at the dinner meeting and will introduce the speakers. In addition to a short talk by Charles P. Smith '32, president of the Christian association, Harry W. Seamans, association secretary, will explain the details of the canvass.

Goal Set At $3,500

The main speaker of the meeting will be Fred B. Igler, secretary of the Christian association at the University of Pennsylvania. A number of faculty leaders and members of the Y. W. C. A. are also expected to attend the opening meeting.

The goal of the financial drive will remain the same as last year when it was set at $3,500, Christian said. The drive will open Monday night and it is hoped that all contributions will be in the hands of the solicitors by Friday night when the canvass will officially close.

Solicitors will make a room-to-room canvass of fraternities, dormitories, and boarding houses. This will be the first year that the faculty will be solicited at the same time as the student campaign is being carried on, the committee chairman said.

INFIRMARY ACCOMMODATES 37 SINCE BEGINNING OF MONTH

Thirty-seven patients have been admitted to the College infirmary since October first, according to Dr. Joseph P. Ritenour, College physician.

Thirty of the patients were men, while seven were women students. Only one case was serious, necessitating removal to the Bellefonte Hospital for an appendectomy.

Dad's Day Entertainments Change Little in 11 Years of Observance

Although eleven years have passed since the first celebration of Dad's Day, there has been little change in the type of entertainment from that used back in 1921.

65 DELEGATES OF ENGINEER PAPERS TO MEET TONIGHT

Official in Publishing Company, Deans Warnock, Sackett Will Give Talks

31 COLLEGE MAGAZINES HOLD ANNUAL CONCLAVE

Plan Dance Following Speeches At Nittany Lion—Invite Pi Delta Epsilon

Over sixty-five delegates to the eleventh annual convention of Engineering College Magazines Associated will be addressed at a dinner at the Nittany Lion tonight by Mr. Leonard Church, of the McGraw-Hill Publishing company.

Mr. Church, who is an authority on publishing problems, will speak on "Quick Assets of College Publication Work." Dean Robert L. Sackett, of the School of Engineering, and Dean of Men Arthur R. Warnock will speak at the dinner. Alfred H. Funke '32, associate editor of the Penn State Engineer, will serve as toastmaster.

Following the addresses a dance will be held at the inn. Delegates to the convention as well as members of Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalism fraternity, are invited to this function.

Will Discuss Problems

Thirty-one college engineering publications have sent representatives to the convention. Of this number eight are present with the purpose of petitioning for membership in the organization.

Registration of visiting representatives held at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in the Student Union office. Adrian O. Morse, executive secretary to the President, gave the address of welcome at 9:30 o'clock in Room 405 Old Main, where all business sessions are being held.

A group photo of those attending the meetings was taken in front of Old Main yesterday at noon. Luncheon for delegates was planned to be served in the Old Main sandwich shop yesterday and today. Round table discussions on problems of the magazine are scheduled for yesterday and today.

To Attend Grid Game

An inspection tour of the campus was conducted yesterday afternoon. Last night a party was held at Andy Lytle cabin. Refreshments and entertainment were provided by the Penn State Engineer, under the direction of John B. Henry Jr '32, associate editor, who is convention chairman.

Mr. Church will speak on "Editing and Managing the Engineering College Magazine" at a meeting in Old Main this afternoon. Tomorrow afternoon, the visitors may attend the Penn State-Dickinson football game, where a section has been reserved for them, or go on a sight-seeing trip through Nittany valley.

WRITES PAPER ON THEATRES

"Pennsylvania Versus the Theatre" is the subject of an article written by Dr. William S. Dye, professor of English literature, and published in the October issue of the Magazine of the History of Pennsylvania. The article deals with the history of legislation against the theatres in Colonial times until they were finally allowed by law in 1793.

Most of the present generation of co-eds could manage.

A baseball game with Carnegie Tech sent the parents away happy when State staged a slugfest, winning 18-to-0. Glenn Killinger and Hinkley Haines were then at the height of their glory, with the latter smashing out a home run with two on base.

Nine years ago Prof. A. Howry Esphenhede, then assistant to President Thomas, found the Parents association "without a father." He reorganized the association and started the Parents of Penn State, originating the present publication and sending invitations for the first time. The late John S. Musser, of Harrisburg, was the first president of the association.

A Players' production, a smoker, with entertainment by the band and variety quartet, sound familiar enough, but giving all the dads a banquet in McAllister hall, as was done then, would probably be more than

Blue Band To Play At Maroon Contest

Blue Band members will make the trip to Easton to play at the Penn State-Lafayette football game November 14, according to an announcement by Neal M. Fleming, graduate manager of athletics.

This is the only coming grid game away from State College at which the band will play this year. Mr. Fleming said last year the band appeared at the Lafayette, Pitt, and Bucknell games away from home. Temple and Lafayette are the only games the band will attend this year.

L.M. SPORTS HEADS TO MEET TONIGHT

Will Complete Plans for Football, Cross Country, Horseshoe Contests Next Week

Intramural team managers will meet with sports tournament managers in Room 417 Old Main tonight in preparation for contests starting next week. All entries and fees must be submitted at this time.

Managers of teams to be entered in the football tourney will assemble at 7 o'clock, those in horseshoes at 7:30, and those in cross country at 8 o'clock. Entrance fees for football and cross country teams will be $1.00 and for horseshoe entries, fifty cents. This is the last opportunity to enter teams in these tourneys.

All groups entered in intramural competition last year must submit reports of scores gained other ways than in tournaments at the office of Dean Hugo Bezdek of the Physical Education School before Wednesday to receive credits toward last year's Hugo Bezdek cup. Material asked for includes varsity sports managers, varsity letter men, and intramural tournament managers.

No Play-off for Ties

At a meeting of the Intramural advisory council Tuesday, George H. Young '32, student associate manager, was named chairman of a committee to investigate the advisability of bringing inter-class sports under intramural direction. H. Aubrey Myers '32 and Alfred E. Lewis '32 will serve on the committee.

According to new rulings passed at the meeting, no play-offs will be held for the games in intramural football this year. If both teams score the same number of first downs in a tie game, each team will be given the ball on the fifty-yard line for four downs. The team making the most yardage in these plays will be declared winner.

All drawings will be held in the presence of the advisory council in Dean Bezdek's office next week.

Y.W.C.A. TO BEGIN FINANCE CANVASS

Will Start Soliciting of Co-eds on Monday—Seeks Contributions For Annual Budget

The finance and membership campaigns of the Y. W. C. A. will begin Monday and continue until Friday night. During this time women students will be visited personally and asked to contribute to the drive.

Money obtained in the finance drive will be used to cover this year's budget, which will include expenses for social service work, discussion groups, religious activities, and social functions fostered by the Y. W. C. A. throughout the year.

With the signing of a card explaining the purpose of the "Y," women automatically become members of the association. The membership campaign will be in charge of Elizabeth M. Kalb '33, vice-president.

Isabel McFarland '33, treasurer of the organization and chairman of the finance committee, will head a group of division leaders, who are Gladys A. Kaufman '32, head of the dormitory soliciting, Elizabeth M. Kalb '33, in charge of the drive among women's fraternities, and Margaret E. Borland '31, who will head the town-girl group.

ATTENDED YORK CONVENTION

Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women, and Miss Edythe P. Chance, head of the home economics department, attended the convention of the State Federation of Women's clubs held at York Wednesday and Thursday.

LIONS MEET GRIM DICKINSON ELEVEN HERE TOMORROW

Higgins Fears Overconfidence Of Team After Showing Against Owl Foe

SNYDER, HURT SATURDAY MAY NOT START CONTEST

State Handicapped by Visitors' Weight—Stempeck Slated To Fill Tackle Post

As a part of the eleventh annual Dad's Day celebration at the College, Lion griddeers, rested after their clash with Temple, will engage a determined eleven from Dickinson College on New Beaver field at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Fearing that his men have gained a feeling of overconfidence because of their spirited defensive play in Philadelphia last week, Coach Bob Higgins is anticipating a close contest with the Carlisle opponent.

Although the Lions returned to State College in a battered physical condition, early Shridis, substitute tackle, reserve end Johnny McAndrews, and variety quarterback Bob Snyder, will not be in first class shape for tomorrow's fray. Snyder may be replaced by Macalee at the signal calling post before game time, but Shields and McAndrews will not be in uniform as they sustained injuries at Tuesday's scrimmage session.

Will Bring Strong Team

Coach Joseph McCormick, of the Dickinson griddeers, plans to offer the Lions plenty of stubborn resistance, and Coach Higgins is recognizing the strength of the Carlisle eleven who, he believes, will be primed for tomorrow's engagement.

As usual the Lions will take the field outweighed by the opposing eleven, but the advantage of the visitors will not be as great as that in previous games this fall.

Starting a new regime at the Carlisle institution in his first year as coach, McCormick, former leader at the Hill school, Roxbury high, and Meersburg academy, is in charge of the team after a long period in which Penn State graduates have been at the helm. Zeis Zeising, a substitute lineman on last year's Lion grid team, is one of the mainstays of the Dickinson forward wall.

Stempeck Will Start

Penn State has met Dickinson sixteen years on the gridiron with the Lions gaining eleven shutout victories against four for the Carlisle machine. The opening game in 1885 ended in a 6-to-6 tie and since that time the winner's goal line has not been crossed by the losing eleven.

Although Dickinson has had an impressive season as far as victories are concerned, Coach McCormick's eleven won its first victory in two years at the expense of Juniata two weeks ago.

BRING NAMED FRESHMAN CO-ED TRIAL PRESIDENT

Erdman, Diffenderfer, Kupke, Stage Gain Other Temporary Posts

Martha Biring was elected president of the Freshman women in the first set of trial officers chosen Wednesday night at a meeting in Old Main.

For vice president, Lucy J. Erdman was selected, with M. Elizabeth Diffenderfer as secretary, and Dorothy Kupke as treasurer. Enid Stage will hold office as social chairman.

This group of officers will serve until the election of the second trial set, for which nominations will be made at a meeting early next week, according to Harriet R. Henrie '33, class organizer.

COLLEGE AUTHORITIES DEFER ACTION ON BULLETIN BOARDS

No definite plans regarding bulletin boards on the Campus have yet been formulated, George W. Ebel, superintendent of the department of grounds and buildings, said yesterday.

"However, when a definite need exists for a bulletin board in one of the College buildings, we comply with the request," he said. "The movement for campus bulletin boards is being agitated constantly, but as yet we have taken no definite action on the matter."

Lions Will Engage Penn Courtmen on Philadelphia Floor

VETERAN GUARD Who Will Start Against Dickinson

TOM CURRY, GUARD

PLAYERS TO OPEN SEASON TOMORROW

Will Present "Broken Dishes" in Auditorium as Dads' Day Stage Production

Opening Penn State's dramatic season, the Penn State Players will produce "Broken Dishes" on the stage of Schwab auditorium at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

Reginald R. Kardon '32 will take the leading role in the three-act comedy with which the dramatic club will regale visiting parents. The cast which enacted the play at Commencement is largely unchanged and is directed by Prof. Arthur C. Clozburgh.

The only new members of the cast are Sylvia M. Mullin '32 and Robert W. Ruckel '33. Eva M. Blichfeldt '31 and James B. Gross '31 are cast opposite each other in the parts of the young lovers.

Orchestra To Play

As Mrs. Bumpsted, Mrs. David D. Mason will take part opposite Kardon. Harriet M. Harris '32 will play the part of the third Bumpsted daughter, Miss Blichfeldt and Miss Mullin being cast as the other two daughters.

Marion L. Heist '33 is to be seen in the character of the Stranger who appears mysteriously to bring on the climax of the play. The part of Sam Greene, a bosom pal of old Bumpsted, will be enacted by Austin B. Moore '32, while Benjamin L. Wise '33 will be seen in another character role.

Incidental music will be played by the re-organized twenty-five piece Players' orchestra. Lucretia's "Ballad Egyptian" will be played as overture while Donald A. Shelley '32, director of the orchestra, has made arrangements of popular songs which will be played between the acts.

Nittany Team to Play In Quaker City January 27

1932 SCHEDULE INCLUDES ARMY, FORDHAM ABROAD

Western Maryland Five Opens Season—Pitt Concludes Campaign Away

After a lapse of a year, Penn and Penn State will again meet on the basketball court at the Penn Palestra in Philadelphia January 27, announcement of the 1932 Nittany schedule revealed yesterday.

Lion courtmen last met Penn February 2, 1930 when they lost to the Quaker five, 28-to-22. The engagement this winter will be the third of a fifteen game schedule and will be one of six listed for foreign courts.

Besides Pennsylvania, three other new opponents will be met. Army and Fordham, two of the strongest opponents in the East, and Juniata are the newcomers to the courtmen's schedule.

Navy, Harvard, Lafayette, and Bethany are four of last year's opponents who will not be encountered during the 1932 season. Western Maryland will play the opening game here January 9, while Pittsburgh returns its position of last year at the end of the schedule.

To Play Carnegie Tech

After meeting the Terriers, the Lions face Wayneburg here January 16. Following this game comes the trip to Philadelphia to meet Pennsylvania. Tuening Syracuse in the January 19, the courtmen open a four-game stay. Bucknell will be met February 6, Juniata on the tenth, and Colgate, in another association contest, on the thirteenth.

The Lions invade West Point for the tilt with the Cadets February 17, and on the following night they will meet Fordham in New York City. Returning to State College, they will face the West Virginia Mountaineers on the twentieth.

Association games will be played with Colgate and Syracuse at Hamilton and Stravace on the 26th, and 27th. Pittburgh will be the opponent in the last encounter at home on March 5. Traveling to Pittsburgh, the Lions will meet Carnegie Tech on March 11 and will close the season against the Panthers the next night.

TRIBUNAL JUDGES 8 CUSTOMS CASES

Punishments for Violators Include Carrying Signs, Disguising as Woman, Copying Songs

Four freshmen will appear on the Campus Monday wearing conspicuously painted signs, one will be disguised as a co-ed, and three others will wear down pencils writing many copies of the Alma Mater, the Freshman class songs, and first year custom.

At the Student Tribunal meeting Wednesday night these punishments were meted out by a jury of four upperclassmen. One case was deferred until next month's meeting, and one of the freshmen summoned failed to put in his appearance. Sentences were imposed upon eight of the ten freshmen whose names had been turned in as customs violators.

The offenders who received punishment were Donald Adam, F. Harple Ambler, T. Kenneth Harkinson Jr., Preston Jahn, John Kestekes, Warren J. Peake, James Swabb, and Robert Werth.

The signs, which are to be worn in varying cases from five days to two weeks, include the following: "Keep Kissing," "I'd Walk a Mile for a Rube," "His Master's Voice," "Maybe I'm Wrong," and "Ah, the pretty grass."

Walking on grass and dirt paths, failure to supply matches upon request, expressed contempt for customs and those enforcing them, talking back to upperclassmen, smoking in public, and missing meetings were some of the offenses.
