

Syracuse Downs Lions; Booters Win, Deadlock; '35 Eleven Defeated

Sidelines

Penn State was not the only team which earned an unblemished record held since 1926 against an opponent before Saturday's encounter. Lafayette defeated W. & J. for the first time since 1926, while the Lions dropped their first contest to Syracuse in five years.

Engaging its oldest opponent in number of games played, Penn State will be host to Pittsburgh for the first time in twenty-nine years on Saturday.

McEwen, star center forward of the Syracuse soccer team, was held scoreless for the first time this year on Saturday when the Lion booters battled the Orange to a scoreless tie. The Orange star is considered by leading soccer authorities for center forward position on the American Olympic soccer team.

Among contenders for Eastern honors Pitt, W. & J. and Colgate had fallen by the wayside when the results of Saturday's games were posted.

Pittsburgh's clash with Notre Dame was costly in more ways than one. Hat Morris, veteran guard, sustained a broken hand in the first quarter of Saturday's clash. He probably will be out of the game for the remainder of this season.

No New York soccer team has ever beaten Penn State's booters, although the Orange of Syracuse have tied the Lions for the past two years. The margin of victory for the Lions in previous games has been three or four points.

Captain Sunny Glassburn, for the second consecutive week, placed first in the time trials. Ken England ended the trials Saturday in the same place he gained a week ago, second, and Charlie King again placed third.

Warren Light, Lebanon Valley fullback, who scored against the Lions three weeks ago, made his team's only tally against Dartmouth at Hanover, N. H., Saturday. The Big Green won by a 20-to-6 score.

In an amazing seventeen first downs to Pittsburgh's eight, Notre Dame completely outplayed the Panthers at South Bend on Saturday. Now that Pitt has been beaten it should not be so hard to defeat them again this year.

Pitt's harriers led their second meet of the season on Saturday to West Virginia at Morgantown. Syracuse gained a victory at the expense of the Panthers last week.

Determined Gridmen Hold Orangemen to 7-0 Victory

ber of first downs registered, they gained all their quota in the second half while limiting the Orangemen to two. The veteran Syracuse line, coached by a former line star, stopped many a Lion thrust, but the Orange forward wall lacked its usual precision Saturday.

Lombardi, veteran tackle, saved the day for the Hillmen, when he stopped play after play with an exhibition of tackling seldom seen before in Archbold Stadium. Big Tom, along with Captain Elliot, Stoneberg, and Newton was a mainstay in the Orange forward wall.

Decidedly the underdog before the game, the Lions surprised the Hillmen with their all around defensive play. Except for a few moments in the opening quarter, when Syracuse scored its touchdown, the Nittany eleven held their foes on even terms and dominated the play throughout the third and fourth periods.

Fumbles Mar Contest
The game was marred by frequent fumbles by Syracuse and loose forward pass play on the part of the Blue and White. The second quarter had more than its usual share of misplays, coupled with a punting duel by Lasch and Cramer.

Statistics show how well the Lions matched the Orange in the second half. Syracuse made ten first downs to six for State, eight of the Hillmen's coming in the first period. The Lions attempted five passes to four for Syracuse, gained sixty yards on aunts to one for the Orange. The Hillmen outrushed the visitors, 179 yards to 61, but 115 of these were collected in the first period.

LIONS OVERCOME CORNELL FOE, 3-1

Subdue Ithacans' Eleven Friday But Fail To Penetrate Syracuse Defense

Continuing their undefeated slide, the Nittany booters downed Cornell at Ithaca, N. Y., 3-to-1 Friday afternoon, and held a strong Syracuse team on Hendricks Field to a scoreless tie Saturday morning.

Having played a strenuous game with the Ithacans, the Blue and White squad was unable to outclass an inferior Hillman aggregation the following day. These two league games on consecutive days by one team are the only instance of their kind this year on the schedule of the Intercollegiate Soccer Football Association of America.

The Hillman contest was featured by the hardest fighting ever displayed on Hendricks field. Numerous attempts for goals were frustrated by the faultless defensive work of Captain Bob McKune and his Orange opponent, Weltman, as goal-keepers.

4,000 See Orange Contest
The strongest team that Syracuse ever has produced was outplayed by the Nittany Lions in the second half, but no tallies were registered. McEwen, Orange satellite at center forward, threatened to score several times, but was checked by the fine defensive work of Al Daykin and his teammates.

Four thousand spectators witnessed the Syracuse game, which extended into two extra periods of five minutes each to afford an opportunity of breaking the scoreless tie. This game proved to be the greatest Orange bid for victory against the Lions when they have never defeated and have tied only once before.

Daykin Scores 2 Goals
In the game Friday afternoon with the Cornell eleven, Penn State far excelled the Ithacans in offense and defense. Cornell was unable to score until the last quarter whereas the Blue and White offense registered in all but the third period.

I. M. ADVISORY COUNCIL FORMS RATING SYSTEM

Provides Credit Toward Beždek Cup For Lacrosse, Gym, Rifle

To provide credit toward the Hugo Beždek cup for managers and team members in lacrosse, gym, and rifle, in which sports no intramural tournaments are held, a system of rating was drawn up at a meeting of the student advisory council last week.

According to the intramural score chart, organizations entered in tournaments receive credit toward the Beždek trophy for managers and players who are members of their group in that sport. Prior to the new rating, no credit was accorded units for managers and players in the three sports not included in intramurals.

A resolution was adopted to the effect that all students entered in intramural contests must be affiliated or legitimately associated with the group in which they enter.

for the Lions when the ball bounced off the goal-keeper's hand into the net. In the second quarter, a long try by Bill Shea which was destined to register was helped along by Junior Holmes past the Ithacan goalie.

With the score at 2-to-0 in favor of Penn State following a tallyless third period, Olditch, Cornell staller center forward kicked the only goal for his team with five minutes to go. Two minutes later, Al Daykin guided the ball into the net for the final score of the game after a skirmish around the Cornell goal.

PANTHER ATTACK DOWNS YEARLINGS

Lion Plebes Fall, 33-0, Before Powerful Onslaught of Pittsburgh Team

Held powerless before the attack of a strong yearling eleven from Pittsburgh, Penn State's freshman football team lost its second game of the season here Saturday by a 33-to-0 score.

So complete was the Panther triumph that the freshmen were held without a first down until late in the last quarter, while the Blue and Gold yearlings amassed a total of ten. Three of Pitt's five touchdowns came in the first quarter, and the other two were scored in the third period.

Again the opposing forwards were able to break through the Lion line without much trouble, although Allen, substitute end, and Kessler, left guard, displayed spectacular defensive work. The Nittany backfield
