The University of Pittsburgh football team has never defeated Penn State here in State College. Prior to 1904 the Lions had defeated the Panthers on each of the five visits of the Golden Cats to the vale of Old Mount Nittany.

For the past two years the Nittany harriers have defeated Pitt's hill and dalers by perfect scores. In fact, a Panther cross-country team has never gained a victory over Penn State.

Tom Harper, Lion backfield speedster, and Paul Reuter, Panther halfback, played side by side for one of the strongest football teams ever produced by New Castle high school in 1927. Tom was fullback while Paul played the same position that he now holds down for Pitt.

Lion harriers have been undefeated in dual meet competition since 1925 and will attempt to extend their record at the expense of Pitt's hill and dale men tomorrow.

As a tribute to Knute Rockne the Penn State Blue Band will join in the playing of a memorial song dedicated to the famous Notre Dame leader with other college bands throughout the country on November 11. On this date the Lion gridders engage Lafayette at Easton.

Twelve years ago Captain Bob Higgins led a Nittany eleven to the last triumph over Pitt. That year Higgins was an All-American selection for one of the end positions.

The yearling gridders will have four captains before the season is closed. Everett Johnson led the team against Dickinson Seminary while Harry Sigel captained the eleven against Pitt freshmen last Saturday. The yearling mentor, Larry Corover, will select captains for the remaining two games.

It will be interesting to observe the score of the Carnegie Tech-Notre Dame game in Pittsburgh tomorrow and the Pitt-Lech battle on the following Saturday at the Panther Stadium.

This year instead of the basketball coach, Dr. Clifford Carlson of Pitt, saying that his team will win all its games, Doc Kowallis, captain of the 1931-32 court team of the Golden Panthers has stated, "We'll win them all."

Nittany Gridmen To Meet Pitt in Homecoming Game

with prospects likely for a heavy rain tonight or tomorrow afternoon, the handicap of their lightness will be greater.

Pitt has won nineteen games while the Blue and White has gained the victory twelve times and two games resulted in ties. In the thirty-three contests played to date, the Panthers have amassed a total of 416 points, just one hundred more than the figure gained by Penn State.

Jack Sutherland is counting on saving most of his first string men for the clash with Carnegie Tech at the Pitt Stadium on November 7. During the past week the Pitt mentor has shifted his lineup to such an extent that it would be easier to say the second team will start tomorrow's game.

Lasech To Start

Coch Higgins expects to start Slusser and Brewster at the ends, McMillan and Stempel at the tackles, with Kane and Hesch on either side of Zawacki or Anderson, center.

In the backfield Captain Lasech will start in his regular line punching position. Spike Collins and Phil Moonves appear to be Higgins' selections for the halfback posts, and Dock Conn the likely starter at quarterback.

If Sutherland does not start his second team, the probable lineup should read Henschburg and Collins, ends; MacMurdo and Quatse, tackles; Onder and Milligan, guards, and Daugherty at center. In the backfield will be Hogan, quarterback; Heller and Reuter, halves, and Clark or Luch, fullback.

Officials for tomorrow's game are Referee—E. C. Tugraut, Rochester; Umpire—D. Watkins, Syracuse; Head linesman—E. M. Bemis, Pennsylvania Field Judge—J. R. Lehecka, Lafayette.

BLOCH DEFEATS SCHAEFFER FOR COLLEGE TENNIS TITLE

Pip Bloch downed Charlie Schaeffer on the College courts Saturday afternoon to win the all-College tennis tournament. Bloch was winner also of the freshman intramural contest during Freshman Week.

Bloch took the match in three sets, winning 6-1, 7-5, and 13-11. He defeated Nelson Green, also a freshman, in the semi-finals.

Our Opponents

Colgate-Mississippi

We guessed wrong on the Maroon against N. Y. U. last week, but there should be no doubt about tomorrow's game being a victory for the Hamilton eleven. On the rebound after last week's defeat, Colgate should win by two or three touchdowns.

Lafayette-Penn

As we predicted, Lafayette came through easily against W. & J. last week. We're taking a chance, but we hazard another victory for the Maroon tomorrow. Penn should be less spirited than last week, and we think Lafayette will win a close game.

West Virginia-Kansas State

The Mountaineers are blood-thirsty for victory after being nosed out by Detroit last Friday night 9-0-7. However, we're afraid they're no match for "Bo" McMillan's undefeated Kansas Aggie eleven, and the Westerners should win by at least a six-pointer.

Lehigh-Muhlenberg

The Brown and White lost its fourth straight game Saturday when Brown administered a 33-0 lacing. However, we believe they're due for a victory against a Muhlenberg team which has already lost to Lebanon Valley, but we don't believe it will be by more than two touchdowns.

Waynesburg-Westminster

With Rab Currie and other stars back in the lineup, the Yellow Jackets should be more powerful than they were when held to a scoreless tie by New River last week. We believe they'll win from the Titans by a close score.

Lebanon Valley-Mt. St. Mary's

The Annville eleven provided one of last Saturday's big surprises by holding Datmouth to a 20-0-6 score. On the strength of this inspiration, they ought to nose out the Emmitsburg team.

Temple-W. & J.

The Owls got a break when Lafayette pummeled the Presidents badly in defeating them, 21-0-0. The crippled Prexies should be unable to stop the Philadelphia eleven from being on the long end of the score at the final whistle.

Dickinson-Swarthmore

After being held to a tie by P. M.

Panther Tackle

JESS QUATSE

C., the Red Devils do not appear so formidable as in the past. However, we think they'll come out ahead of the Little Quakers.

Syracuse-Michigan State

Whether the Orangemen will be able to shake off last Saturday's lethargy is a question. If they do, they should take over the Westerners or at least hold them to a tie.

HETZEL WINS CO-ED GOLF

Winning the women's annual fall golf tournament, Helene E. Hetzel '34 defeated Marjorie E. Smith '33 Monday afternoon in the finals by a score of four and three in match play.

BOOTERS TO PLAY LAFAYETTE HERE

Undeclared Lions Meet Maroon On Football Practice Field At 12:30 Tomorrow

With a record of two victories and a scoreless tie, Coach Bill Jeffrey's soccer team will engage the Lafayette eleven on the football practice field at 12:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Lafayette's performance this year has been far from impressive. State Teachers' college defeated the Maroon booters two weeks ago by 5-0-0 at Easton. Another loss was suffered by Coach Deaton's team when Haverford won by 7-0-0 at the Haverford School grounds three weeks ago.

Change Tyson, Edwards. Right halfback will probably be filled by Bill Shea and center halfback by Al Daykin, while Frank Evans may receive the left halfback assignment.

Bill Tyson will start at outside right, which was his regular position last year, instead of Shorty Edwards who will play at outside left.

Inside right will be filled by Dutch Miller while center forward is a toss-up between Eddie Knecht, Bradford, and Junior Holmes with Knecht holding a slight edge. Chick Musser may replace Herb Masters at inside right.

NACIOS DOWNS MUSSER TO WIN LINKS TOURNEY

Annexes Trophy in All-College Golf Competition Last Week

Bill Nacios defeated Chick Musser, three and one, to win the all-College golf tournament recently. The competition was open to all students.

Musser overcame Sicksels to enter the finals, and Nacios beat Blaess. The tourney is an annual fall event and was in progress three weeks.

A trophy will be presented to Nacios as winner, and Musser may receive a runner-up award, according to Francis E. Schill '32, manager.

Let's talk Straight from the Shoulder

WHAT you want in a cigarette is taste. You want mildness... smoothness... and satisfying pleasure when you smoke.

All right then... get this straight.

CHESTERFIELD pays top prices... yes, and a premium for the ripest, mellowest, sweet-tasting leaf that grows.

The curing and conditioning is done by specialists... men carefully trained in handling these fine tobaccos.

IN BLENDING, also, Chesterfields are different... Instead of merely mixing the tobaccos together... we cross-blend them. It's like making a new and better-tasting kind of tobacco. That's how we get that Chesterfield flavor. Milder... and a more pleasing aroma.

Cigarette paper? Only the purest that's made is good enough for Chesterfield.

PICK UP a package. Note its clean appearance... free from heavy inks. It's moisture-proof, too.

And three big factories at Richmond, Durham and San Francisco—operating under the strictest sanitary standards—rush them fresh to you.

Good... they've got to be good. Because they're made that way. And most important of all... you can taste this goodness in the cigarette. You can tell it in the smoke.

Light up, Mister! Try Chesterfield.

Let the cigarette do its own talking. You'll get the whole thrilling story, in just two words... "They Satisfy!"

"Yes Sir—Mild yet they Satisfy"
