

Sidelines

Penn State and Colgate have met twice before on the gridiron. Back in 1911 the Maroon fell prey to the Lion to the tune of 17-to-9, but last year Coach Andy Kerr's proteges swamped the Nittany horde with an avalanche of touchdowns and returned to Hamilton, N. Y., on the long end of a 10-to-0 score.

Winnie Anderson, sophomore and regular right end for Colgate's football team, is the lightest man to be on the Maroon squad in the past six years. Anderson weighs only 169 pounds.

Captain Johnny Orsi, star end for the Colgate Maroon eleven, is sometimes called "Count" because his ancestors in Italy were of the nobility. Count Orsi is a three letter man since he earned varsity letters in football, basketball, and baseball last year.

For the first time this year Penn State will meet an opponent in football without the services of the regular captain. On one occasion last year Captain Yutz Dieckrich watched his teammates play from the players' bench.

Three sophomores are certain to start tomorrow's contest with the Maroon. There is a possibility that four may take the field in the starting lineup, for either Long or Sushach, sophomores, may start at right halfback instead of Ed Laatu. The other second-year men are Slusser at end, Anderson at center, and fullback Wanthouse.

Two Maroon graders, Bob Samuel and Art Schiebel prepaped at Mercersburg Academy. For three years Samuel played quarterback for Scranton Central high school when Johnny McAndrews, Lion lightweight boxer, played end.

If comparative scores in cross-country mean anything, the Lion horde should outdistance a hill and dale horde from Syracuse tomorrow. The Orange runners defeated Pitt by a 19-to-7 score two weeks ago, while the Kate Catmell's proteges overcame the Panther pack by a perfect score last week.

Syracuse University's harrriers are the last team to defeat Penn State. In 1927 the Orangemen gained a one-point decision over the Lion hill and dalers, and since that meet the Lions have been undefeated in dual competition.

The ring activity of Steve Hamas, winner of the first "S" athletic award at Penn State and now professional heavyweight boxer, has been retarded because of an injured hand.

Gridmen To Face Colgate as Booters Meet Undeclared Main Liners

LIONS TO ENGAGE MAROON MACHINE

Coach Kerr suffered losses by graduation, but those gaps have been filled almost simultaneously by aspiring sophomores.

Will Present Strong Team

Led by Captain John Orsi, ranked by sports critics as one of the best ends in the East last year, the Colgate machine is composed of three veteran linemen from last year's powerful eleven. The two tackles, Art Schiebel and Bart Ellis, faced the Lions on New Beaver field last year along with Paul Marshland, center.

At the other terminal post Coach Kerr will use Winnie Anderson, a sophomore, and two juniors, Smith and Hill, at the guard berths. John Latsler, regular fullback during his sophomore year who understudied All-American Len Macaluso last fall, is the selection of the Maroon coach for line plunging work tomorrow.

To complete the backfield, the Maroon coach expects to start Bob Samuel, sophomore flash, at halfback with Whitey Ask. Jim Evans is the probable selection for the signal calling post. Ask and Evans are juniors, and both participated in Colgate's 40-0 victory over Penn State here last year.

Kerr Brings Heavy Team

Coach Bob Higgins' eleven will be outweighed in tomorrow's engagement with Andy Kerr's Colgate machine, for the Lion first and second teams average 170 pounds, while the Hamilton varsity averages 181 pounds per man.

In the starting lineup for tomorrow's game, Bill McMillen and Stan Stempeck will make their last appearance on New Beaver field. Tom Curry, Ed Laatu and Bob Snyder are seniors who have only the Colgate contest left in their home gridiron careers. Other seniors include Captain Judy Lasich, Kenny Thomas, and Phil Moonves.

Nittany Gridmen Emerge Victorious In Past Pennsylvania Day Contests

Despite the distraction caused by the semi-annual invasion of Houseparty Queens, Penn State football teams have won notable victories in Pennsylvania, Day games, records show.

In 1914, an inspired Blue and White eleven won a great inter-sectional game before pre-war houseparty dates by conquering Michigan State, 6-to-3. In 1919, too, the damsel's presence led to victory and Lehigh knelt in defeat, 20-to-7.

Again a Western foe invaded State College while houseparty guests held the keys to the city, and again the Nittany Lion roared in victory, 20-to-7 over Nebraska. The Plaid eleven, of Carnegie Tech bowed three times in the presence of the ladies, 28-to-7 in 1921, 10-to-0 in 1922, and 22-to-7 in 1924.

Georgia Tech provided the Pennsylvania Day opposition in 1923, and the Houseparty queens saw Penn State win again, 7-to-0. Michigan was again defeated in 1925, this time by a 13-to-6 tally.

As late as last year, Penn State rose to great form in its Fall Houseparty engagement. The 1930 eleven showed its greatest fight of the year in holding strong Syracuse to a scoreless tie—and won the plaudits of 4,000 Houseparty dates at the Saturday night dances.

SOCCERMEN TO VIE WITH HAVERFORD

Strong Nittany Team Will Face Redwings at 10 O'clock Tomorrow Morning

With good prospects for an undefeated season, the Nittany booters will engage the unbeaten Haverford eleven in the hardest game this year on the football practice field at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The Scarlet and Black soccer team, coached by James McPete, has three victories to its credit this year, having defeated Lehigh 4-to-1, Lafayette 7-to-2, and Navy 2-to-1. Tomorrow's game will probably break the good record of either team, although a tie may be the score.

Lehigh lost to the Quakers early in the season on October 3 at Haverford. A week later, the Main Liners overwhelmed the Maroon soccermen at Haverford. Displaying an attack which was powerful both offensively and defensively, Coach McPete's proteges defeated Navy in a hard-fought game at Annapolis, Md., three weeks ago.

Never Defeated Penn State

Longaker, Redwing center-forward, a high scorer for the Haverford team with tallies in each game, scoring three points against Lafayette. Roberts, inside left, placed two goals through Lehigh's net defense and scored one against Lafayette.

The Main Liners boast a goalie with a stature of six feet, three inches who easily fills his net. Lanky Al Zintl has starred in all of the games this year, having been successful in stopping a very high percentage of goal tries made by opposing teams. Haverford has never defeated a

Penn State team coached by Bill Jeffrey. Ties of 1-to-1 were scored in 1921 and last year, while scoreless ties resulted in the 1927 and 1928 contests. Nittany teams won from the Scarlet and Black in 1920 3-to-1, in 1922 4-to-0, and in 1929 by 2-to-1 scores.

I. M. ELEVENS HALT CONTESTS 4 DAYS

To Reopen Playoffs Monday Night After Rest Period—2 Sets Already Concluded

Following a four-day rest period beginning Wednesday, intramural football playoffs will reopen Monday night, according to Francis E. Schill '32, intramural football manager. A revised schedule of next week's games will be posted on Co-op Corner.

Two sets of games were played on Wednesday night. Phi Epsilon Pi defeated Phi Kappa Tau, 9-to-0, while the Independent Cubs won by a forfeit from Beta Sigma Rho. In the second set Delta Sigma Phi triumphed over Triangle by a 6-to-0 score, while Phi Delta Theta defeated Phi Lambda Theta, five first downs to one.

Omega Epsilon bowed to Sigma Nu, 20-to-0, Tuesday night. Alpha Kappa Pi and Phi Kappa Psi forfeited to Phi Kappa Nu and the Two-Year Aps, respectively.

On Monday night, the B. T. U. club defeated Sigma Phi Alpha, 18-to-0, while Phi Kappa Sigma downed Phi Gamma Delta, 6-to-0. Last Thursday, Theta Chi was victorious over Blue and White by the same score, and Phi Sigma Delta forfeited to Beta Kappa.

INFORMAL SPORTS STRESSED

Classes in physical education for all freshmen and sophomore students this year stress an informal program of games and sports rather than the strictly formal program of past years, Prof. Elwood C. Davis, of the School of Physical Education, pointed out this week. "This change is in accordance with the most recent trend in College physical education work," said Professor Davis.
