

Sidelines

While the poor record of the team as a whole has kept Captain Judy Lasech from anything better than honorable mention in the all-star teams of the metropolitan press, those who have played against the plunging fullback recognize his championship calibre. He has been selected as fullback on both the Pitt and the Colgate all-opponents' teams and placed second to Lister of Colgate in the Lafayette selections.

Tom Curry also received recognition in Lafayette's choices, being named as guard on the first all-opponents eleven. Kane, his running mate, was similarly honored by Temple last week.

With the close of the 1931 football season, Lion coaches have begun to look forward to the material for next fall. Only six lettermen, Captain Lasech, Moonves, and Snyder, backs, and Curry, McMullen, and Stempel from the forward wall will be lost by graduation in June.

Waynesburg College journeyed to State College twice in 1931 to gain victories in basketball and football. In 1932, the Lions will have a chance to redeem themselves, for the Yellow Jackets will return for a basketball game in January and for a football contest an October.

Coach Dutch Hermann received a touch blow from the injuries jinx, when Walt Moser, regular forward last year, sustained a painful knee injury in practice last week. Walt will be unable to take part in any practice sessions until after the Christmas vacation.

Shorty Miller, star quarterback of the Lion football team in 1912, has been selected to serve as field judge for the Army-Navy game in New York City on Saturday.

Len Tanscer, captain of this year's basketball team at Penn, and Don Kellert will not take part in any of the first three games to be played by the Quakers. Both these men have been playing football and at the request of Lou Jourdet, coach of the Penn court team, they will take a vacation from athletics for two weeks.

Moan McMullen, star tackle and the most used Lion griddler this year, has received an appointment to West Point. If Moan passes the physical examinations, he will enter the Military Academy in July.

Pitt again placed a man on the all-American football team when Jess Quate was awarded one of the tackle positions by the all-American Board of Coaches. The selection of Quate continues the practice of selecting at least one Panther almost every year, for the Blue and Gold has placed six men in the last seven years.

Regis Toomey, who played a leading part in the movie "Touchdown," played with the Pitt freshman football team against the Lion first-year men in 1925. Toomey was unable to continue in later varsity competition because of injuries.

The Lion gridders played against one all-American first team selection, John Orsi, captain of the Colgate eleven this year. Jess Quate of Pittsburgh did not face the Lions as the Panther reserves were used during the entire game on Alumni Homecoming Day.

Glenn Killinger, all-American quarterback in 1921 and star of the last undefeated Lion eleven, has signed a contract to manage the Allentown baseball team for the coming season. He managed Williamsport's team last summer.

Fred Winstead, Phi Sigma Kappa end, is the only man to gain a position on the all-intramural team two years in succession.

KAPPA SIGMA WINS I. M. GRID TOURNEY

Overcomes Chi Upsilon, 6-0, By Successful Forward Pass In Second Quarter

A long forward pass, interrupting a tight game, enabled Kappa Sigma to overcome its last opponent, Chi Upsilon, 6-to-0, winning the intramural football trophy before a thousand spectators on New Beaver field Saturday afternoon.

The game was marked by rigid line thrusts, varied with numerous forward passes. Both teams opened up with loose play in the closing period. Although outstrapped 8-to-0 in first downs, Kappa Sigma reached scoring territory more often than its opponent. The single touchdown came late in the first half when Flenniken caught Aldrich's forward pass and ran forty-five yards to score. The ball had been advanced nineteen yards on the preceding play by another pass, Balling to Ritenour.

Fails on Extra Point
Chi Upsilon threatened early in the game when a series of off-tackle slants carried them to Kappa Sigma's 11-yard line. Here their drive ended, and Kappa Sigma kicked out of danger.

In the second quarter, Kappa Sigma gained possession of the ball on its own 35-yard line. After each team had lost on downs, the winners scored on two successive passes. Ritenour failed on try for extra point.

On another pass to Ritenour in the third quarter, Kappa Sigma penetrated to Chi Upsilon's 30-yard line only to lose the ball on downs. Walus, Chi Upsilon quarterback, fumbled after a bad pass from center and the ball rolled to his own 7-yard line, where a kick on next down returned the oval to center field.

Bezdek Presents Trophy
After gaining forty yards on a forward pass to Bosman, in the fourth quarter, Chi Upsilon was forced back to its own territory, where the play remained for the remainder of the game. Walus, a constant threat during the first half, suffered injuries which impaired his running.

Near the close of the last period, Chi Upsilon completed a pass which brought the ball almost to the 50-yard mark. Two unsuccessful passes then halted their advance as the game closed.

Director Hugo Bezdek of the Physical Education School presented the tournament cup to the Kappa Sigma team after the contest.

OVER 200 FRESHMAN REPORT AT '35 RIFLE TEAM TRIALS
Approximately 250 have registered for the freshman rifle squad and are taking part in preliminary firing tests at the present time, according to Captain Ernest E. Tabscott, coach of the first year team.

Seven matches have been arranged to date for the team. Although no shoulder-to-shoulder match has been scheduled as yet, an attempt will be made to schedule such a match in addition to the telegraph matches.

TO BEGIN BOWLING TOURNEY
Approximately twenty-five fraternity teams will begin competition at the Dux club tonight for the Interfraternity bowling championship. The teams of five men each will continue in the contest until the second or third week in March at which time a silver trophy will be awarded to the winning organization. Seasonal winners will receive plaques. John C. March '33 is manager of the tournament.

7 VETERANS SEEK BASKETBALL POSTS

40 Answer Hermann's Call for Court Aspirants—Moser Receives Leg Injury

Seven lettermen are included in the forty aspirants who answered Coach Dutch Hermann's call for varsity basketball candidates last week. Captain Freddy Brand, Walt Moser, Jack Meyers, Doc Conn, Charlie Hammond, Bub Davis, and Charlie Blowers compose the nucleus of the squad from which the veteran mentor hopes to build a formidable Lion quintet.

Paul Krumine '34, who left school after being captain and high scorer of the 1928 freshman five, has returned and promises to press the other forwards hard for one of their positions. Although he will not be eligible until the second semester, he has been working out with the squad daily in an effort to regain the deadly accuracy which enabled him to establish his high scoring mark.

From last year's strong freshman quartet, Norry McFarlane, flashy forward, and Stump Parks and Tom Slusser, guards, seem to have an early edge in the quest for varsity posts. Dill and Blyler are other outstanding defensive sophomores, while Dave Thomas, at forward, is also promising.

Moser Injured
Even though the squad has engaged only in light practice on fundamentals, injuries already threaten to hamper the effectiveness of the offense, at least in the early games. Walt Moser, who was expected to play a big part in the scoring plays, has suffered a leg injury and will be unable to practice until after the Christmas vacation period. This may keep him out of the first game against Western Maryland here January 9.

Coach Hermann is using a new offensive system this season and had hoped to convert Jack Meyers from a forward to a running guard. Moser's injury, however, may force him to use Meyers as a mate for McFarlane at forward, with Conn in the running guard position. Captain Brand at center and Ed McMinn as defensive guard round out this combination.

After disposing of their tilt with the Terrors, the cagemen will have a week to perfect their attack before

JEFFREY NAMES 3 LIONS ALL-STARS

Nittany Coach Includes McKune, Daykin, Evans on Soccer Conference Eleven

Captain Ted McKune, goalie, Al Daykin, center halfback, and Frank Evans, left halfback, were named by Coach Bill Jeffrey yesterday in his choice of an all-conference eleven composed of players in the Intercollegiate Soccer Football Association of America.

The selection of these men indicates the high type of ball the undefeated Nittany booters have played this season. Twenty-three of the leading colleges and universities in the eastern and central states are represented in the circuit.

In picking his team, Coach Jeffrey commented that collegiate soccer this season reached the highest level in its history. Five teams in the association remained undefeated during the season when an unusually large number of tie-games were recorded.

Henszey on Second Team
Captain Ted McKune received the position of goalie which he held two years ago on the mythical team McKune has the record of allowing only thirteen goals against him in league games during the last three years.

Al Daykin gained the center halfback position by outplaying McEwen, flashy Syracuse booter, who was one of the leading contenders for individual honors. Coach Jeffrey styles McEwen as the classiest center forward seen in intercollegiate circles this year.

By his stellar defensive play and the ability to start Nittany advances, Frank Evans outshined his contemporaries for the left halfback assignment on the first team. The only Penn State man on the second team was Bill Henszey, right fullback.

While Penn State received three places on the first team, Pennsylvania, Syracuse, and Springfield each placed two players, and Haverford and Lehigh one each. Additional schools represented on the second team were Navy, Swarthmore, and Yale.

they meet the formidable Waynesburg quintet here January 16. Their first game away will be against Penn at the Palestra January 27. The Lions will be especially anxious to win this game, since it is their first with the Quakers since 1929 and an opportunity to avenge the 23-to-22 defeat suffered that year.

SOPHOMORE HOCKEY TEAM WINS ANNUAL TOURNAMENT

Sophomores won the women's annual interclass hockey tournament for the second consecutive year, according to Elsie W. Darlington '33, head manager of the sport, in a statement Sunday.

With a score of five games won and one game tied, the 1934 women attained first place, while the junior team was second. Seniors and freshmen followed in third and fourth places respectively.

FENCERS STAGE EXHIBITION

Doris M. Acker '34 and Victoria R. Magda '34, members of last year's fencing team, gave an exhibition match Thursday in Room 300, Old Mining Building.
