Selection of Stan Stempel, as tackle on Swiacus's all-opponents' team gives Penn State a representative on five of our six major opponents' all-opponents' eleven. Nittany gridmen have been selected on the first teams of Pitt, Colgate, Lafayette, Temple, and Swiacus. West Virginia has not yet made known her selections.

Turning to the field of soccer, Al Daykin, newly elected Nittany captain, was selected as center forward on the Lehigh all-opponents' team named by Coach Jack Carpenter.

In seeking to establish Bucknell's claim as "the leading eleven in the East," the Bucknell student newspaper, names Penn State among a group of Eastern eleven's called the "New Stricken." The classification has the value of being original, if a bit unusual. The Bisons are placed at the top, although the "New Stricken" includes Pitt, and Colgate.

The University of the South, whom the Lions meet before the Houseparty crowd next year, is a member of the Southern Conference. The school is located at Seawance, Tennessee, and its athletic teams are nicknamed the "Tigers."

Coach Dutch Henmann, Lion basketball coach, is considering the possibility of having a second string quintet composed entirely of sophomores, who might play three years together as a unit. The five would include Nobby McFarlane and Dave Thomas as forwards, Carl Wirtum at center, and Stump Parks and Dill or Bylet as guards.

All-American John Orst of Colgate, who was selected as end on the Lion all-opponents' eleven, has accepted an invitation to play with the "East" against a "West" eleven at San Francisco New Year's Day.

The Pitt basketball team opens the long campaign, which ends when it meets the Lions at Pittsburgh in March, against Temple tomorrow night. With several hundred State high school coaches assembled as students of the Carlson system, the Panthers hope to avert last year's embarrassing incident, when they lost to Western Reserve, 33-to-17.

Davis, Navy boxer who lost to Brubaker of Western Maryland in the 160-pound class finals of the intercollegiate boxing tournament held here last spring, is quarterback on the Navy eleven against the Army tomorrow.

Coach Houck Drills Lion Mitmen To Face Heavy Season—1 Lettermen Return

With four lettermen returning to form an experienced nucleus, Coach Leo Houck has been drilling forty aspirants for ring positions in his quest for a strong team.

Beginning preliminary drill a week before Thanksgiving vacation, the Lion mitmen have been working out daily to get into shape for a difficult and long season of engagements. This week Coach Houck held short sessions in the ring in preparation for tomorrow's new-steel exhibition.

Captain Dave Stoop, intercollegiate bantamweight champion in 1930, leads the group of Nittany contenders for the 115-pound post while Frank Bowman and Jim Ralston, two sophomores working out in that weight, have been grooming themselves for competition against the Lion captain.

Lewis Leads Welterweight Eight. In the 125-pound class, Phil Epstein, Johnny Napoleon, and Bas Clare are all fighting for supremacy, each having about the same experience. Napoleon and Epstein have been putting up a good show in the short bouts. McAndrews, Mimmich, and Lenker will probably be the leading contenders for the 135-pound berth. Anderson, Lucas, Abrams, Jackson, and Lombarger are additional men competing to displace Johnny McAndrews from his post of last year.

Displaying a fine brand of boxing, Al Lewis, lone Nittany intercollegiate champ, has been outclassing the field in the 145-pound division. Ferraro and Swan have been his principal competitors for the welterweight position. In the 155-pound class Updegrave has shown an advantage over Hill, Gitsavage, Henszey, and Graham.

With Slusser, Polak, Bedoski, and Long in the field for the 160-pound class, any Nittany middleweight representative will be kept busy maintaining his position throughout the season. Sagun, McMillen, Bauer, and ship team in 1930 in addition to being captain this year.

Soccer letters were awarded to Captain McKune, Captain-elect Daykin, Bradford, Edwards, Evans, Hartzlet, Henszey, Holmes, Knecht, Masters, Miller, Musser, Shea, Tyson, and Manager Simon.

At this meeting there was some discussion concerning the size letter that should be given to the members of this year's undefeated soccer team. There is a possibility, Mr. Fleming said, that in the future intercollegiate champions and members of undefeated teams may receive six-inch letters instead of the customary four and one quarter-inch awards, providing that

Problem: how to answer a million a day

Users of Bell System service ask "Information" more than 1,000,000 questions every day. Providing facilities for answering them promptly, correctly, was one problem put up to engineers of the Bell System.

So effective was their solution that this prodigious task is now a matter of smooth routine. They designed desks which enable each operator to reach quickly the listings of some 15,500,000 telephones. They developed apparatus which automatically routes calls to operators not busy—and should all operators be busy at once, it stores up calls and releases them in the order received!

Efficient telephone service depends upon working out interesting problems like this.
