Moore McMillen, Lion tackle, was the only Penn State gridder to be given a place on the West Virginia University all-opponent team by gaining a tackle position on the second eleven Quatse and MacMurdo of Pitt, both of whom have been given all-American rating this year, were the first team tackles.

Coaches Bob Higgins, Nate Cartmell, and Dutch Hermann have left their fields of coaching during the past ten days to speak at grid banquets at Wyoming Seminary and Huntingdon.

At Davkin, soccer captain-elect, has been named on all-star elevens picked by Coaches James McPete of Haverford and Harry Carpenter of Lehigh while Bill Shea, Lion tight halfback, gained a place on McPete's team.

Carpenter, in selecting Davkin, said "To me, Davkin is the best center half I have ever seen since the days of Fritz Meurer of Lehigh, whom I consider the greatest ever seen in college soccer."

A few weeks ago Dr. H. Clifford Carlson, coach of the Pittsburgh quintet, made a prediction that the Panthers would win all their basketball games this year. The Blue and Gold cagers opened their season Saturday by downing Temple, 29-to-21.

Captain Judy Lasech and Tom Slusser were honored with first-team positions on the all-opponent team selected by Waynesburg College. Johnny Grimsdew and Stan Stempel were given places on the second team.

A metropolitan sports writer this week recalled the fact that twenty years ago Penn State established the best gridiron defensive record in the East, while placing second only to the Carlisle Indians in the number of points scored. Nittany opponents in 1911 were able to tally only 15 points, while the high-scoring Lion eleven ran up a total of 190 points.

Wrestlers Show Promise In Early Season Workouts

5 Lettermen Shape Up As Speidel Trains Squad of 80

Coach Charlie Speidel smiles broadly when asked about the prospects of the coming season for the wrestlers. He looks over his eighty candidates, quizzing on the mats and says "Well, there are some good men there."

He's not worrying though. He has better prospects for a bright season than most coaches here. Five from last year's nine lettermen are back at it with high promises of victory for them this year.

Captain Roy Maize will use his speed and wrestling experience in either the 118 and 126 pound divisions. Seeley, Ellstrom, and Hoerner will probably have it out to see who will pair with Maize in the light-weight bouts when the first meet comes along.

Will Meet Chicago Powerful and with a lot of experience for a sophomore, Rosenberg looks like a logical man for the 135-pound berth. Nevertheless Hill and Shanahan have the wrestling knowledge to give him plenty of opposition.

In the middleweights through the 145 and 165-pound outfits three men stand out and promise to stage a good battle for the chances to represent the Lions in these two classes. Gullner, a senior letterman who is built low and sturdily, Lorenzo, a junior letterman whose long arms and build give him a different, effective battling style, and Turnbull, a sophomore whose western record stamps him as a strong contender, will all have a chance at the varsity places.

Ted Reybitz won six bouts out of six last year and registered three falls to place as high team scorer. His magnificent sense of balance will probably hold him in the 165-pound varsity berth although Charlie Speidel says that Metzger, Chisman and Campbell will be able to keep him worried.

Berry, football man, and Judd, weigh about enough to place them in the 175-pound class where they seem to be the outstanding men at this time. Lots of weight is available for the unlimited division. Bennett, 240 pounds, Cole, 188 pounds, Ruth, 205 pounds, Jackson, 182 pounds, and Rice, 212 pounds, all have the beef and know how to move it around the mats.

The wrestlers will have the first chance to try their strength when the University of Chicago team comes here on January 23. Last year they fell to the Lion attack by a 21-to-11 score.

LOSE SINGLE GRID CONTEST The University of Pittsburgh's freshman football team scored victories in three out of six games this year and earned ties in two of the remaining three contests. Their lone defeat came at the hands of the West Virginia University yearlings.

CO-ED BASKETBALL TOURNEY TO BEGIN AFTER CHRISTMAS

The first rounds of the women's intramural basketball tournament will begin on January 5 when Chi Omega will meet Phi Mu. In other first round matches scheduled for January 6, the Town Girls team will play Theta Phi Alpha while the Frazier street dormitory meets the Women's Building team.

One match is scheduled for January 7 when Grange dormitory will oppose Delta Gamma. On January 10, representatives of the transferred women will meet Kappa Alpha Theta. Wind-up games of the first round will be played January 12.

CONOVER CUTS SQUAD TO 60

With the squad already narrowed down from 164 aspirants to sixty candidates for the freshman basketball team will continue to work out until the end of this week, Coach Larry Conover has announced. Approximately twenty will be eliminated this week and Conover will select his final squad from the remaining forty candidates after the holidays.

Haverford, Yale Tie for Second as Penn, Tigers, Harvard, Navy, Swarthmore Follow

A compilation of the six-year standing in association soccer shows that the Penn State eleven heads all other members in an average for that time, while Haverford and Yale tie for second place. Penn rates fourth with Princeton fifth and Harvard, Navy, and Swarthmore following.

Coach Jeffrey's eleven holds the enviable record of four undefeated seasons, two intercollegiate titles, and one second place in the existence of the league. Lion supremacy places Penn State at the head of thirteen intercollegiate situations for the six seasons with eighteen victories, nine ties, and two defeats.

A comparison of figures shows that the Blue and White squad has maintained an unparalleled defensive record with only two defeats in twenty-nine league starts and only twenty-two points scored against them. Haverford the nearest bidder boasts only seven losses, while Harvard claims the second best record in points scored against them with forty-three.

Lions Hold 20-Year Record

Previous to the formation of the Eastern Intercollegiate Soccer association, the Lions held the collegiate record with only three defeats and six ties in fourteen years. A twenty-year record of intercollegiate competition reveals only five defeats and fifteen ties.

Springfield, a newcomer to the conference this year, has attained a perfect average for the season by winning all league contests. Penn, Haverford, and Syracuse share unbeaten honors with Springfield and Penn State for this year. This is the first year that five teams remained undefeated.
