WRESTLERS SUBDUE SYRACUSE BY 20-6

Reybitz Secures Only Fall for Lions—Byers, Judd Score Surprise Victories

By R D HETZEL Jr '33

More than a little of a Jack the Giant-Killer feeling blossomed out Saturday at the wrestling meet

An extra sense of triumph was felt by Lion followers as they saw the consistently heavier and stronger Syracusans lose to the superior skill of the Nittany wrestlers. The score was no upset, but the way it came startled dopesters. Twenty to six is all right, but no one had depended on Judd and Byers to clinch the meets in the unlimited and 175-pound classes.

When Alex Turnbull twisted his ankle Thursday night, it upset the dope for a win in the 145-pound weight His injury is not serious and he'll be seen probably at Morgantown next Friday against West Virginia Carpenter proved his edge on Lorenzo by taking him over a second time They met in the intercollegiates last year

Captain Mu m a fast close bout, showed that he was one of the elect in the 118-pound division by outwrestling the powerful Captain Forward of the Orange Some thought that Ellstrom's swift victory over Feldbein of Chicago two weeks ago was lucky, but the way he took over Berry, who is no mat grub, stamped him as a dependable for the time when the real opposition comes in the 126-pound class

Judd Downs Hordine

Rosenberg held a fat time advantage over Red Anderson, Orange 135-pounder, who is a "mountain of strength" as Charlie says it Roe, thrown into the 145-pound weight at the last minute, kept himself from a fall by the experienced Barry who was Syracuse's captain last year as a junior and runner-up in the 1930 intercollegiates.

Unusually difficult to hold down, Lorenzo got into the grasp of Carpenter, who was strong enough to make all of Mike's efforts at a break seem unenthusiastic

Ted Reybitz, 165-pounder, took the measman, McKeon, of Syracuse and put him on the mat to measure his shoulders in seven minutes for the only fall that meet Bud Byers, with a tumbling technique that keeps Charlie swallowing hard, stayed out of Ferris' grasp and hung up a creditable time advantage over the Hill's Heracles in the 175 class

Quiet and inconspicuous in practice, a lanky pale sophomore suddenly came to the fore by downing Jackson in the practice tryouts the other night So Judd stepped out on the mats Saturday and astonished everyone by making the 220-pound Hordine of Syracuse look like a blind walrus in a hurry

Lions Place Third in Millrose Relay Race

Despite a driving finish by the anchor man, Dunaway, Penn State was unable to overcome the lead of New York University and Boston College and finished third in the medley relay race at the Millrose games Saturday night.

Running in the last position, Dunaway received the baton about forty yards behind the Boston man. During his half mile run he was able to reduce the lead to about fifteen yards, but was unable to pass the second place team

FRESHMEN CAGERS WIN OPENER, 45-37

Seminary Quintet Bows Before Yearling Attack—Stocker Scores 17 Points

Outscoring its rivals by a wide margin in the first and third quarters, Coach Larry Conover's freshman basketball team made its initial bow of the season Saturday with a sparkling 45-to-37 triumph over Dickinson Seminary

The yearling cagers were ahead from the start, rolling up 16 points to 4 for the Seminary team in the first quarter, and leading 21-to-14 at halftime The visitors outscored the freshmen in the second period, 10-to-5, and again in the fourth quarter, 12-to-8, but were on the short end of an 18-to-11 count in the third period, and at no time threatened the winners.

Freed Leads Victors

Johnny Stocker and Al Mikelonis set the pace for the freshmen with 17 and 15 points respectively Mikelonis accounted for seven from the field and a foul goal, while Stocker registered six two-pointers and five from the foul line

It was Mikelonis who opened the scoring a few seconds after the game got under way. Raffell scored one from the foul line for the visitors and Gilliard, Stocker, Mikelonis and Kilmoyer rang up twelve points before Seminary scored its next points.

Stocker broke through in the second half to increase the freshman lead, collecting four field goals and a like number of fouls. Cummings, who took Gilliard's place at center, scored twice from the field in this half, and with the game almost over, Conover sent in Green, Donovan, Petrucka, and Taylor as substitutes at the forward and guard posts.

Louie Freed and Whitey Anderson kept the Seminary quintet in the running, the former caging six field goals and four from the foul line, while Anderson was good for eleven points.

"LUCKIES are my standby"

CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK
Cash in on Poppa's famous name? Not Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.! For months he labored as a five-dollar-a day "extra." Then he crashed into a part like a brick through a plate-glass window. Doug boxes like a pro, and we don't mean a palooka . . . he has muscles like a wrestler When undressing, he hangs his clothes on the chandelier. The box offices like his latest FIRST NATIONAL PICTURE, "UNION DEPOT." Doug has stuck to LUCKIES four years, but didn't stick the makers of LUCKIES anything for his kind words. "You're a brick, Doug"

"LUCKIES are my standby. I buy them exclusively. I've tried practically all brands but LUCKY STRIKES are kind to my throat. And that new improved Cellophane wrapper that opens with a flip of the finger is a ten strike."
