

Beta Theta Pi, Ramblers Compete for Cage Title

2 Quintets Will Battle In I.M. Court Finals Tomorrow Night

Two quintets that have fought their way to the top of the heap among sixty intramural teams will clash when Beta Theta Pi and the Penn State Ramblers meet on the Recreation hall floor at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

The trophy, a silver cup, is to be presented to the winning team immediately after the contest by Hugo Bezdek, Director of the School of Physical Education and Athletics.

Show Defensive Ability

Regular ten minute quarters will be played. The center floor, where all varsity games are held, will be used for the championship contest, according to Robert H. Beatty '33, who is manager of the tournament.

Gaumer at forward for Beta Theta Pi will have plenty of competition for scoring honors, since both Anthony and Doubles have shown ability to sink them from all angles for the Ramblers. Sigel at center for the Betas is also recognized as a constant scoring threat.

Brewster and Forbes have demonstrated themselves to be capable at the guard positions for the Ramblers, while Skemp and Irwin form a formidable defense for the Betas. Low scores by most of the opponents of the two teams are evidence of the guards' efficiency in preventing goals from the floor.

Bus Will Make Trip To Week-End Games

To accommodate followers of the Lion basketball team, a special bus will leave for Pittsburgh at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. Those making the trip will have the opportunity to see both the Carnegie Tech encounter tonight and the final game with Pitt tomorrow night, as the bus will not return to State College until 9 o'clock Sunday morning. A special reduced rate will prevail for the round trip.

Penn State court fans who stay at home can hear a running account of the Carnegie Tech game tonight by tuning in on Station WWSW, Pittsburgh. This station broadcasts all Plaid home games.

PREPARE FOR RIFLE MEET

With the varsity rifle team schedule completed last night against the University of Pittsburgh, Lieut. Lyman O. Williams, coach of the team, will begin a series of competitive matches to determine the six best men who will represent Penn State at the national Intercollegiate which will be held at Washington, D. C., next Saturday.

LIONS ENTER MAT INTERCOLLEGIATES

threw Lorenzo last week. Mike replaced Turnbull in this class by losing weight and heaving Alex about for a couple nights.

Back in the class where he really belongs, Ted Reybitz will plunge into a bitter scrap in the 155-pound weight where Beidel of Lehigh, H. Hooker of Princeton, captain, and Bancroft of Cornell, who defeated Ted this season, will battle for the medal.

Scarcely a look-in is hoped for with Turnbull wrestling over his weight against such doughty 165-pounders as Peck of Lehigh, defending champion, D. Hooker of Princeton, and Mann of Penn, who defeated Peck lately.

Defending champion in the 175-pound class is Penny of Cornell who tumbled Jackson in a dual meet. Shanker of Lehigh placed second last year and will battle again for a place. Jackson's great power is not enough to outweigh the superior skill of such wrestlers as these.

Cole dives into one of the most fiercely contested classes of the tournament, the unlimited, where the defending champion, Rotan of Yale, mixes with Hirschberg of Lehigh, Lundin of Cornell, and Sokolis of Penn. The Lions trailed in seventh place last year, but are training their eye on bigger game tomorrow.

mistaking that rare balance of flavor built up by Cross-Blending. You enjoy it in every fragrant puff!

Even the cigarette paper is different. Cleaner, whiter, tasteless . . . the purest that money can buy.

Listen, smokers . . . this is straight. You can't put taste in a cigarette . . . unless quality goes in, too.
