

VARSITY TRACKMEN TO FACE STRONG PITT TEAM HERE TOMORROW

Will Open Dual Meet Season Against Panther Cindermen

Cartmell Names Entries For Track, Field Competition

By JAMES M. SHEEN '31

Off to a good start with their first place in the sprint medley relay race in the Penn Relays last week, Penn State trackmen will seek to repeat their victory over Pitt last year, when they met a powerful Panther team in their first dual meet of the season on New Beaver field at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Considered to be a real track threat for the first time since 1917, the Pitt squad under Coach Frank Shea, will be on its mettle, having been nosed out by Ohio State in its first meet of the year. Lion runners swamped the Panthers 81-65 last year.

Cartmell Names Entries Dale, veteran sprint man, and Al-dich and Hanawalt, of last year's freshman team, will be Coach Nate Cartmell's choices in the 100-yard dash tomorrow. Dale, Hanawalt, and Rhodes will be the track mentor's choices to garner Blue and White points in the 220-yard dash.

The experienced Gutsavage and Band should have little trouble in the 440-yard dash, together with Rhodes, yearling runner last year. Dunaway, who ran the half mile in near record time in the recent Penn Relays, and Slesky, another veteran, are slated to enter the half mile race.

King To Run

Lion entries in the mile event will be Hughes and England, while Glassburn, cross country captain, and King captain-elect, will seek laurels in the two-mile race. Hill, letter-winner last year, Byers, and Jackson will compete in the 120-yard high hurdles, while Hill, Byers, Van Keuren and Jackson will enter the 220-yard low hurdles.

Nittany high jumpers will be Hammond, Palmer, O'Shea, and Stansland, while entries in the broad jump will be Happe, Biting, Palmer, and Strayland. Keishner and May, both numeral winners on the yearling squad last year, will be Penn State entries in the pole vault. Edwards, Cole, and Porter will throw the hammer, while Sigel and Adams will throw the discus.

Steve Hamas Signs For Role in Movie, Newspaper Reports

Movie producers who were looking for an outstanding athletic personality have signed Steve Hamas '29 for the role, a Philadelphia newspaper reports. Hamas, winner of eleven letters here and now training for a return match with Tommy Loughan Wednesday night in Philadelphia, was signed for the picture when he was on the Coast recently.

"Unless plans go amiss, Hamas will make his first picture shortly after he battles Tommy Loughan, former light-heavyweight champion, Wednesday night, May 11. He expects to start for the West soon after his return battle with the downtown Adams whom he knocked out in New York last January," the newspaper report states.

The picture, it is revealed, will be made with the idea of boosting the Olympic Games in Los Angeles this summer. Directors are considering a plot in which the star of the sports world does his stuff in his own inimitable manner, adding a bit of the romantic here and there.

NITTANY LINKSMEN TO OPPOSE GARNET

Will Meet Swarthmore Quartet In Year's Second Match Here Tomorrow

Prospects look for 1932 for Coach Rutherford's linksmen as they prepare to engage Swarthmore in the second match of the season on the College course at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Hitting the famous Lion stride, which took the Nittany team undefeated through three out of four years, when they took every match of the contest last Saturday, the golfers daily have been lowering their scores in an effort to be in top form for the Garnet meet.

Victors Formidable

Although the Garnet linksmen lost their match last week to the University of Delaware, they will offer a much greater threat to the Lion's hopes tomorrow, since instead of the six men participating last week, only the four highest ranking men will tee off.

Captain Fiedly Brand will again take the brunt of the enemy's assault, meeting Swarthmore's number one man, Captain Dave Lewis. But with Fiedly turning in the scores that he has the past week he should set the Nittany men well on their way to a second victory.

Nacios To Play

Bill Nacios, medalist in last week's match, will follow Brand, as the second Nittany representative, while "Chick" Musser has clinched the third position by reason of his steady play this far. Nacios was a regular last year, going through the season with but one defeat, whereas Musser made his debut Saturday, showing considerable promise.

The fourth man to complete the team has not been selected yet. Although Bill McKav stands out because of his good showing Saturday, Coach Rutherford may call on either Charley Hammond, Bill Stokels, or Bill Letzell. None of these men has been yet tested in intercollegiate competition and Bob is very likely to start one of them off tomorrow.

35 RUNNERS TO MEET PITT YEARLINGS HERE

Will Encounter Panthers Tomorrow On Beaver Field at 1 O'Clock

Freshmen trackmen will engage in their only dual meet of the season tomorrow afternoon when they meet the Pitt yearlings on New Beaver Field at 1 o'clock.

Probable entrants for the 1932 Lion trackmen will be Sigel, Fister, and Casterling in the 100-yard dash, and Gilmer and Glavern in the 120-yard high hurdles. Courtney, Valance, and Wetzel will compete in the 220-yard hurdles, and DeWire and Fister are slated to enter the 220-yard dash.

Entries in the 110-yard dash will be DeWire, and Stone, while half mile runners will be Alexander, Harvey, and Randembush, with Harvey also entered in the mile run. Davis, Casterling, Scholl, Kiezman, Johnson, Stratiff, Yoder, Stump, and Thomas are probable entries in the field events. The Lion cubs won from Pitt last year.

NETMEN TO MEET SUSQUEHANNA HERE

Team Strengthened for First Home Match at 3 O'clock On Varsity Courts

A tennis team considerably stronger than the one that lost to Penn last week, 8-10-1, will face Susquehanna netmen on the Varsity hall courts at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

"Men who were off form in the Penn match have shown great improvement this week, with better weather for practice," was Coach Dutch Schloss' comment on the condition of Lion netmen for tomorrow's match. "Despite the bleak outlook at the beginning of the season last week, the squad is rounding into form since the match at Philadelphia," he added.

Will Play Doubles

McKune, Hartzel, Shaeffer, Carter, and Wilson are the mentor's selection for the first five singles matches tomorrow, with Davis or Skillen filling the sixth place. Shaeffer and Wilson have improved considerably since the Quaker match, Coach Schloss said. Captain Ted McKune and Hank Hartzel will play the first doubles match. The second duo will be either Skillen-Carter or Wilson-Shaeffer. Reynolds and Davis, a new doubles team, may be given a trial at number three. The net coach has predicted a good showing against the Crusaders tomorrow.

25 Schools Enter Annual Interscholastic Meet Here

Kiski, Class A, Altoona, Class B, Favored in Track, Field Contest Tomorrow

Twenty-five schools are expected to enter the twenty-third annual interscholastic track and field meet here tomorrow. With twenty-one schools listed Wednesday, the last minute entries were expected to swell the list to the quarter century mark.

The competition will be divided into two classes, preparatory schools composing Class A, and high schools composing Class B. Three schools have already signified their intention of entering Class A competition, with seventeen high schools already listed in the Class B group.

Altoona high, winner of the annual meet for the past two years, is again favored to gain most of the honors this year. Still competition in that class will be offered by Bedford, Big Run, Cresson, Lock Haven, Maple-Newton, Norristown, Osgood Mills, Punxsutawney, Reedsville, Snowshoe, State College, Steelton, Union Vocational, and Williamsport. Dickinson Seminary, Kiski, and Wyoming Seminary are the three schools entered in the Class A competition this year, with Kiski, also winner of this class for the past two years, favored to repeat. Kiski last year won first places in the 120-yard high hurdles, the mile run, and the 220-yard low hurdles.

Both track and field trial events will begin at 9:00 o'clock tomorrow morning, with final in these events beginning at 1:00 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. First place in the scoring will count five points; second place, three points; third place two points, and fourth place, one point.

Prizes for the meet include a silver loving cup for the team garnering the highest number of points in each class, while the teams placing second will also be awarded silver loving cups.

"Why bring that up?"

—the cigarette trade asks!

FOR years there has been generally a striking avoidance of the word "inhale" in cigarette advertising. Why? Goodness only knows! For everybody inhales—knowingly or unknowingly! Every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

That's why it's all-important to be certain that your cigarette smoke is pure and clean—to be sure that you don't inhale certain impurities.

Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question—for it has solved the problem! It gives you the protection you want... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

"Fifty million smokers can't be wrong!" So whether you inhale knowingly or unknowingly—safeguard your delicate membranes!
