

Henn State Collegian

ESTABLISHED 1904

COMPLETE CAMPUS COVERAGE

Vol. 28, No. 62

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1932

PRICE FIVE CENTS

3 NITTANY BOXERS PICKED FOR FINAL OLYMPIC TRYOUTS

Stoop, Lewis, Updegrave Named On List of 17 Collegiate Representatives

WILL ENTER TRIALS AT SAN FRANCISCO IN JULY

Squad Chosen from 34 Ringmen Who Survived Preliminary Competition Here

Three Penn State boxers have been selected to represent the collegiate world in the final Olympic team tryouts to be held at San Francisco, July 20, 21 and 23, it was revealed here this week by Hugo Bezdek, director of the School of Physical Education and Athletics, and chairman of the National Collegiate Olympic boxing committee.

Captain David Stoop, 118-pounder, Al Lewis, welterweight, and Pete Updegrave, 160-pounder, are the Nittany Lion ringmen selected from the group of thirty-four tentatively named for the finals at the close of the preliminary tryouts held here in April. A total of seventeen boxers were named by the committee for the final tryouts.

Pete D'Allessandro, 112-pound champion from Temple University, will be the single college representative in his class, while Stoop is the only bantamweight included in the final selections. Al Wertheimer, Syracuse champion, and Mike Tardugno, Columbus University, are the 126-pounds named for the Pacific Coast trip.

Lightweights will compete in the finals are Bobby Goldstein, national champion from Virginia, and Bobby Taylor, Washington State, runner-up in the tournament here. Nicholas Del Genio, of Yale, and Elmo E Freyer, of Georgia Tech, have been named as 147-pound representatives in addition to Lewis.

In addition to Updegrave, four 160-pound mites are included in the selections of the committee. Dennis Flynn, colorful Loyola title-holder "Dynamite Joe" Moran of Syracuse, Daniel Pyne of Catholic University, and Bob Eldred of Washington State, are the others who will compete in the mid-weight class.

Theophil Wageman, rugged New Hampshire light heavyweight, who gained the national title here, and Fenton A. Gentry, University of Virginia, runner-up in the preliminary tryouts as a heavyweight, have been named as the 175 pound representatives, while Doyleless A. Hill, Tulane champion, is the only heavyweight selected for further trial.

Although the selections are final, whether all seventeen men will make the trip to the coast will depend upon the ability of the Olympic committee to provide funds for their expenses. Bezdek announced, Appointing as official boxing representative of the National Collegiate Athletic association, Bezdek may attend the final tryouts and Olympic games himself, he revealed.

BELL CHOSEN FOR 'BOW GIRL' HONOR

Senior Women Name Haller 'Slipper Girl,' Darlington 'Fan Girl' in Class Day Selections

Elizabeth C. Bell, president of the W. S. G. A. was awarded the highest honor among senior women, that of "Bow Girl," at a meeting of the graduating women Monday night.

Receiving second honor, M. Lydia Haller, president of the class, was selected as "Slipper Girl," while Louise Darlington was named "Fan Girl," third ranking position.

Elected to give the Mirror oration, H. Louise Marquardt will be "Mirror Girl," while Mary M. Wright will be "Class Poet."

Prom Chairman

ADAM B. BARNHART '33

JUNIORS TO DANCE AT PROM TONIGHT

Isham Jones' Band Will Furnish Rhythm—Herr '32 Wins Poster Contest

Concluding the all-College social program for the year, members of the Junior class will be hosts at the 1932 Junior Prom with Isham Jones and his recording orchestra furnishing the music in Recreation hall from 10 until 2 o'clock tonight.

Clyde D. Herr '32 received first prize in the poster contest conducted by the Prom committee while second honors were awarded to John H. Snyder '32. Donald A. Shelley '32 and Gilbert S. Shott '32 were given honorable mention by the committee of judges.

To Hold Promenade Chairman of the Prom committee, Adam B. Barnhart '33 will lead the traditional promenade of the class of 1933, which will take place at 11 o'clock. Only members of the third year class and their partners will take part in this annual feature.

Decorations of the hall was begun Wednesday and has transformed the bare gymnasium into an oriental flower scene, with colored electric lanterns, paintings and draperies of buff and gold and blue and gold. With the orchestra pit changed to the north side of the hall, refreshment booths have been erected in the west end for the convenience of the dancers. Catering service will also be offered in the fraternity booths, according to Barnhart.

Featuring a 16-piece band, Isham Jones will come here direct from Chicago, where he has been playing an engagement at the Cafe Winter Garden. He furnished music for the Indiana University Junior Prom last Friday and will play at Cornell a week from tonight.

TANGER WILL SPEAK SUNDAY

Dr. Jacob Tanger, of the history and political science department, will speak on "The Disarmament Conference" at the Friends' Meeting House at 10 o'clock Sunday.

Students Will Portray Mock Political Convention Monday

Cheers, Banners, Flags, Band, Favorite Sons To Feature Model 'Republicrat' Meeting in Auditorium

Cheers, banners, bunting, flags, placards, a band, favorite sons and all the other characteristics of a real national convention will be seen when the Republicrat national convention conducted entirely by students, opens in Schwab auditorium at 7.15 o'clock Monday night.

Three hundred and sixty-two delegates, all members of the thirteen political science classes, will sit in the main floor of the auditorium as representatives of the forty-eight states. Spectators will occupy the balconies.

Opening with the call to order, the prayer by the chaplain, and the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the sophomore band, the secretary will read the roll call. The chairman of the national committee will then make an introductory speech and present the temporary chairman for election by acclamation.

After the temporary chairman has addressed the convention and conducted

M'ANDREWS NAMED TRIBUNAL HEAD BY STUDENT COUNCIL

Bauder, Anderson, Mairs Chosen Senior, Junior Members Of Judicial Body

GROUP WILL DECIDE ON '35 SECRETARYSHIP TIE

Wood Appoints Memorial Day, Customs Committees at Meeting Tuesday

John L. McAndrews '33 was elected president of the Student Tribunal for next year at a meeting of the newly-formed Student Council Tuesday night.

Harry A. Bauder '33 was named senior member of the Tribunal from the council. Next year's junior members will be C. Wilson Anderson '34 and Kenneth H. Mairs '34. A decision on the secretaryship tie in the sophomore class will be made by the council at its next meeting.

Student Board Chosen Student Board members chosen from the council were A. Albert Blass '33, Herbert E. Longenecker '33, and William S. Bovard '34. Ex-officio members of the board are Dean of Men Arthur E. Warnock, and next year's three class presidents, John A. Wood '33, John N. Rathmell '34, and Walter G. Benner '35.

Wood, as ex-officio president of the council, appointed a committee composed of James B. Goyno '33, chairman, Robert E. Tschan '33, and Benner to consider changes in freshman customs. The committee will meet this week and report at the next meeting of the council.

Plan for Memorial Day Plans for a Memorial Day observance conducted by students will be drawn up by a committee composed of Harry M. Wilson '33, chairman, Longenecker, and Charles W. Shaeffer '33. Tentative plans call for ceremonies at the memorial tablet in the first floor lounge of Old Main and at the memorial trees on the front campus.

"Fraternities will be asked to cooperate by entering flags in the parade," Longenecker, Interfraternity council president, said "However, they will not be required to march as a group," he added.

RITENOUR CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF STUDENT HEALTH GROUP

Dr. Joseph P. Ritenour, College physician, was elected president of the newly formed Pennsylvania branch of the American Student Health association at the first meeting of the organization here Saturday.

More than 100 Pennsylvania colleges have become members of this group whose purpose is to aid college physicians in their problems concerning student health. Similar associations have been organized in a number of other states.

CURTIN DEFEATS CHRISTINE FOR 1931 VICE-PRESIDENCY

Margaret M. Curtin was elected vice-president of the junior class, defeating Fae E. Christine, 56 ballots to 53, in the re-elections held in McAllister Hall lobby on Wednesday to determine the junior officers that were elected in the previous election.

The office of social chairman was again undecided as K. Jane Lee and Betty B. Thompson each received 56 votes. The elections for this office will be held again in McAllister Hall lobby Wednesday.

FILER TO HEAD BLUE BAND

Paul W. Filer '33 was elected president of the Blue Band at a business meeting held Tuesday night. Other officers chosen were Emory E. May '33, secretary, and Harry Ebenbach '33, business manager.

Rice '32 Chosen as Class Valedictorian

Charles W. Rice '32 was selected as valedictorian of his class and Coleman Herpel '32 was named salutatorian at a committee meeting late yesterday afternoon.

Based on extra-curricular activities as well as scholarship, the selection was made by a committee composed of Hugh R. Riley '32, H. Aubrey Myers '32, class president, and Prof. John H. Frizzell, of the public speaking department.

HETZEL '33 GAINS 'BELL' EDITORSHIP

Board Chooses Frisch Business Manager—Names Staffs For Coming Year

Ralph D. Hetzel jr. '33 was elected editor of the 1933 Old Main Bell, literary magazine, and Emanuel Frisch '32 was named business manager at a meeting of the senior staff Tuesday night.

The managing editor for next year will be Joseph J. Rubin '33. Stocktor Helffrich '33 was named assistant editor while Jeanne G. Barwis '33 and Mildred F. Travis '33 were selected as assistant editor and art editor respectively.

Contributors Listed William W. Armstrong '33 was elected to serve as advertising manager and Elmer H. Miller '33, circulation manager. Junior business associates for next year will be John H. Powell '34, Philip S. Princenthal '34, Harry A. Staub '34, and Ernest D. Wilby '34.

The board of contributors for next year's magazine will consist of Raymond G. Heasley '33, Carl R. Ingling '33, Ralph K. Rockafellow '33, Elizabeth D. Nace '34 and David E. Sturry '34. The staff also voted in favor of a new budgeting system and plan for financial auditing for next year.

The final issue of the Bell this year is scheduled to appear the latter part of next week. Winners of the contest for the best short story and the best article submitted during the entire year will be announced in this issue.

TOPIC FOR PATTEE TALKS ANNOUNCED

Emeritus Professor Will Speak on Early American Literature in Series This Year

"Uncultivated Plots in American Literary History" will be the general topic for this year's lecture series by Dr. Fred Lewis Pattee, professor emeritus of American literature, Dr. William S. Dye, head of the English literature department, announced Wednesday.

The lectures will treat of American literature of the eighteenth century with attention to the European and American background. Dr. Dye said Opening Monday, May 23, and continuing for five days, the talks will be given at 4:10 o'clock daily in the Little Theatre, Old Main.

Serving as head of the English department at Penn State for thirty-four years, Dr. Pattee resigned in 1928 to accept a part-time position as special lecturer at Rollins College, Florida. He is expected to arrive from the South Friday of next week. Dr. Pattee is the author of numerous books dealing with literature and kindred subjects. He is recognized as an authority on Philip Freneau, eighteenth century American poet.

DRAMA COURSES LISTED FOR SUMMER SESSION

Will Include Production, Stagecraft Curricula, Bulletin Reveals Seven courses in the drama, including courses in stagecraft and play production as well as others in the study of contemporary and Shakespearean drama, will be offered students at the 1932 Summer Session, according to a bulletin recently issued.

The courses in stagecraft and dramatic production will take up the technical problems connected with play producing in the professional and amateur theatre and the principles of acting and directing, the bulletin says. Students will act in and direct several plays.

A composite course will trace the development from romantic themes and methods in early nineteenth century drama to works of more recent times. Six members of the faculty will teach the course, each lecturing on the drama of different nations. Visiting faculty members specializing in dramatics will teach several of the courses.

Gamma Phi Beta To Install Laodelphia Next Week-end

Local Organization Will Become First Chapter in Pennsylvania of National Social Sorority Founded 1874

Gamma Phi Beta, national social sorority, will install Laodelphia, local group, as its Alpha Upsilon chapter here next week-end. The new chapter will be the first in Pennsylvania and the forty-second of the organization in the country.

Laodelphia was organized January 16, 1928 and was recognized by the Senate committee on student welfare on March 5, 1929. The name, meaning "common sisterhood," was suggested by Dr. Robert E. Dengler, of the classical languages department and Dr. Carl E. Maquardt, College examiner, while the pin was designed by Mrs. William S. Hoffman.

The Panhellenic scholarship cup for the highest average of any women's group on the campus was awarded to Laodelphia this year. Last year the group ranked fourth in the scholarship rating. Gamma Phi Beta has forty-one active chapters and fifty-four alumnae chapters and associations. It was founded at Syracuse University on November 11, 1874 and was the first Greek letter organization known as a sorority.

Present members of Laodelphia include Miss Jean D. Amberson, Mrs. Leonard A. Doggett, Mrs. Anne Fishburn, Miss Geraldine Cook, Heloise Fye '28, Gladys Quigg '28, Kathryn Rishell '31, Helen M. Patton '32, Kathiyne M. Strouse '32, and A. Irene Zerby '32. Junior and sophomore members are Ruth E. Behers '33, Lillian E. Bright '33, Margaret E. Fahringer '33, Marie S. Fahringer '33, Sarah A. Ferree '33, C. Elizabeth Jones '33, Elsa P. Kaiger '33, Christine H. Lambert '33, Catherine E. Mahoney '33, Kathryn H. Moyer '33, Ruth L. Stover '33, Charlotte L. Summers '33, Helen A. Wood '33, Nellie L. Matile '34, J. Marie Prather '34, and Viola V. Van Noy '34.

THESPIANS OFFER SHOW TOMORROW

Club To Open 1932 Season With 'We the People,' Musical Satire on Politics

Offering "We the People," a musical satire on American politics, the Thespian club will open its 1932 season in Schwab auditorium tomorrow night at 7 o'clock.

The show, a takeoff on a current musical comedy, follows the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta style, with song and dialog each receiving major attention. The book and lyrics for the show were written by J. Ewing "Sock" Kennedy '26, director of the production, Hummel Fishburn '22, and Kenneth Holderman '31.

Featuring Musical Numbers Edwin S. Malméd '33 and H. Grace Baer '34 are cast in the leading roles with Robert C. Ayers '32 and Luellie L. Laskey '35 playing the leading minor parts. James S. Norris '32, William P. Hippler '32, James F. Cochran '32, Joseph Lachman '33 and William B. Edwards, jr. '35 also play important minor male roles while Helen L. Crozier '32 takes the third major feminine role.

Featuring the galaxy of entertaining musical numbers are "Who Is the Lucky Girl To Be?" "Cast Your Ballot for Love," "It Makes No Matter," and "Hello, Good Morning," by the ensemble and "Scientific Part of View," sung by Ayers and Laskey. "E Pluribus Unum," and "What Is the Difference?" solo numbers by Malméd and "Broken Blossom," and "Jilted" by Crozier, are other featured musical numbers.

Fishburn, Holderman, Leon Cohen '31, Willard E. Fitchhorn '33 and Nevin F. Decker '34 collaborated in writing the music for the show while the orchestration was scored by Fishburn, Frank F. Morris '31 and Simon Krudo, jr. '33.

Who's Dancing

Tonight Junior Prom Recreation Hall (Subscription) Isham Jones Tomorrow Night Alpha Sigma Phi Paul Zimmerman Beta Theta Pi and Delta Upsilon at Beta Theta Pi (Closed) Ted Bronaugh Delta Sigma Phi and Alpha Chi Sigma at Delta Sigma Phi (Closed) Vanity Tau Delta Tau Delta (Closed) Black Cat Delta Theta Sigma at Centre Hills Country Club (Closed) Johnny Martin Phi Delta Theta (Closed) Joe Yammucci Phi Kappa Nu (Closed) Blue and White Phi Kappa Sigma (Closed) Bill Bolton Phi Gamma Delta and Sigma Nu at Sigma Nu (Closed) Joe Nesbitt Theta Upsilon Omega (Closed) Johnny Lindenau

MOSER '33 NAMED A. A. PRESIDENT IN SECOND BALLOTING

Defeats John L. McAndrews by 97 Votes—Carries 1 of 6 Schools To Win

739 STUDENTS EXPRESS PREFERENCES AT POLLS

Fencing Secures Intercollegiate Rating as Dunaway Gains Secretarial Post

Walter C. Moser '33 amassed a total of 418 votes to defeat John L. McAndrews, '33 for the Athletic association presidency in the second and final ballot Wednesday. Moser won by a margin of 97 votes, McAndrews gaining 321 of the ballots cast.

The vector carried four of the six schools, McAndrews gaining the highest total at the Liberal Arts and Agriculture polls. Moser took the Education School by a margin of 15 votes and the Mineral Industries School by 22 ballots.

713 Votes Cast In both the Engineering and Chemistry Schools, the new president gained a majority of 64 votes. The vote at the Liberal Arts poll was 97 to 107 in favor of McAndrews while 55 votes were cast for Moser in the Agriculture School as compared with 113 for McAndrews.

Seven hundred and thirty-nine ballots were cast in Wednesday's voting while 743 voters expressed themselves in the first election Monday. These figures are only slightly below the total number of ballots cast in last year's Athletic association voting.

Fencing Recognized Although 117 of those voting in the first ballot Monday did not signify whether they were in favor of recognizing fencing as an intercollegiate sport, the amendment was passed by a bare margin of four votes. A two-thirds majority was needed to make the change in the Athletic association constitution.

Wayland F. Dunaway '33 defeated Fred E. Kane '33 to gain the secretaryship in Monday's voting. At the same time, Jesse H. Brewster '33, John O. Gummshaw '33, Edwin K. McMinn '33, and John R. Napoleon '33 were eliminated from the presidential race.

Positions on the junior business staff were granted by Carl M. Batton, Samuel J. Cahoon, John G. Guild, John E. Ryan, Morris Samorelin, Albert T. Stoltz, Anna M. Dotterer, Frances Keim, and Josephine S. Stetler, and John T. Davies.

ALUMNUS TO TALK IN CHAPEL SUNDAY

Rev. Kroll '17, New Jersey Minister, Will Use 'Penn State Spirit' As Address Subject

Choosing "The Penn State Spirit" as his subject, the Rev. William E. Kroll '17, pastor of the Arlington Avenue Presbyterian church, East Orange, N. J., will address chapel-goers and their Junior Prom guests in Schwab auditorium at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

Reverend Kroll entered Penn State in 1913. Besides being lecturer of his class, he was an associate editor of the COLLEGIAN, a member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet and an associate editor of the 1917 Lu Vie.

After graduation the chapel speaker enlisted in the third officers training camp and served in the Infantry for over a year. In addition to teaching school for several years, Reverend Kroll was secretary of the Wesleyan University Christian association.

The Penn State alumnus also took graduate work at Union Theological Seminary, Rochester, N. Y., and Columbia University. Before assuming his present position, he traveled for two years as representative of the National Student Council of the Y. M. C. A.

EXHIBITION OF STUDENT ART OPENS IN MAIN ENGINEERING

Sponsored by Pi Gamma Alpha, honorary architectural fraternity, an exhibition of oil paintings, water colors, lithographs, half tones, pen and pencil sketches, and pastels opened yesterday in Room 305 Main Engineering building.

The exhibit, which represents the work of thirteen senior and junior students in the architecture department, will continue for one week.