

SOCCERMEN BEGIN DAILY PRACTICES

Coach Bill Jeffrey To Rely On 7 Lettermen For Nucleus Of Booter Squad

By WILLIAM B. PROTHERO '34
With their opening contest with Lafayette nearly three weeks away, Nittany soccer aspirants are working out daily under Coach Bill Jeffrey on the practice field south of the golf course.

Seven lettermen will form the nucleus of this season's team. Captain Al Daykin, Hank Hartzler, Shorty Edwards, Chick Musser, Al Debonis, Eddie Knecht, and Frank Evans will get into action this week. Bradford and Holmes will probably be unable to rejoin the booters.

New Candidates Expected

Six additional upperclassmen, Manwaring, Lindquist, Young, Altemus, Hansen, and Tully will challenge the lettermen for their positions, and a flock of sophomore candidates will afford material for the booters' mentor.

Fletcher, Wolf, Sigel, Graham, Finzel, and Hallman are among the 1935 men who show promise. Other aspirants who will arrive for registration are expected to turn out for practice today or tomorrow.

Jeffrey's team has finished the last four seasons without a defeat, and have lost only two matches since 1926. A 2-to-2 deadlock with Lehigh and scoreless ties with Syracuse and Haverford were the only contests in last year's schedule in which the Lion booters did not annex victories.

2 TENNIS TOURNAMENTS WILL OPEN THURSDAY

Freshmen, Upperclassmen To Enter Racquet Competition For Cups

Opening brackets of two tennis tournaments to determine the all-College singles championship will be played Thursday, according to Manager Charles A. Landis '33. Freshmen will compete in one tourney and men of the three upper classes in the other.

The two winners of the freshman tournament will engage the victors in the upper class group, and the winners of these matches will meet for the all-College cup. A cup will also be awarded the freshman champion.

Men who want to enter either tournament must sign up at the Student Union desk before tomorrow night and pay an entry fee of 50 cents, Landis said. Varsity racquetmen are eligible to enter the competition.

PERIOD OF REGISTRATION WILL TERMINATE TODAY

are the same as last year's, except those used by new students. The freshman registration card contains an additional section for the speech test.

Transfers Increase

Late freshman registration is caused by late acceptance of applicants for admission by the College, or changes in curriculum on the part of matriculants prior to registration, it was explained.

Graduate school registrants and transfer students will probably number about the same as first semester last year, according to Dr. Carl E. Marquardt, College Examiner.

"Actually we have had more applicants than last year," the College Examiner said, speaking of students

Verdant Freshmen, Contrary to Law Of Nature, May Smoke During Year

Contrary to the law of natural science which says that green things don't burn, the 1936 crop of verdant freshmen, embellished by green dinks, may smoke this year.

Green dinks are returning to the campus after an absence of two years. Freshmen entering in the Class of 1933 were the last to wear the verdant skull caps, for the present juniors assumed the blue dink with the white button in 1930, followed by the Class of 1935 last year.

Breaking a tradition which was well over a quarter of a century old, smoking in public by freshmen is no longer prohibited. This anti-tobacco regulation was stricken from the list of customs by Student Council last May.

This year's freshmen will not be required to dig into their trousers pockets and fumble in their vest pockets for matches when accosted by upperclassmen desiring a light. Nor will the present plebe need to worry about breaking rules regarding walking on the grass in town or frequenting the vicinity of the tribunal, for these have also been removed.

The 1936 assortment of green goods is evidently much harder than previous crops for the moguls have seen fit to permit freshmen to seek the burning light of a maiden's eyes at least three months earlier than before.

13 APPOINTED TO COLLEGE FACULTY

Professors, Instructors, Graduate Assistants, Research Men Named in List

Thirteen new appointments to the College faculty affecting the present academic year are listed in a statement from the President's office.

Henry I. Baldwin has been appointed as instructor in forestry, while Glenn A. Burgener will assume the position of research assistant in petroleum research. Doris M. Jeffery will be a graduate assistant in home economics, while Earl E. Leslie and Gilbert F. Loeb are new assistant professors of physical education.

James H. Lum has been made a research assistant in fuel technology, and Mary R. Ormrod an assistant in home economics extension. Anna F. Paschall is a new graduate assistant in home economics, William C. Sechrist, an instructor in forestry, and Carlyle J. Stehman, a research assistant in chemistry.

Lt. Col. Russell V. Venable is the new military commandant, while Nelson S. Walke has taken the position of assistant professor of physical education. Nora E. Wittam has been appointed as an instructor in German and Lawrence Wolcott as an assistant in botany.

transferring to Penn State from other institutions. "In addition to the usual number of transfers, we are getting those that want to transfer because of financial reasons from other institutions where the fees are higher.

"A number of men and women are entering the Graduate School that would not if they had jobs. Most of these are seeking advanced degrees in education. Normally they would stay out of College a year or two to earn some money before returning to continue their studies," Dr. Marquardt explained.

P. S. C. A. TO HOLD SERIES OF TALKS

College Registrar Will Discuss 'Why Students Flunk Out' On Thursday Night

"Why Students Flunk Out" will be discussed by William S. Hoffman, College registrar, in the first of four talks sponsored by the Penn State Christian association in the Hugh Beaver Room, Old Main, at 7 o'clock Thursday night.

Mr. Hoffman will also lead discussions with students on what determines success in College, the grades versus success question, and student-faculty relations. The association has given special consideration to the problems of the first-year student in planning the series of talks.

Warnock To Speak

Arthur R. Warnock, dean of men, will lead a discussion on "Activities" as the second of the series at 7:45 o'clock next Wednesday night. In his talk he will describe the relative value and worth of various student enterprises.

For the third talk on Wednesday, October 5, Willard P. Lewis, College librarian, will lead a discussion on the general topic of "Books in College." He will take up the function of books and literature in attaining success and will also discuss the selection of suitable reading material.

As the concluding talk of the series, Harry W. Seamans, general secretary of the Christian association, will speak on "Religion," Wednesday, October 12. The application of religion to College life will be the main hinge of this final discussion.

JUDGING TEAM TO COMPETE

The Penn State livestock judging team, composed of Harriett R. Henrie '33, Byron B. Konhaus '33, Olive A. Porter '33, Frank A. Reed '33, Hudson H. Roe '33, Ray D. Shoemaker '33, and Martin L. ### REIST SHOOTS MOLE-IN-ONE ON CENTRE HILLS COURSE

Prof. Henry N. Reist, of the department of agricultural extension, joined the hole-in-one select circle of golfers with a perfect shot on the Centre Hills country club course recently.

Playing with a No. 5 iron, Professor Reist scored his ace on a 135 yard hole, known as the "baby hole" to club members. The hole yields an ace about once a season.

COLLEGE EXHIBITS CATTLE

A group of ten steers is being exhibited by the College at the Eastern States Exposition at Springfield, Mass., this week, according to Prof. Franklin L. Bentley, head of the department of animal husbandry.
