

Between the Lions with The Sports Editor

Our Opponents

Waynesburg-Muskingum

Against last year's undefeated Ohio conference champions, we're afraid Frank Wolf's Yellow Jackets don't stand much of a chance. The game will probably be close, but the Muskies should be on top by at least a touchdown when the final whistle blows tonight.

Syracuse-Clarkson

The season's opener should be just a breeze for the powerful Orange eleven Vic Hanson has developed on the Hill. The score will depend on long Hanson lets the regulars in, but, regulars or no regulars, Syracuse should end on top by at least four touchdowns.

Colgate-St. Lawrence

Colgate should have even an easier time against St. Lawrence than its neighboring rivals have against their opening foe. The final score will be in double figures and they'll all be on the Maroon side of the ledger.

Sewanee-South Carolina

Although our southern opponent is believed to have its best team in recent years, they are hardly the equal of their strong Southern Conference opponents. Check one up for the South Carolina eleven, but watch for a surprise from Sewanee.

This and That

Coop French is still raving about his new "pro" eleven, The Trenton All-Stars, which will include such former Nittany luminaries as Kaplan, Edwards, Zorella, Batdorf, Prevost, DeCindis, and Hamilton. . . . Coop promises a game against a Williamsport team. . . . Dex Very had his first clash with the new grid rules as referee of the Duquesne-Westminster game last Friday. . . . And then there's the smart freshman who sold a fellow classmate a seat in the west stands for the practice game tomorrow. . . .

Higgins Seeks Additional Candidates for Grid Team

Fred Kane Added to Injury List—Squad Shows Improvement in Week's Practices.

By GEORGE A. SCOTT '81

Penn-State's 1982 football machine is slowly but surely finding itself as some thirty-five candidates for the eleven work out daily on New Beaver field.

There is still room for improvement, but nevertheless definite progress is being made, and a week more of intensive practice should enable Coach Bob Higgins to select the best possible first team line-up from the squad to represent the Nittany Lion in the opening game with Lebanon Valley.

With injuries threatening to deplete his squad and the hope that some new material of note may be uncovered, Higgins has issued a plea to every student for more candidates for the team.

"We'll give everyone who comes out a chance to play," said Bob. "We have plenty of extra uniforms for varsity candidates and we'll welcome any student who wants to play football."

Kane Injured

Injuries continue to haunt the squad. Fred Kane, veteran guard, is the latest member of the injured list, receiving a broken nose in Tuesday's scrimmage session. The injury will not seriously hinder him, however, and he is expected to return to action early next week. He left yesterday for his home in Philadelphia where he will have the nose treated.

Tony Bedoski, Johnny Grimshaw and Harold Rosenberg are still on the disabled squad, as is Jesse Brewster, running mate of Grimshaw, who is suffering from a bruised hip that prevents him from running. Wants-house and Harper are two others who have missed practice on account of minor ailments this week. Mikelonis, who missed last Saturday's game, returned to action Monday.

Collins Absent

The absence of Captain "Spike" Collins, who left last Saturday for Youngstown, Ohio, to attend the funeral of his father, is another serious handicap to Higgins in moulding a varsity team, but "Spike" is expected

Varsity To Oppose Freshman Gridmen

Students will be welcome at a practice football game on New Beaver field at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon when the varsity eleven tackles a team selected from the freshman squad, Head Coach Bob Higgins announced yesterday. The contest will give the followers of the varsity an opportunity to get an advance idea of the 1982 eleven before the opening game with Lebanon Valley next Saturday.

to return today or tomorrow to ease that trouble.

On the bright side of the picture has been the continued improvement of Buck McKee as an end, the return of "Doc" Conn, first string quarterback last fall, to action, and the work of Mikelonis, Cole, Woolbert and Bill Lohr. Woolbert was shifted from center to tackle this week.

Just enough Turkish — that's another reason you Enjoy them more

Turkish tobacco is the
"seasoning" in Cigarettes

THE difference between food that tastes just right and food that doesn't is often a matter of proper seasoning.

It's the same with a cigarette. Too much Turkish tobacco like too little will often spoil the fine balance of mildness and flavor
you want in your smoke.

Chesterfield's milder, better taste is the result of blending and cross-blending high-grade Domestic tobaccos with just the right amount of spicy aromatic Turkish. That's why Chesterfields are milder, why they taste better.
