ESTABLISHED 1904

Vol. 29, No. 9

STATE COLLEGE, PA., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1932

PRICE FIVE CENTS

All-College Average Reaches Mark of 1.40

Triangle Heads Men's National Groups With 1.62

LAST SEMESTER REPORT RELEASED BY HOFFMAN

Alpha Chi Omega Tops Women's Fraternities-Sigma Phi Alpha Leads Locals

Marking an increase of .13 over the previous semester's grade of 1.27, the all-College average for the second semester last year was 1.40, according to grade statistics released from the Registrar's office. This is the highest the all-College mark has been in several years.

fraternity list with a 1.62 average, a second consideration in the award ing of sixteen White and Carnegies cholarships, according to Dr. Wil liam S. Dye jr., chairman of the Sen followed by Sigma Tau Phi with 1.58. Phi Delta Theta with 1.57, Phi Sigma Delta with 1.55, and Delta Theta Sigma with 1.51. Alpha Zeta, men's so- ate ards. cial and professional agricultural fraternity, lead all campus groups with ment regarding the new plan for awarding the scholarships, many stu-dents gained the impression that need was to be the sole basis for determin-ing the awards, providing the ap-plicants ranked in the first tenth of

Alpha Chi Omega Leads Sigma Phi Alpha secured a 1.49 mark, and the highest average among the men's local fraternities for the Sigma was second with 1.48, followed by Elaia with 1.44, Tau Sigma Phi with 1.42, and Omega Epsilon with Women's nationals were headed by Alpha Chi Omega with a 1.88 aver-age. Next in order were Delta Gamma with 1.78, Kappa Kappa Gamma much information as possible about with 1.71, and Kappa Alpha Theta the student, especially with regard to and Gamma Phi Beta with 1.69 each. financial matters."

Co-eds Surpass Men

Women again surpassed the men in the all-College rating, securing an average of 1.61 as compared to 1.36 for the men. Non-fraternity women were slightly below the all-College mark for women, averaging 1.60; while non-fraternity men surpassed the all-College mark for men with a

Pi Kappa Phi seniors, Theta Chi Pi Kappa Phi seniors, Theta Chi juniors, Acacia sophomores, and Tri-angle freshmen led their respective classes in the men's national frater-nity division. Corresponding posi-tions were secured in the men's local group by Elaia seniors, Sigma Phi Alpha juniors, Tau Sigma Phi sopho-mores, and Alpha Phi Sigma fresh-men.

Among the women's national fra-ternities, highest class rankings were secured by Kappa Kappa Gamma sen-iors, Alpha Chi Omega juniors, and Alpha Omicron Pi sophomores.

(Complete List on Page Four)

PLANS COMPLETED FOR HOMECOMING

Varied Program To Feature Visit O Over 1,500 Alumni Visitors

ACTS IN FAVOR OF TOUCH GRID GAME Scholastic Leaders

Men's Nationals

Men's Locals

16 TO GET AWARDS

ON GRADES, NEEDS

Best Prepared, Most Worthy

Students Will Receive Aid

Of Scholarships

Scholarship will be first and need

committee on academic stand their respective classes in scholarship

The student who is obliged to spend considerable time working to defray his expenses, but nevertheless attains a high scholastic standing, might do even better if allowed to devote more time to his studies. The new basis for awarding the scholarships gives this type of student a better chance, according to the Senate committee

SEAMANS TO GIVE LECTURE

AT HUGH BEAVER MEETING

"Religion" will be the subject of a discussion led by Harry W. Seamans, general secretary of the Penn State Christian association, for first year students in the Hugh Beaver Room.

Old Main, at 7 o'clock tomorrow night

Sigma Phi Alpha....

Alpha Phi Sigma ______

Triangle _______ 1.62
Sigma Tau Phi ______ 1.58
Phi Delta Theta ______ 1.57

Formulates Rules for Governing New Competition-Crown Selected Manager

INTRAMURAL BOARD

GROUP ADVISES AWARDS TO STIMULATE INTERES

Jnits Must Deposit Dollar Fe At Recreation Hall Office By Tomorrow Night

Preceded by arguments both pro and on, a decision in favor of touch foot all for intramural competition this fall was made by the Intramural Board at a meeting Friday afternoon. A set of rules regulating the sport was also drawn up at the meeting.

was also drawn up at the meeting. William H. Crown jr. '34, was named as touch football manager while the cross country contests will be in charge of William A. Anderson '34. The horseshoes tournament manager will be selected this week.

Letter Awards Recommended Intramural competition will begin n Monday. To enter the touch football and cross country tournaments, fraternities and groups should make a deposit of one dollar at the School of Physical Education office in Rec-reation hall by tomorrow night. For the horseshoes tournament, a deposit of twenty-five cents is required by the

To stimulate interest in intramural to stimulate interest in intrahumatic contests, a recommendation favoring the award of minor letters to sea-sonal sports managers and members of the Board was passed. Before be-coming effective, the resolution has to be approved by the student body.

Gives Better Chance

"The scholarship is a reward for doing well and an incentive to do better." Dr. Dye said: "The thing we're to particularly seeking in the use of the application this year is to get as a much information as possible about the student, especially with regard to the student to t ition of spiked shoes. Each game will consist of four twelve minute periods with a five-minute rest between halves. In case of a tie, five-minute extra periods will be played.

Extra Downs Permitted According to the rules, tackling of the ball carrier, kicker, or passer is entirely prohibited, while strenuous blocking is permitted only in the line of play. The man carrying the ball is down when touched by an oppon-ent's hand; scoring will be the same as in regular football.

Six downs is permitted instead of the orthodox four. Every man on the team is eligible for a pass made from any point in back of the line of scrimmage and there is no penalty for two successive incompleted passes. Only three time-outs are permitted for each team during a half.

Kicking, except drop kicks or place kicks for field goals, is not permitted nan discussion series sponsored by he Christian association. Last Wed-

Student Leaders Endorse Holding of Outdoor Rally

Wood '33, Beidler '33, Director Bezdek Cite commodations arranged for the returning members through the alumn office in Old Main.

Among the features being planned for the week-end is the annual varsity dinner which will be held at the Center HIIIs G. Beidler '33, women's sense that the only dime during the, year. Phyllis G. Beidler '33, women's sense that the only dime during the, year.

Priday night. Details of the program for the dinner have not been made public as yet.

Cheerleaders of former years will lead the students and alumni in an atthitied the students body consciousness. College spirit as participation of women possible, as the students body consciousness. Schwab auditorium at 8 o'clock the dinner have not been made night. The Blue Band, under the direction of Bandmaster Wilfred, and that it will give an opportunity same night. The Blue Band, under the direction of Bandmaster Wilfred, O. Thompson, will provide muste and lead the students of the support of the entire students of "Neckrich" of the support of the entire students of "Victory" and the "Nittany Lion."

Among the features being planned for the week-end is the annual variety in class president, favors the pressident, favors the pressident, favors the pressident of the students of the students of the program of the students of the students of the program of the students of the program of the students of the students of the program of the students of the students of the program of the students of the pr

November 12 Chosen As Footbáll Holiday

Selection of November 12, the day of the Temple game at Phila-delphia, as the annual football half-holiday was approved by Student Board at its meeting yesterday afternoon.

The Blue Band will accompany the team to Philadelphia, Neil M. Fleming, graduate manager of athletics, announced yesterday. This is the only football trip the band will make this fall.

FREE ALL-COLLEGE DANCE ANNOUNCED

Student Union To Sponsor First Social Event of Season

lay. Benjamin L. Wise '33' has been

Baker Named Adviser

oridge tournament.

The committee in charge of the tourneys includes William H. Lenker 133, chairman, Harriet R. Henrie 138, and Richard M. Shoop 133. Plans are also underway for a Student Union reception in Old Main to assist students in getting better acquainted.

An address by Dr. James N. Rule, five years to stude the loaning of $24 five years to stude the loanin dents in getting better acquainted, Maxwell has announced.

CHAPEL AUDIENCE HEARS DR. CRANE

Scranton Pastor Compares Olympi To Life-Delivers Address At Vesper Service

Describing the Olympic games and the atmosphere surrounding them as the perfect state of humanity to live

Eim Park Methodist church, Seranton addressed the Dads' Day chapel audience in Schwab auditorium Sunday morning.

Dr. Crane, speaking to a capacity crowd, explained that the biggest attraction to the games is that to the competitors the goal is always clear, the track always in perfect condition, and the judges always fair. In life, he added, conditions are the reverse, handicaps mar our path, we rarely know where we are heading, and the going is very rough, not to mention the fact that the judges are at all times extremely partial.

That the games were not only a morning conferences on county library problems, divisional meetings and round table discussions concerning college and university libraries, hospital in the morning, the time for convening was changed to the afternoon for interest to the visiting librarians will be on display at the Nittany Lion and in the College library. "Books for Youth" and the Nittany Lion and in the College library will be located in the Nittany Lion and in the College library will be located in the Nittany Lion, while the display of the fifty books of the year selected on the basis of their typographical makeup to the meeting Saturday morning.

Because of the inability of parents to the instellation the merting in the morning, the time for convening was changed to the afternoon for interest to the visiting librarians will be on display at the Nittany Lion and in the College library. "Books for Youth" and the Lubrarians will be on display at the Nittany Lion and in the College library. Books for Youth" and the proposition of the same changed to the afternoon for interest to the visiting librarians will be on display at the Nittany Lion and in the College library. "Books for Youth" and the Lubrarians will be on display at the Nittany Lion and in the College library. "Books for Youth" and the Michael and the Michael and the Nittany Lion, while the display of the fifty books of the year selected on the basis of their very known or the meeting of the meeting on the meeting on the

STATE LIBRARIANS TO CONVENE HERE 3 DAYS THIS WEEK

Dr. Carl W. Hasek Will Address Convention's First Session On Thursday Night

DR. ROBERT E. DENGLER SCHEDULED AS SPEAKER

Program for Saturday Morning Includes Outdoor Sports, Tours of Campus

Meeting on the College campus for During November

Student Union will sponsor a free all-College dance on November 18 on 19, Robert M. Maxwell '33, head of the organization, amnounced yesterday.

Line first time, between 200 and 250 librarians from all sections of the State will gather here Thursday for the thirty-second annual convention of the Pennsylvania Library association, to be held Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at the Nittany Lion.

Dr. Carl W. Hasel head and the Nittany Lion. the first time, between 200 and 250

partment of economics, will deliver the opening address of the convention at a dinner session Thursday night. President Ralph D. Hetzel will extend Benjamin L. Wise! 33 has been mamed chairman of the dance committee, which also includes Angelin Bressler '33 and Paul A. Filer '33. Contrary to plans announced last welcome to the visitors and Miss week, there will be no Student Loan Fund benefit performance on Alumni Day, Wise stated.

Baker Named Advisor.

Herbert Koepp-Baker, of the department of public speaking, has been selected faculty adviser of Student Union to replace Prof. M. M. Harris, who has been granted leave of absence by the College to visit Philadelphia libraries during the first semester.

To further interest in Old Main as more of a student center, the Union has planned chess and checker tournaments, and a non-fraternity bridge tourney. The winner of the non-fraternity meet will compete in a playoff with the winner of the fraternity bridge tournament.

The committee in charge of the ment of public instruction, will featment of the state department of public instruction, will featment of the state department of public instruction, will featment of the state department of public instruction, will featment of the state department of the state department of public instruction, will featment of the state department of the state department of the state department of public instruction, will featment of the state department of the state department of the state department of public instruction, will featment of the state department of public instruction, will featment of the state of the state department of the state department of the state of their friends will be guests of the College library at an afternoon tea in the Home Economics building from 4:30 to 6 o'clock Friday afternoon, while Saturday morning will be spent in outdoor recreation. Golf, tennis, a motor trip to Penn's Cave, visits to the College farms, and tours of the campus will be offered the visitors a this time. Willard P. Lewis, Colleg-librarian, is chairman of the commit-tee on arrangements for the conven

Book Exhibits Planned

the atmosphere surrounding them as the perfect state of humanity to live in, Dr. Henry H. Crane, pastor of the Elm Park Methodist church, Scranton, addressed the Dads' Day chapel audience in Schwab auditorium Sunalie discussions concerning college and incoming them as the perfect state of humanity of the sessions included on the three-day program will be devoted to conferences on county library probability of the property of the sessions included on the three-day program will be devoted to conferences on county library probability of the sessions concerning college.

Students Will Stage Rally Tomorrow Night

Rally Speaker

PARENTS SET NEW GOAL AT MEETING

Plan To Secure $10,000 Fund for Students

Accumulation of a $10,000 revolving loan fund for needy students will be the goal of the Penn State association of parents, as a result of their annual meeting here Saturday.

Proposed by Dean of Men Arthur R. Warnock, the new plan calls for the loaning of $2,000 every year for five years to students, who are expected to pay back the loans after graduation. The principle paid back by the persons receiving the loans can then be put back in the fund to

Davis Named President

H. D. Davis, of Drexel Hill, was elected president of the association for the coming year, with J. F. Torrance, Greensburg, chosen as vice-president and Prof. J. Orvis Keller reelected secretary-treasurer. New directors of the organization include Mrs. F. W. Haller, Mrs. M. Elizabeth Olewine, H. C. Herpel, D. K. Sloan and A. E. Lar-

Speakers at the meeting in Schwah auditorium Saturday included Dean Warnock, and John E. Wood '33, sen-ior class president, who spoke of the student's part in the Loan fund, while Mrs. F. W. Haller, president of the association last year, talked on the arent's viewpoint.

Because of the inability of parent

Over 1,500 Alumni Visitors
On October 21-23

Alumni of Penn State will convene here on October 21, 22, and 23, to celebrate the thirteenth annual Homecoming Day, arrangements for the week-end activities being directed by Edward K. Hibshman, secretary of the Alumni Association.

With notices of the Homecoming sent to the alumni of the current issue of the Alumni News, over 1,500 graduates are expected to return to the College. The necessity of autors are expected to return to the College for this year's celebration, and that it would bring the student body in the four classes of the Homecoming Day, arrangement for the week-end activities being directed by Edward K. Hibshman, secretary of the Alumni News, over 1,500 graduates are expected to return to the College for this year's celebration. Reservations are being made and accommodations arranged for the repent which will be held on New Beaver onto only a demonstration of physical prowess and endurance, but also a remarkable show of spiritual feeling was stressed by the speaker. The Seranton pastor mentioned that the graduates at which the contestants took the oath with the first of its kind in the history of the Momen's Athletic association, and that it would bring the student body in the College for this year's celebration. Reservations are being made and accommodations arranged for the repent who will be held on New Beaver to the College for this year's celebration. Reservations are being made and accommodations arranged for the repent who will be converted to return to the College for this year's celebration. Reservations are being made and accommodations arranged for the repant which will be first that the plages are at alt the basis of their typographical makes them of the passes and embaration of physical prowess an

Dr. Hetzel To Address Mass Meeting at 7:30 O'clock

WATSON, ALUMNI HEAD, MAY GIVE SHORT TALK

Coach Bob Higgins Scheduled For Introduction of Team Members

Inaugurating what may beome a tradition at the College students will convene at the first all-College outdoor mass meeting in the East stands on New Beaver field at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

President Ralph D. Hetzel will be the main speaker at the rally, discussing some general topic dealing with undergraduate student life. Burley Watson, alumni president, who was football captain and star lineman while in College, may also talk.

Higgins To Speak

John A. Wood '23, president of Stu-dent Council, will preside at the mass meeting, which will be opened with the playing of "Victory" by the Blue Band. The speakers' platform will Band. The speakers' platform will be provided with four floodlights and Since the rally will also serve as a send-off for the football team, which leaves for Harvard Thursday, Conch Bob Higgins will discuss prospects for the game. Members of the team will then be introduced.

Committee Listed ....

All freshmen will assemble in Schwab auditorium at 7 o'clock to-morrow night, Wood said. Blue Band members will meet in front of the Auditorium at the same time to lead the freshmen to New Beaver field. Members of Druids, Friars, Parmi Nous and Skull and Bones will act as marshalls for the freshmen.

In addition to Wood, who heads the In addition to Wood, who heads the committee on arrangements, those assisting in developing the plans for the .mass meeting are Angelin Bressler '33, S. Louise Everet' 33, R. Albert Blaess '33, William E. Hartman '33. Herbert E. Longenecker '33, Wather C. Moser '33, Richard M. Shoop '33, John N. Rathmell '34, and Walter G. Benner ir '25 G. Benner jr. '35.

FRIBUNAL TO HOLD MEETING TONIGHT

15 Freshmen Must Answer Charges Of Insubordination, Dating, Dress Violations

Failure to observe dress customs. rainte to observe dress customs, talking to co-eds, dating, and insubordination will be the offenses for which fifteen freshmen will have to answer at a meeting of Student Tribunal in Room 405, Old Main, at 7 o'clock tonight, according to John L. McAndrews '33, president of the judiciary

Freshmen summoned to appear to night and failing to do so, will make themselves subject to more severe penalties, the Tribunal head declared. toms violations have received adequate notice to be present, he explained. All first year men reported for cus-

McAndrews warned freshmen that they may be summoned before Tri-bunal for non-observance of the "hello" custom. All students are supposed to speak to one another on the campus or in College buildings, and neglect of the custom by first year men is a punishable offense, the president said.