

Between the Lions with The Sports Editor

Last Saturday, after that bitter game, the numerous "Corner Coaches" that infest the Penn State campus opened their season. Between hard fought rubbers of bridge they derided the varsity coaching staff. During intermission of strenuous dances they condemned the purity policy of the administration. With every nickel "coke" another end of halfback was thrown into the scrap heap. Even the color scheme of the team was found wanting. They did praise the trumpet player in the freshman band and the water wagon. (Why don't they climb on?)

While the "Corner Coaches" were trying to lose the rest of the games this season the State team started to prepare for this week's game—a tough one.

Saturday our team—and at last we can call them our team, for no player is wearing a State football jersey just because a State football scout made an offer of the most money—Saturday our team plays Harvard's.

Since that autumn day eleven years ago when Harvard held State to a 21-to-21 tie things have changed. That dynasty, the deeds of which still provide subject matter for fraternity rushing and beery reminiscing, has passed, leaving a well-filled trophy case. . . . In the last years not only has the State athletic system been given a new deal, but even new cards are being used in a new game. The teams of the present generation composed as they are of men whose curricula also contain academic subjects, have not given the alumni an excuse for any "have this one on me" parties.

In the myopic eyes of the rest of the world, State's football reputation has suffered. As a result, Harvard has us booked for a warm-up game.

Although the Nittany Lions are not Southerners, they are going to try to please their distinguished host. Coach Higgins is going to use some ten-second backs, who will make the hallowed ground nice and dry. Then Bob has some powerful linemen who will provide enough friction to start the sparks flying. And of course the "Corner Coaches" can be depended upon to supply the exact amount of oxygen. . . .

Harvard scheduled State as a warm-up game. Here's hoping (we sound like an alumnus already) that Mister Casey and his chillun are plenty warm Saturday afternoon—and you too—"Corner Coaches."

Our Opponents

Harvard, 40—New Hampshire, 0

The Green Mountain boys could have used Ethan Allen. . . . We feel sorry for Harvard if what the New York Times says is true: "Harvard's first two teams showed up well, but the rest of the squad was weak. . . . Only two good teams—that will never do."

Ohio Wesleyan, 19—Syracuse, 12

Vic Hanson and our Bob both thumbed through the COLLEGIAN for headache powder ads. . . .

Florida, 19—Sewanee, 0

The boys from the Everglades swamped (oh my) our houseparty rivals. . . . In other words, they marched to victory.

Colgate, 47—Niagara, 0

Andy Kerr's kids don't fool.

Temple, 14—West Virginia, 13

Something ought to be done about that point after touchdown. . . .

This and That

That inebriate at the game was not a Harvard scout. . . . Darn you, Jim Miller, you were right, but we hope your Rabbit doesn't die. . . . He's a swell footballer. . . . Bob Higgins is teaching his youngsters that B. C. means Before Currie. . . . Heard at the game from a gal who knows her football: "Why is one of the players wearing a baseball suit?" She was also a punster (although not so good as Spike Collins)—within one afternoon she thought up two: "My good Lohr" . . . and "Oh you wonderful Skemp."

The regular conductor of this colyum is week-ending. The reason—a big blonde. Miss Hazleton of '16-'17-'18. So long until S. H. B. gets homesick again.

Yellow Jackets Defeat Nittany Gridmen For Second Time Waynesburg Upsets Lions, 7-to-6, in Dads' Day Game

"Rab" Currie Carries Ball 163 Yards on 10 Plays To Lead Opponent's Attack—Lohr Scores Single Touchdown

Waynesburg gets better as the game goes on, was one of the warnings from Joe Bedenk to Bob Higgins and his Nittany Lion gridders last week, and the Yellow Jackets proved Joe's assertion quite conclusively when they faced the Lions on New Beaver field Saturday.

They started out poorly, but as the game progressed they gathered more and more power until the climax, with just a minute to play, they scored a touchdown, a point after touchdown, and won the game by a 7-to-6 score.

It was almost a Penn State-"Rab" Currie game, rather than a Penn State-Waynesburg affair, for Mister "Rab" Currie passed and ran the ball pretty much as he pleased from start to finish, and his final fling, a forty-four and one-half yard run to place the ball within a foot of the goal line, was the master stroke to an afternoon of brilliant work.

Secures Winning Point
Adam Donnelly, who relieved Rose at quarterback for Waynesburg just before Currie's final run, carried the ball over the goal line and then kicked a placement goal for the extra point that meant victory, but all the credit for the victory should go to Currie.

Including his return of kickoffs and punts, the "Rab" carried the ball for a grand total of 163 yards in ten plays. He grabbed a Lion pass on his own forty yard line and ran to the State sixteen yard mark in the second quarter; he took a pass from Ross, his teammate, for a thirty-five yard gain in the third quarter; he recovered Bill Lohr's fumble on the State forty yard line in the fourth quarter; he returned four Penn State punts for a total of seventy-two yards; and topped off the day with that touchdown strut as the game neared its finish.

It would have been a tough game for Waynesburg to lose, just as it was a heartbreaker for the Nittany Lion eleven, for as far as actual play went, it was a toss-up between the two. State started out the stronger and the Yellow Jackets weren't beyond their own forty-one yard line during the first quarter.

Lohr Scores
The second and third quarters brought a different story, however, and the tables were reversed with Waynesburg dominating the play and Penn State finding it extremely hard to drive past the fifty-yard mark into the visitors' territory. Honors were

FRESHMEN TO COMPETE IN TRACK, FIELD MEET

Yearling Runners Will Strive for Cross Country Team Berths

Freshman trackmen will compete in a track and field meet on New Beaver field at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Coach Nate Cartmell has announced. The yearling runners will compete in the high and low hurdles, dashes, quarter mile, half mile, mile and two mile runs, with all field events also scheduled. Winners in the distance run will probably be selected to compete in the freshman cross country race against Pitt, according to the Nittany track mentor.

Varsity cross country runners will also compete in a trial race against Syracuse here on Alumni Day.

of seventy yards gained from scrimmage.

Defensively, State left much to be desired, but Jesse Brewster and Tommy Slusser, the latter until he was injured in the second quarter, stood out like a banner in the breeze. Brewster recovered the opening kickoff, a short one that travelled less than twenty yards, to give the Lions the ball at the start, and later in the game pounced on the ball after Currie had fumbled to stop a Waynesburg scoring threat.

Soccermen Hold Leopards Scoreless in Opening Tilt

Musser, Daykin, Knecht Register Goals as Booters Down Lafayette, 4-to-0

Lion soccermen scored an easy 4-to-0 win over Lafayette in their opening match on New Beaver field Saturday afternoon.

In spite of a slight weakness in the center, the Penn State team nevertheless kept the Maroon at a safe distance from the goal throughout the game. Both teams showed a tendency to too much altitude in their attempts to kick goals.

Captain Al Daykin and Chick Musser scored the first points for the Lions in the opening quarter, Daykin's goal being obtained on a penalty. Eddie Knecht, substituting for Fleisher at center forward, kicked a goal in the second period. Musser again came to the fore in the third quarter to add the final point.

Leopards Lack Coach
In the offense, Musser and Finzel played a vigorous game, while Daykin and Hartzler in the backfield took the lead in turning back the visitors' attempts to score. Goalkeeper Frank

OPPOSED HARVARD MENTOR

Assistant line coach, Earl E. "Spika" Leslie, who assumed his new duties here this year, played against Coach Casey of Harvard in 1919 when Oregon and Harvard played for the mythical championship of the United States.
