

Soccermen To Meet Harvard at Cambridge Tomorrow in Second Game of Season

Nittany Booters Will Face Springfield Eleven Monday

Coach Jeffrey's Protoges Stack Up Against Unknown Strength on First Trip

By WILLIAM B. PROTHERO '34

Springfield looms as the immovable object before the "irresistible force" that Coach Bill Jeffrey has been grooming for it.

Captain Al Daykin, starting at center, will lead the same team against Harvard that conquered Lafayette last Saturday, with only one replacement, Evans for Fletcher, at left halfback. Fifteen men will make the trip for the two games, according to Coach Jeffrey.

Frank Tully, at goal, will have as his immediate defensive aid Bob Young at right halfback and Frank Evans in the left halfback post. Dick Sigel and Hank Hartzler, right and left forwards, will lead the Lion attack, with secondary offense coming from Finsel, a sophomore, at inside right, and Chick Musser, inside left.

Eddie Knecht will again start at center forward, while outside right and left positions will be shared by Woffenden, Casterline, and Shorty Edwards, outstanding performers against the Maroon team last week. For reserve power Jeffrey will call upon Lindquist, Dutch Wolf and Graham.

FRESHMEN TO PLAY PRACTICE CONTEST

Yearling Gridders Will Compete In Game on New Beaver Field Tomorrow

By W. M. STEGMEIER '34

Without cheers, bands, or any balmy, sixty yearling grid candidates will struggle for top notches on Coach Nels Walke's squad in a practice game on New Beaver field at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

"What they show in this contest will go a long way in determining the starting lineup against the Pitt freshmen next Saturday," Walke said. "Competition is still pretty tight but every player will have a chance to come through tomorrow."

Entire Squad To Participate

Coach Walke has made no distinction of a first and second team in tomorrow's starting lineup. The team that opened the freshman-varsity irons several weeks ago has been split up rather badly to permit several shifts in positions. However, Weber, Frazer, Knapp, and O'Hara, the boys that looked particularly good against Bob Higgins' prides will again be seen in action.

Fry and Douglas will line up against Chandola and Gatavaskas, at

1936 Versus 1936

Fry	LE	Chandola
Weber	LT	Sloan
Cresswell	LG	McAndrews
Kessler	C	O'Hara, J.
Coppola	RG	Hilton
O'Neill	RT	Cope
Douglas	RE	Gatavaskas
O'Hara, F.	QB	Dyson
Maurer	LHB	Frazer
Knapp	RHB	Cooper
Small	FB	Andrews

ends, while Weber and O'Neill will tackle Sloan and Cope. Kessler will face J. O'Hara at center, and the guard positions will be held down by Cresswell and Coppola versus McAndrews and Hilton.

In the backfield, Walke will use F. O'Hara and Dyson as quarterbacks while Maurer, Knapp, Frazer, and Cooper will have a chance to show what they can do as halves. Small and Andrews will assume fullback responsibilities at the start of the game.

As Walke is planning to use his entire squad during the practice row, it is likely that Kensingler, Wismer, Buezkowski, McGregor, Estory, Mellet, McCrary, Vignola, Peel, Douglas, and Olendik will be among the next in line on the bench.

Harvard Team Deadlocked by Nittany Lion Gridmen, 21-to-21, in Last Game

The scene is the Harvard football stadium in 1921—a cold, grey day, with the darkness so nearly settled over the field that the spectators in the stands have difficulty in seeing the players.

Harvard has lagged behind, the score stands at 21-to-14, with only a few minutes to play. The Crimson drives to the opponents' eighteen-yard line, a pass over the goal line is successful, the kick for the extra point is successful and the score is tied at 21-to-21.

Penn State, for it is a fighting Nittany Lion team that opposes John Harvard, stages a comeback. Killing, Wilson, Lightner and Knapp slice off tackle, run around end from the Lion ten-yard line until the ball rests on the Crimson eighteen-yard line. The whistle blows, the game is over, and the score still deadlocked.

"That is the story of the last Penn State-Harvard football game. News-paper accounts characterized the contest as "as spectacular a game as any college gridiron has known in the past twenty years."

McCollum, "Rags" Madera, Baer, "Newsh" Bentz, Joe Bedenk, "Tiny" McMahon, and "Squeek" Hafford were on the Nittany line and Killing, Redinger, Lightner and Hess formed the backfield for the starting lineup in that game.

Harvard rolled up fourteen points in the first half, only to have the Blue and White eleven stage a second half comeback that just missed handing the Crimson its first defeat in five years. "Lighthorse Harry" Wilson carried the ball sixty yards to the Harvard four-yard mark for the longest run of the game, and first down statistics credited Penn State with eighteen, Harvard with twelve.

PREAS' TOE ADDS 18 POINTS

While playing tackle with Georgia Tech in 1916, Jim Preas scored eighteen points after touchdown in one game. Tech defeated Cumberland 212-to-0.

They are not present in Luckies... the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.
