

Collegian.

ESTABLISHED

Vol. 29, No. 12

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1932

PRICE FIVE CENTS

SHIELDS TO SPEAK AT DEDICATION OF NEW COLLEGE UNIT

President Hetzel, Miss Chace Included in Tomorrow Morning's Event

HOME ECONOMICS OPEN INSPECTION SCHEDULED

Dr. Hannah Lyons Will Presen Greetings From State Grange Group

Transferring the Home Economics building to the College, Col. J. Franklin Shields, president of the Board of Trustees, will be the principal speaker at the official dedication exercises of the new unit in Schwab auditoriim at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow

President Ralph D. Hetzel will a President Ralph D. Hetzel will accept the new building on behalf of the College, while Miss Edith P. Chace, head of the home economics department, will also make a short speech of acceptance. Dean Will Grant Chambers, head of the School of Education, will preside at the ceremontary

Trustees To Speak

Dibert, also a member of the Trustee Board, will present the greetings of the State Federation of Pennsylvania

To Inspect Building

Acting College Chaplain John H. Frizzell will deliver the invocation at the morning ceremonies. An open house will be held in the new building from 7 o'clock until 9 o'clock tomor-row night for inspection of the struc-ture, Miss Chace has announced.

Erected from funds appropriated by the State to relieve unemployment, the E-shaped structure was completed this summer, and contains both laboratories and practical work-rooms. It also features a modern nursery school and a cafeteria where school lunches

TO PRESENT SHOW

Joint Musical Revue For Houseparty

Continuing the plan inaugurated last fall, Penn State Players, the Glee Club and Thespians will combine in presenting a revue for the enter-tainment of the houseparty guests Saturday night, November 5, accord-ing to an announcement made last

A committee composed of Directo Richard W. Grant, head of the de-partment of music, Prof. Hummell Fishburn of the music department, Frank S. Neusbaum of the depart ment of English composition, and Edwir S. Malmed '33 will have charge School of Liberal Arts, Dean Ralph L. Watts, of the School of Agriculture, of the show Work has already been started in selecting members of the cast for the production.

Featuring local color, this year's Featuring local color, this year's revue will be of a new type. A better continuity between the acts of the three organizations will be maintained throughout the program.

The show will be presented only one night this year, instead of two as was the case last year. The combined presentation is the result of a three-very contraction of the color of the c year agreement between the three

20 STUDENTS WILL ATTEND CITY PLANNING CONFERENCES

Twenty members of the junior and Twenty members of the junior and senior classes in landscape architecture are planning to attend the twenty-eighth National City Planning conference in Pittsburgh, November 14, 15, and 16.

vember 14, 15, and 10.
Prof. John R. Bracken, head of the department, will accompany the twen-ty men on the trip. Judge William H. Bassett of New York City, former president of the national landscape architects, will be the principal speak-nat the meeting. er at the meeting.

Fraternities Draw

Block allotments for tickets to Block allotments for tickets to the Sewanee grid game were receiv-ed by fifty-seven fraternities fol-lowing drawings made by a student committee on seating arrangements yesterday morning.

Fraternities are requested to turn into the Athletic association office the number of tickets, together with cards and money, that they will need for the houseparty game not later than Tuesday. Tickets will then be distributed on Friday.

(Drawings Listed on Page Two

P. S. C. A. TO BEGIN DRIVE FOR $3,500

With $3,500 set as a goal, the ar nual financial drive of the Penn State Christian association will open at a "kick-off" dinner for the two hundred solicitors and thirty-five division leaders in the Sandwich shop, Old Main at 6:30 o'clock Monday night.

"A contribution from every Penn State man" will be the slogan of the campaign, which is under the direc-tion of Frank L. Weaver '33. Com-Greetings from the State Grange pared with last year's quote of $4,400, will be presented by Dr. Hannah Mck. Lyons, College Trustee, representing has been reduced considerably. Every the home economics committee of that dorganization, while Miss Florence M. a complete program, Weaver said.

To Make Co-ed Canvass Board, will present the greetings of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women.

A portrait of Miss Sarah Cutts Lovejoy, former head of the economics department, will be presented by zwill, a member of the board. Talks Miss Dorothy George of Harrisburg, by Robert M. Maxwell '33, president while Miss Mary E. Johnson, of Harrisburg has ben asked to talk on the activities of the former head of the plete the short meeting.

Division leaders attended a lunch eon at noon, yesterday to obtain advance information of the campaign.

Both the luncheon and Monday hight's dinner are through the courtesy of the advisory board of the Christian association.

Although a complete canvass will be made, each solicitor will be requir-ed to see only between ten and fifteen students. Boarding houses, fraterni-ties, dormitories, and residences will be visited for contributions. Plans for a faculty drive will be announced later.

The Women's Christian association drive will begin at the same time. Five division leaders have been appointed to supervise solicitors, according to Ruth M. Harmon '34, who is irecting the co-ed canvass.

TO EXHIBIT STUDENT WORK

An exhibition of student architec

DEAN C. W. STODDART.

and Dean Frank C. Whitmore, of the School of Chemistry and Physics.

None of the deans, however, believes that the proposed Bucknell plan, under which two years would be devoted to general arts training and two to

Houseparty Blocks I. F. C. CONSIDERS RUSHING CHANGES. NAMES CHAIRMEN

Ebenbach '33 Presents Proposed Code Endorsed by Tanner Wednesday Night

OMMITTEE APPOINTED TO JUDGE DECORATIONS

Group With Best Lawn Display Will Receive Cup-Song Contest Planned

Consideration of proposed rushing code changes, and appointment of chairmen for the interfraternity song contest, the student loan fund, auction bridge tournament, and fraternity libraries were the features of the regular meeting of Interfraternity against Bill Orange of Syracuse in the annual Alimin Home-

The rushing code proposed by the Fraternity Counsellors' committee two weeks ago and adopted by the Counsellors' association at its meet-ing Tuesday night was presented by Harris Ebenbach '33, chairman of the the houses competing in the contest.

Wayne R. Varnum '84, was named ctairman of the interfraternity song contest to be conducted in the latter part of this semester. Fraternities entering the contest will select groups of unlimited size which will render of unlimited size which will render songs of their own fraternity in competition.

Lewis Presents Plan
Presentation by Willard P. Lewis, College librarian, of a plan for fraternity book shelves to be sponsored by the College library resulted in the appointment of a committee headed by Emanuel Frisch '33 to consider the project. Houses desiring to build up a special collection of books will be assisted by the College library.

The student loan fund committee, with J. Phillp Evans '33 as its chairman, will make plans for a drive for funds by means of the sale of motion picture tickets, similar to the cam-paign conducted last year.

An auction bridge tournament, in charge of Ralph Vance '34, will be tural drawings will be shown in the sponsored by the Interfraternity third floor hall of Main Engineering council. The tournament will open today and tomorrow.

professional study, would be practical at Penn State. Rather, a spreading out of cultural subjects over four years is favored by the School heads technical curriculum could contain much less technical work than is required and much more work of a general nature," says Dean Stoddart. "There could be more concentration on absolute fundamentals, with the result that a good deal of the detailed training that is now required could be cut,out."

While admitting that "both are de-

I have always believed that a

LION GRIDMEN WILL MEET SYRACUSE BEFORE ALUMNI HOMECOMING CROWD

Both Elevens To Seek Comebacks After 2 Defeats

COLE, KANE, WANTSHOUSE. MIKELONIS OUT OF GAME

Outweighed 20 Pounds Per Man Nittany Team Still Hopes For Win Tomorrow

oming Day football game on New Beaver Field at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Counsellors' association at its meet time Truesday night was presented by Harris Ebenbach '33, chairman of the Interfraternity council committee on rushing. Prof. Sheldon C. Tanner, faculty member of the council Board of Control, endorsed the proposed code in a short talk following Ebenbach's report.

To Judge Contest
Edward K. Hibshman, Alumni secretary, William S. Hoffman, College registrar, and Donald M. Cresswell '19, assisted by two other alumni, will form the committee of judges in the fraternity house decoration contest tomorrow, it was announced by Herbert E. Longenecker '33, president of the council. The committee will judge the displays erected on the lawns of the houses competing in the contest.

Wayne R. Varnium '241 was warned.

Lions Outweiched

Last week the Lions of the outwelghed nineteen and one the law in a war with a bounds to a man when they faced flarvard. To-morrow the ante will he valsed to an ven twenty pounds per man with Syracuse averaging 188-pounds to the up a special collection of books will igolden opportunity to kick the old dope be assisted by the College library.

The student loan fund committee, will-to-win spirit that hasn't been man, will make plans for a drive for funds by means of the sale of motion picture tickets, similar to the campaign conducted last year.

In golden opportunity to kick the old dope bucket far and wide. A fighting, and will-to-win spirit that hasn't been time has come to the front in the past time weeks, and Mr. Tom Lombardi and company can expect a very, very busy afternoon up there tomorrow. Rosenberg To Start

With his squad badly battered as a result of the Harvard game, Coach "Bob" Higgins abandoned any idea of scrimmage practice this week, and contented himself with light signal

(Continued on page five)

No Athletic association cards will be accepted at the gates for to morrow's game. Exchanges must be made for regular sent tickets not later than tomorrow noon.

W. S. G. A. WILL CONDUCT ANNUAL DINNER DANCE

Co.edy To Hold Hallowe'en Function In McAllister Hall Monday

Sponsored by the W. S. G. A., the annual Hallowe'en dinner dance will be held in McAllister Hall dining room while admitting that "both are de-irable," Dean Robert L. Sackett, of he School of Engineering, maintains from 8 until 10 o'clock Monday night.
Rosamond W. Kaines '34 heads the the School of Engineering, manufath "the student cannot obtain in four years the essentials of the engineering method of thinking and also be required to take more subjects given in the School of Liberal Arts." He believes that "there could be more concentration on essentials and less concentration essentials and less concentration essentials are concentration essentials and les

Nittany Lion Centers

Large Orange Contingent To Accompany Team Here

Syracuse Will Bring Squad of 40 Men, Band For Nittany Contest Tomorrow

By EDWARD M: BARRY

Syracuse University football interests will center at State College tomorrow when Coach Hanson's Orange warriors go into action against their old rivals Penn State. Forty players accompanied by the coaching staff, university band and a large number of students will make the pilgrimage nto Pennsylvania.

RALLY OF SEASON

The biggest all-College football rally of the season will take place in Schwab auditorium at 8 o'clock to-urged that upperclassmen as well as freshmen attend to make the affair both the team and the alumni that Penn State is presenting a united front to wrest victory from Syracuse temorrow. Attendance of first-yearmen will of course be compulsory.

EDMONDS TO GIVE

CHAPEL ADDRESS

SET FOR TONIGHT

Unfortunately, the Syracuse team has had to depend almost entirely on sophomore material. With the exception of Captain Lombardi at tackle, BIGGEST FOOTBALL BIGGEST FOOTBALL Tindall at guard and Moran and Fish-el in the backfield the varsity team is made up of members of the crack Frosh team of last year.

At the very outset Coach Hanso ent about developing a strong pass went about developing a strong passing team and within a relatively short time was able to cope with the best of them in the passing game. A severe blow was given to the aerial attack plans by the injury of Lou Stark, a polished student in the art of throwing the pigskin. Stark is now in good condition and will see action in the game towards.

Captain Lombardi, one of the out-

Veterans Ready

3 Deans Favor Increase of
L. A. Courses in Curricula
Stoddart, Watts, Whitmore Would Include
Additional Cultural Subjects
Inclusion of a greater number of liberal arts subjects in the various curricula in the College is favored by Dean Charles W. Stoddart, of the School of Liberal Arts, Dean Ralph L. Watts, of the School of Chemistry and Physics.

of scrimmage practice this week, and contented himself with light signal occurrence in the light signal occurrence in the School of Chemistry and Physics.

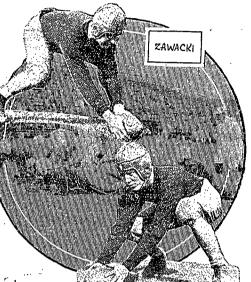

of scrimmage practice this week, and contented himself with light signal occurrence in the School of strimmage, for the Syracus formations as a preparation for the Week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the week was another factor outlawing scrimmage, for the gridders had different in the very numing signals out to the muddy, soggy practice fields.

Harry Rosenberg, diminutive end where returned to the squad last week after missing partice fields.

Harry Rosenberg, diminutive end where returned to the squad last week after missing partice fields.

Harry Rosenberg, diminutive end where returned to the squad last week after missing partice fields.

Harry Rosenberg

Alumni of Penn State will take he center of the stage here as they return to their Alma Mater o celebrate the thirteenth annual Alumni Homecoming today,

Graduates To Convene

At Yearly Reunion

This Week-end

ANNUAL VARSITY DINNER

SCHEDULED FOR TONIGHT

Registration Facilities Placed

In First Floor Lounge

Of Old Main

tombrrow, and Sunday. With two thousand visitors expected for the week-end a program of activities has been arranged by Edward K. Hibshman, executive secretary of the Alumni association. The program begins with the annual varsity din-ner at 6 o'clock tonight.

Graduates To Register

Graduates To Register
The visiting graduates will register in the first floor lounge of Old Main this year instead of at the Student Union desk as in former years. Registration will begin this morning and continue until tomorrow night.
Burly Watson '11, vice-president of the Alumni organization, will preside at the annual dinner at the Centre Hills Country Club tonight. All former lettermen will attend the dinner, only former athletes being allowed membership in the varsity club.

Rally Scheduled

Rally Scheduled

An added feature of the varsity dinner this year is the reunion of the football team of 1887, the first gridiron team to represent Penn State in ntercollegiate competition. embers of the team are expected to come together as a group for the sec-ond time since the team disbanded-forty-four years ago. The first re-union was held in New York City in

Pcp talks will be given by the former Nittany luminaries at the rally in Schwab auditorium tonight, and as they recall stories of the Lion prowess of former years, ex-cheerleaders will show the students how they "cheered the boys," while the Blue Band will lead in the singing of "Victory" and "Nittany Lion."

Gelf Tourney Listed

Schwab auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight when alumni cheerleaders will unite with Head Cheerleader Bill Hartman and his corps in leading College songs and cheers.

A capacity crowd is expected to greet Bob Higgins and his pack of Nittany Lion gridmen when they are introduced from the stage. The Blue Band will be present to entertain with College songs and marches.

Head Cheerleader Hartman has gurged that upperclassmen as well as house warming will be held in the new Home Economics building for the visitors, while the annual alumni clider Party in the Armory will begin at 8:30 o'clock. John A. Wood '33, president of Student Council, is in charge of the program for the affair.

hearer of the program for the affair. Holding its regular business meeting in Old Main at 8 o'clock tonight, the alumni executive board will discuss plans for the coming year. At the same time the students and alumni will pledge their support to the football tram for the Syracuse game tomorrow, at an athletic mass meet-ing in Schwab auditorium.

Week end activities will conclude Sunday with the Honorable Frankli-D. Edmonds, of Philadelphia, as the peaker scheduled for chapel services n Schwab auditorium at 11 o'clock.

ARTICLE BY ADAMS '32 APPEARS IN 'ENGINEER'

October Issue Features Articles by McCarthy '34, Hamilton '34

line is heavy and fairly fast. Steen and Hordinis, two sophomore tackles have flashed in recent scrimmages and may get the call over previous Syracuse tackles.

Through injuries and close competition, the guard assignments have been an open book. To date Frantill Kennedy and Tindail, veterans of last season, have proven most reliable although Stark, Singer, Gramlich and Machosky have seen plenty of action.

WILL HOLD THIRD CONCERT

Beethoven's Eroica symphony and Beethoven's Eroica symphony and compete the program of the third complete the program of the third corrow night. The concert is open to everyone.

Dom Project, written by Erwin and rhave also received advanced deproce of the Penn State Engineers and may get the call over previous Syracuse tackles.

Through injuries and close competition, the guard assignments have been an open book. To date Fran As author of "The Century's Progress in Education," "History of Central High-Schools of Philadelphia," and "Reciprocity in State Inheritance Taxation." Dr. Edmonds is prominent as an writer of historical and political congineering summer camp will also anticle on the "Magnitogorski," a steel ditionary Forces Y. M. C. A., and has since then become head of the legal department of that organization.

Because of his work along educational and historical lines, the chapeing construction company which has charge of the project, and seven other plant being construction company which has charge of the project, and seven other plant being construction company which has charge of the project, and seven other plant being construction company which has charge of the project, and seven other plant being construction company which has charge of the project, and seven other plant being construction company which has charge of the project, and seven other plant being construction company which has charge of the project, and seven other plant being construction company which has charge of the project. An article by Condens and the series of the project. An article on the Magnit

COMBINED GROUPS