

Between the Lions with The Sports Editor

What is the attitude of a team running up against an opponent from whom defeat is almost a certainty?

The Lions can answer that question today. For, tomorrow they face a Colgate eleven that undoubtedly outclasses even the master Maroon teams of the past. The Red Raiders are not only undefeated in the five games they have played; their goal line remains uncrossed, and they have run up a total of 164 points against their quintet of strong foes.

So-o-o-o, as Ed Wynn would say, that's the way things stand. The Lions do not expect to win tomorrow. They may not even score; although they have set as their goal the honor of being the first team to tally against the Maroon. If they keep the score within reasonable bounds and come out of the game bearing no serious injuries, they may regard the day as not entirely tragic in its consequences.

However, don't get the idea that the game will be handed to the Red Raiders on a silver platter. Far from it. The Lions will be in there fighting as long as they can. But miracles do not happen overnight, and even the most zealous Lion rooster need not feel disgraced if the great Colgate team adds another victory to its string tomorrow.

Our Opponents

Sewanee-Louisiana State

Sewanee has been staging an impressive comeback from her early season form with two victories in the past two weeks. Biff Jones' strong eleven will probably put a halt to that tomorrow, however, by a couple of touchdowns. The Lions should postpone it another week next Saturday.

Temple-Carnegie Tech

It should be a real battle when the Owls and the Tartans tangle in Philly tonight. The Plaid is bound to be on the rebound after last week's whitewashing at Notre Dame's hands, and we're picking them to nose out the strong but uninspired Cherry and White eleven.

This and That

Joe Miller is the new boxing coach at Duquesne. . . . With Al Lewis in charge at W. & J., what a match it should be when the Dukes and the Presidents meet in the squared circle. . . . Incidentally, when Tommy Slusser and Joe Moran meet again the tone of things is likely to have a different ring. . . . Waynesburg is now the only undefeated and untied eleven in Western Pennsylvania. . . . And that includes Pitt, Morry. . . . The cross-country boys are expecting to mosey into the Pitt-Notre Dame game tomorrow. . . . We'll be seein' you in Hamilton. . . .

LION GRIDDERS TO OPPOSE COLGATE TOMORROW

Lion Soccermen, Harriers Will Play Away Tomorrow

Nittany Booters To Oppose Main Liners at Haverford—Cross Countrymen Set For Pitt in Last Meet

The Nittany Lion will leave his lair this week-end to forage in foreign territory for his athletic laurels, as the Blue and White soccer team meets Haverford at Haverford, while the Lion harriers compete against the Panther cross countrymen at Pittsburgh tomorrow afternoon.

With a two-weeks layoff from intercollegiate competition to put them in the pink of condition, Bill Jeffrey's booters are well prepared to handle the Main Liners' attack, and in return display an offense that has been working smoothly and has overwhelmed the second team in practice sessions during the last week.

Coach Jim McPete will rely on his 6-foot, 4-inch goal tender, Zintel, to stave off the Nittany offense. In last year's game here it was mainly through Zintel's great performance that the Lions were unable to score. Another man who will bear close watching Saturday is Ritchie, outside right, the key man of the Main Liners' offense.

Fifteen men made the trip to Haverford, and Jeffrey expects to use the same lineup that started against Springfield. Captain Al Daykin will occupy the center halfback post, being flanked by Frank Evans at left halfback and either Graham or Young on his right. Tully will start at goal and Lindquist will relieve him or substitute at fullback.

Harriers To Meet Pitt

Lion harriers are expecting a rather easy time of it in their meet on the Schenley Park course against Pitt tomorrow. For the past three years the Penn State cross country teams have defeated Panther runners by perfect scores and will aim at another 15-to-40 count tomorrow.

Coach Nate Cartmell will enter the same seven men who defeated Syracuse Saturday in the meet against the Blue and Gold team. Captain Charlie King and Kenny England finished in a tie for first place against the Panthers last year, and will be out to repeat.

Curt Grenninger, Nittany veteran, who was nosed out for first place in the first contest of the season will probably set the gait for the rest of the Blue and White squad composed of Bill Space, Bill Van Cise, Johnny Napoleon and George Harvey.

Probably the outstanding man on the opposing team is Ken Wagenhouser, sophomore star who won first place in victories against Westminster and West Virginia. Other entries named by the Pitt mentor, Coach Olson, include Captain Jimmy Clise, Albright, Kepner, Kirkpatrick, Lawrence, and Watkins.

Freshmen To Compete

Nittany freshmen will be seeking revenge for a defeat suffered last year when they met Panther cubs before the varsity meet tomorrow morning. The Nittany mentor has named Book, Light, Hoffman, Barnes, Packard, Burns and Strause to enter the race.

MAROON FAVORED IN THIRD MEETING

to see action before the final whistle.

The Lions will be aiming at one goal tomorrow, and that is to snap Colgate's string of games in which its opponent hasn't crossed the Maroon goal line. Harvard's powerful eleven couldn't prevent the Lions' from collecting a pair of touchdowns two weeks ago, and, given half a chance, the Nittany offense should do what New York University, Lafayette, Niagara, Case, and St. Lawrence didn't do—score against the "Red Raiders."

Line Outweighs Colgate

With Park and Flood adding weight to the line, the Nittany forward will outweigh Colgate's line by one pound, the Lions averaging 183 pounds and the Red Raiders 182. The New York backfield is considerably heavier than the Nittany quartet of ball-carriers with an average of 177½ pounds to 161 pounds.

Although Colgate will present one of the lightest teams that it has boasted the past few years, the Red Raiders more than make up for their lack of bulk by their speed and clever offense. Their 14-to-0 triumph over New York University last Saturday brought them credit of having "one of the most deceptive and cleverly fabricated offenses to be seen in football today" from New York City sports writers.

4 YEARS of opportunity

SO MUCH can be gained from these undergraduate years. Campus leadership. Classroom scholarship. Lifelong friendships. Energy and health are important assets for the man who would get the most from these years.

Too often constipation is permitted to sap health and undermine vitality. It can become a serious handicap.

A delicious cereal will overcome this condition. Two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will promote regular habits. ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk," vitamin B and iron. Ask that it be served at your fraternity house or campus restaurant.

The most popular ready-to-eat cereals served in the dining-rooms of American colleges, eating clubs and fraternities are made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. They include Kellogg's Corn Flakes, PEP Bran Flakes, Rice Krispies, Wheat Krumbles, and Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit. Also Kaffee Hag Coffee—real coffee that lets you sleep.

BETTER KIND

HERE are entirely different kinds of tobacco.

Blend them and you get a different taste.

Cross-Blend them and you get a better taste.

While blending mixes the tobaccos together, Cross-Blending "welds" and "joins" their flavors into one.

Imagine doing this with the world's finest cigarette tobaccos—many kinds of Bright tobacco, a great many types of Burley tobacco and numerous grades of Turkish tobacco!

What you have when you've finished is Chesterfield tobacco—better than any one kind, better than a blend of all kinds—really a new kind of tobacco flavor that's milder, more fragrant and a whole lot more pleasing to the taste.
