TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1932

WITH THREE WEEKS of mulling and discussion already spent on next year's rushing code, a committee on Freshman Week now asks the cooperation of Interfraternity Council in eliminating rushing before Sunday of the opening period.

A SIX O'CLOCK DINNER hour has been one of the goals of athletic officials ever since the idea of "Athletics for All" was proposed.

THE POLL of the students and faculty is being conducted mainly in the interests of stimulating thought on the political candidates and issues that are being bruited about so much at the present time.

WITH A NOTE of sadness we view the most recent addition to the Penn State legion of "honoraries." In fact before any new honorary is founded it ought to fulfill some great need in order to justify its existence.

WHILE A COMMITTEE wrestles with the problems of improving Freshman Week it seems timely to suggest the elimination of the intelligence test from the already crowded schedule that confronts the entering student.

IT IS AN INTERESTING commentary to note that only five traditions now remain at Michigan State as the result of a Student Council house-cleaning of outworn regulations.

CLIQUEs have always been organized for the freshman class elections—prohibitory rules notwithstanding. Although the offices for which the freshmen compete give little opportunity for service or recognition and seem hardly worth the effort spent, the experience gained by the freshman politicians makes legalization of cliques a constructive move.

OLD MANIA

Edtrs. Note: The Maniac having left our bed and board, the editors of this paper disclaim all responsibility for what appears in the column.

It has come to the attention of The Maniac that "Jingles" Balthaser has lately joined the ranks of that sect commonly known as Lovers. Uhuh! That happy looking big blonde boy that you see carrying a certain co-ed's books up and down, up and down, up n' down, (it's killing us) the campus is the lad. And while we're on the subject, next week we'll have another romance for you, and the next, and the next...

They had us worried for a while folks. We've always maintained that it was perfectly all right to attack established institutions, and have firmly believed that the college student should be the first to lead those who storm the gates that need storming. We've always liked to see good chiseling, too, but when they start in to chisel and tear down our main place of abode, when we see our very source of cokes disappearing before our very eyes, then fellow citizens, then it's time for men of courage, men of backbone, all of us, to step in with a protest.

We refer to the cuckoo clock on the Corner as Usual.

Yes, we heard the story about another lad looking for Galbraith on the second floor of the Kappa House. Must be a game. Wonder if you noticed the Skipped Rotisee Blades performing on the Corner the other (Saturday) night. Great stuff these initiations. Some of the same boys were found near Pleasant Gap 'bout 2:30 A. M., too. Must have been plenty of Gaping about that hour...

For weeks we have been suppressing the urge to call one of our contemporary mud-slingers a stench in the nostrils of collegiate journalism. You hear that, Mr. Campuser? Steal our stuff would you? Take that and that and that!

Speaking of stench, out in the western part of the state where they grow cathedrals of learning the official student publication advertised far and wide for an original title. For long nights the editors sat at their desks groping for flashy titles like: The Sentinel, Watchdog, Beiblatt, Beobachter, Call, and so on. After some days of this and no suggestions from the outside world the paper finally appeared under the impressive Anglo-Saxon title—The Pitt News. Congratulations!

We'd like to settle this question of puns once, and for all. Do you, or do you not, like them? Not that we really care, but we wish you'd let us know. Personally we've decided that puns are half wit and half humor. Humor you try the mofe wit you have to halve. Whew! Well, cigarette life if you don't weaken!

PEARLS: "Sugar" Mjnutkas is taking advanced R. O. T. C. as is the vice-president of the Social Problems Club (shhh) ... somebody wired the Phi Mu front door shut Friday night ... Who was the certain football player who called a particular official five-fingered words? ... and the same smart fellér that started that Mahatma stuff is calling the associate P. S. C. A. secretary "Omar the Ham-maker" ... a baker's half-dozen of the Lane smoothies were Jured to the library by what co-ed who failed to show up? ... and here is our own poetic offering of the week:

Did you ever see Murtorff
With his blue & white short-off?
only forty-five days (count 'em) until Christmas ... and to finals? ... Well, as one of Shakespeare's witches said, "Winchell we three meet again?"

P. S. C. A. INTERVIEWS 120 FOR FRESHMAN COMMISSION

One hundred and twenty freshmen are now being interviewed by members of the Penn State Christian association preparatory to choosing the Freshman commission from the class of 1936, according to John E. Ryan '34 in charge of the work.

From this number thirty-five men who are expected to be the leaders in various activities during their College career will be selected. Recommendations for the commissions were made by fraternity presidents and scheduling officers.

How To Avoid BONERS

BACCHUS WAS A FAMOUS GREEK BOOTLEGGER

TRY to forgive him. Poor chap, he really means well, even if he does think his posterity is the thing he sits on!

If you're really sorry for Bill Boner, give him a pipe and some good tobacco. That will straighten him out—for a pipe filled with Edgeworth Smoking Tobacco clears the brain for straight thinking. As you know, Edgeworth was proved by a recent investigation to be the favorite smoking tobacco at 42 out of 54 leading colleges.

The college man likes that distinctive flavor that comes only from this blend of fine old burleys. It's different. It's a soothing, relaxing sort of smoke that makes the job in hand just a little easier.

You can buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes—15¢ pocket package to pound humidior tin. Or—perhaps you'd like to try before you buy. Then write for a free sample packet. Address Larus & Bro. Co., 120 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

NEW! Strapless and Backless Brassiere

Entirely strapless and backless, this double-net brassiere was created especially for low-cut evening gowns. Light but firm little bones hold it securely in place and its ribbon pulls are adjustable to exactly the amount of "uplift" you personally require. The girdle is one of Maiden Form's clever new "High-Waist" styles—designed to give the slim waistline so essential with present day fashions. It is made of dainty figured batiste and elastic mesh.
