

Between the Lions with The Sports Editor

Our Opponents

Sewanee, 0—Louisiana State, 38

Unless Louisiana State is seven points better than Colgate, the results of the last games before Saturday's Houseparty clash should give the Lions quite an edge.

Temple, 7—Carnegie Tech, 7

Hats off to the Tartans for destroying the bugaboo of greatness that has been built up around the Owls through expert publicity. This is one tie Temple was lucky to gain, for they were outrushed and outplayed.

This and That

Colgate impressions . . . Some observers have compared Hamilton with State College . . . We think the N. Y. village might better be compared with Pleasant Gap . . . Colgate may very well be termed the biggest football college in the East . . . The football "stadium" reposes right in the middle of Front Campus . . . The Lions stayed at the Hotel Syracuse in company with the Michigan State eleven and a convention of magicians . . . Saturday afternoon it looked as though some of the magicians had been induced to transfer to the Colgate backfield . . . The crowd at the game numbered only about 5,000, but it was the biggest crowd Colgate has had at a home game in ten years, the natives told us . . . The ovation our own Sea gull got when he left the field was far from the usual birdie . . . Colgate was penalized so much for holding and roughness that the referee placed second when ball-carrying statistics were compiled . . . The Colgate band showed off its beautiful new uniforms . . . Then the alumni showed their appreciation of the beautiful by tossing coins in the band's benefit blanket . . . The Lions amazed the victorious Maroon by singing "Victory" at the top of their voices on the way back through town . . . Stan Zawacki's good behavior on past Syracuse trips has been so good that the brother of a certain Syracuse young lady had Stan paged in the Syracuse lobby, inviting him to take said sister out again . . . Most of the boys ended up at a movie called "Rackety Rax" which is a satire on the overemphasis of football at certain colleges . . . That was piling it on a bit heavy for one day. —S. H. B.

Lion Harriers End Seventh Straight Year Undefeated

Coach Nate Cartmell's Cross Country Team Downs Panther Runners 18-37

By JAMES M. SHEEN '31

Penn State cross country runners met no pitfalls in their meet against Panther hill and dalers Saturday.

When Lion harriers downed the Pitt cross country team 18-37 at Pittsburgh, it marked the seventh successive undefeated season for Nittany runners in dual meets.

Pitt runners in fourth and sixth places marred the perfect scores that Penn State hill and dalers have held over the Panther harriers for the past three years. The Lion victory resulted from first, second, third, fifth, and seventh places.

Grenninger Takes First
Curt Grenninger's steady plugging over the five and three-eighths mile Schenley Park course enabled him to reach the finish tape first in twenty-eight minutes and one second.

Albright, flashy Panther runner captured fourth place, followed by Bill Van Cise, who also ran his last dual contest as a Blue and White harrier. Ken Wagenhouser, probably the outstanding runner on the Pitt team, met a reverse after a brilliantly successful season, and came home in sixth place.

Completing the Nittany scoring, Johnny Napoleon finished the long jaunt in seventh place, followed by George Harvey, sophomore runner, in the eighth position. Kirkpatrick and Kerr finished ninth and tenth for the Panther team.

Freshmen Defeated
Freshmen runners failed in their quest for revenge for last year's defeat, losing to the Panther cubs 25-30. Book captured second place for the yearling harriers, while Light gained a fourth place. Hoffman, Burnes, and Barnes captured seventh, eighth, and ninth positions to complete the Lion scoring.

I. M. FOOTBALL TEAMS PLAY 3 GAMES DAILY

Will Have Use of Additional Field For Afternoon Contests

With the acquisition of an additional field on the golf course for afternoon games, three contests instead of two will be played daily in the intramural touch football tournament, William H. Crown jr. '34, manager, announced yesterday.

No afternoon games will be scheduled for Mondays, while three will be played on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Because of difficulty by the groups in getting their teams together on Fridays and Saturdays, no contests will take place on those days. Delta Chi will meet Lambda Chi Alpha on the new touch football field on the golf course at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon.

duty at fullback to complete the team. Captain "Spike" Collins, Anderson, Kreizman, Long, and Berry went into action halfway before the end of the first quarter, and "Zev" Zawacki followed a short time later, but Harper, Woolbert, and Hesch, Lion stalwarts who have played as regulars in almost every game this season, watched the entire game from the sidelines.

The contest was so much a Colgate triumph that there are few bouquets to toss to Lion players. Harry Sigel, sophomore halfback, celebrated his return to play after a two-weeks' lay-off to twice carry the ball for individual gains of twenty-five and thirty-five yards, the latter run coming as the return of one of Colgate's punts.

What is Cross Blending?
an Artist might explain it this way...

"Let's say you're painting clouds. You've got your primary colors here on the palette. But you haven't the clouds until you blend certain colors into the special tone you want. "This is very much what happens in making a good cigarette. And I gather that what Chesterfield means by Cross-Blending is what an artist does with colors. Their Domestic and Turkish tobaccos—many varieties of each—are the primary colors. They blend and cross-blend these tobaccos until they get the special tone they want—in other words, the Chesterfield flavor. "And just as each color you use acts on the others to change and enrich them, so each Chesterfield tobacco partakes of the fine qualities of every other. "You 'weld' different kinds to get a better kind. That's Cross-Blending!"
