

Nittany Lion Gridders Choose 2 All-Opponent Elevens

COLGATE PLAYERS LEAD SELECTIONS

5 Red Raiders Gain Places on First Team—Hardy Named Outstanding Rival

By GEORGE A. SCOTT '31

Colgate University's undefeated and untied Red Raiders gained five of the eleven berths on an all-opponent team selected by twenty-two Nittany Lion gridgers this week. Harvard placed three of its players, and Syracuse, Temple, and Waynesburg one each on the mythical eleven.

Irad Hardy, all-American tackle at Harvard last year, snared the major honors in the balloting, receiving the highest number of votes accorded a single player, sixteen, as well as recognition as the outstanding player to face the Lions this season. Captain Carl Hageman, a teammate, trailed Hardy by a single vote in popularity among the Lions.

Many Opponents Listed

Other opponents named as outstanding in their play against the Nittany gridgers were Captain Jack Morton, Sewanee tackle, Thompson, Sewanee, guard, "Rab" Currie, Waynesburg halfback, Ben Crickard, Harvard, Winnie Anderson, Rowe, Soleau, Ellis, and Smith, of Colgate, Pulley, Temple and Paul, Waynesburg center.

In addition to the two teams selected, honorable mention is given Lee, Prandecki, Van Heusch, Conroy, Fritts and Lyon of Colgate; Pilonis, Graham, Veneroso, Kemmerer, Pulley, Whitlock, Kilkuskie, Zukas and Johnson of Temple; Nazro, Esterly, Crane, Casey, Foscosolido and Dean, of Harvard; Lombardi, Wamsack, DiNunzio, and Fishel, of Syracuse; Brnjas and Paul, of Waynesburg; and K. Clark and Eagleton, of Sewanee.

College sports writers collaborated in the selection of an all-Beaver field eleven, which is listed in the accompanying box.

Hamas Faces End Of Boxing Career

An injured knee may stop the rise of Steve Hamas in the fistic world for all time, according to reports from the former Lion athlete, who wrenched the ligaments in his knee several months ago. After spending six weeks in the hospital, during which time an operation was performed, but the injured knee failed to respond to treatment, Hamas has now turned to coaching a Mautak, N. Y., high school football eleven.

THE JUGGERNAUT OF THE JUNGLE

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the famous animal painter, Paul Bransom... inspired by the savage charge of the African rhinoceros crashing through the untamed jungle. "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted" That package of mild Luckies
