Between the Lions

with The Sports Editor

Syracuse will bring one of the strongest teams in her history to State College for the Eastern Inter collegiate Boxing tournament here this week-end. The Orangemen coached by Roy Simmons, a former Hill boxer, are undefeated in dual meets this season. They swamped Toronto, Springfield; and M. I. .... Heavy Competition Stiff Rosy Rosenberg is perhaps the Blue and White's best bet for annexing a title. Cool, versatile, and defensively without a peer, Rosy has shown himself to be "Old Reliable." Bill Cramer, like Rosenberg undefeated this year, is far too aggressive, to be discounted by his opponents. If Bill cantake care of Hendry, of Columbia, he will win the title.

In the heavier weights the competi-tion is most fierce. Red Johnston wrestled this year with a style not

Maister and Walsh were the gentlemen who had the tough assignment of stopping our own Norrie McFarlane in the New York encounters.
Although Norris wasn't completely subdued, they did succeed in slowing him up a bit so far as scoring was concerned.

MEDALS SELECTED FOR WINNERS IN I. M. TRACK

First Round To Start Next Weel With 11 Events Scheduled

Medals will be awarded for the first three places in the intramural track competition, the first of which will be held next week, according to John B. Hewitt '34, manager.

The tournament will consist of eleven events, including the 70-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 880-yard dash, our-man 880-yard relay, one mile, and two mile run. The hammer throw, shotput, discus throw, and high jump are listed as the field events.

Entrance fee for the tourney will be twenty-five cents per man, and each man may enter as many events as he wishes, according to Hewitt.
