FRESHMAN CAGERS LOSE 2 CONTESTS

Lion Plebes Vanquished by Bucknell, Wyoming Fives in Season's Final Engagements

Failing to stop opponents' last-half scoring spurts, freshman basketballers, playing on foreign courts, came out on the small end in the two final tilts of their season. The yealings lost to Bucknell freshmen, 35-10-32, at Lewisburg Friday afternoon, and to Wyoming Seminary, 40-10-29, at Wilkes-Barre Saturday night.

In the Bucknell contest the Penn State freshmen led, 21-10-19, at half time, but failed to smother Lytle, Bucknell forward, during the last period. In the last two quarters the Bucknellian garnered six points, three of which represented the margin of the win.

A fine first-half performance against the strong Wyoming quintet resulted in a 17-10-17 deadlock at the end of that period. Again an opposing forward went on a scoring spree in the last two quarters, with Fisk of the Kingston five garnering eleven points. The 'Lion cubs' offense was decidedly weak during the last quarter.

Riley and Sutliff led the scoring for the freshmen in both contests. The yearling center chalked up ten counters against Bucknell and eight against Wyoming, while Sutliff at forward registered seven points in the first tilt and tied his team-mate with three field goals and two free throw tallies in the second encounter.

Scores Victory Over Phi Kappa Sigma In Final Tilt

Sigma Pi annexed the intramural basketball championship for 1933 by defeating Phi Kappa Sigma, 24-10-17, in Recreation hall Saturday afternoon. In the semi-finals, Sigma Pi defeated Phi Delta Theta 25-10-21, and Phi Kappa Sigma won from Alpha Tau Omega by a 39-10-12 score.

The first half of the game was close, with the score between periods standing at 12-10-7 in favor of Sigma Pi. Laatu of Sigma Pi and Harper of Phi Kappa Sigma were high scorers with five field goals and one foul goal each.

Laatu and Frew were paired as forwards for Sigma Pi, Newcomer, center, with Small and Jones as guards. For Phi Kappa Sigma, Harper and Beery were in the forward positions, Grimshaw at center, and Williams and Thomas at guard posts. No substitutions were made during the game.

An all-intramural team selected by Charles R. Gies '34, manager, and others who conducted the tourney will be published in next Friday's issue of the COLLEGIAN.

SYRACUSE MITMEN DEFEAT NAVY, 6-2

Moran Wins by 30-Second Knockout In 155-Pound Bout—Balash Loses to Lambert

Syracuse University mitmen added another big victory to their string and completed an undefeated season Saturday night by upsetting Navy in a dual meet at Syracuse by a 6-2 score.

Navy, defeated earlier this season by the University of Virginia, 5-3-3, captured only one bout against the Orange, Lambert gaining a decision over Tony Balash in the 175-pound fight. Two draw decisions, one in the 115-pound bout and the other in the heavyweight setto, gave the Midshipmen their second point in the meet.

Captain Joe Moran completed his collegiate dual meet career with a thirty-second knockout victory over Jack McNaughton, Navy 155-pounder, while Al Wertheimer finished his third undefeated year of dual meet competition with a decision over Dolan. George Negroni, Orange sophomore, knocked out Herold of the Navy in the third round of the 165-pound battle for the other knockout of the meet.

With Burket and Vavra earning draws in their bouts, the remaining Syracuse points were scored on decision victories by Robbins and Ross in the 135-pound and welterweight class.

Green Terror Team Downs Nittany Lion Ringmen, 4-3

Captain McAndrews, Napoleon, Zeleznock Win Victories in Final Meet of Season

By CHARLES A. MYERS '34

After putting two Western Marylanders away with the birdies in the first four fights, the Lion ringmen dropped the next three decisions to a trio of Terrors to lose their last meet of the season, 4-3, at Westminster, Md., Saturday.

Keyser, Gorski, and Captain Bernie Kaplan were the triumvirate that turned an expected Lion victory into what is probably the biggest upset of the 1933 boxing season here. The Marylanders had previously experienced a mediocre season, winning only one meet.

Ferrero Loses Unlucky Bout

Paul Ferrero's unlucky break in the lightweight bout was probably the deciding factor in giving the Terrors the meet. In the first round, Paul knocked Brown down for a count of eight and as he left his corner to resume the fight, blood streamed over his face from a head cut received earlier in the round. Although Paul had clearly won the round, the referee stopped the bout and gave the decision to the Western Marylander on a technical knockout.

Two bright spots in an otherwise glum day for the Lions were knockouts by Captain Johnny McAndrews and Johnny Napoleon. After out-pointing Oish in the first round of the welterweight bout, McAndrews connected a right cross which laid the Terror on the canvas in the second canto.

Brinsfield at will and then swung a windmill right which put the Terror on the "cold, cold ground." With these victories, Penn State's two Johnnies go into the intercollegiate undefeated.

Mike Zeleznock showed improved form to win the other Lion point from Armacost, an experienced Western Maryland featherweight. Mike knocked his man down two times in the third round.

Keyser, of the Terrors, used a left jab to good advantage in gaining the middleweight decision over Alex Turnbull, while "Mutt" Kessler lost a close verdict to Gorski in the 165-pound slugfest. Captain Bernie Kaplan left-hooked to repeat his victory of last year over Tom Slusser in the light-heavyweight fight. No heavyweight bout was used in the meet.

Saturday's victory marked the first Green Terror win over a Lion ring team, although there was a 3½-3½ tie in 1931. Last year the Lions swamped the Terrors, 5½-2-2½, downed them by 4-3 scores in 1930 and 1929, and defeated them 5-2-2 in 1928.

VOLLEYBALL TOURNEY OPENS

McAllister hall defeated Women's building, and Kappa Alpha Theta downed Alpha Chi Omega in the two games of the volleyball tournament played last Monday night in Recreation hall. The championship game will be played in the Armory March 30.

GRIDMEN TO STAGE PRACTICE CONTEST

Higgins Plans 'East-West' Game For April 1 as Feature Of Spring Training

By GEORGE A. SCOTT '34

Nittany Lion football candidates will play an "East-West" grid game of their own as part of the spring practice sessions, Coach Bob Higgins announced this week. The game will be staged on New Beaver field Saturday, April 1, weather permitting, according to the present plans.

Higgins has already divided his squad of some eighty candidates into "East" and "West" teams, the former being composed of men whose homes are in the Eastern part of the State and the latter of men who hail from that part of the State west of State College. Captain Tommy Slusser will lead the Western aggregation while Parker Berry, veteran tackle, has been selected as the Eastern leader.

Squad Numbers 80
The game will be of regulation length, with officials and all the trimmings to make it extra-legal. With the student body invited to witness the contest, the game will give the followers of the team an opportunity to gain an advance estimate of the strength of the 1933 eleven.

Lack of sufficient equipment to take care of the large number of candidates reporting for practice this year has kept the squad down to eighty men at the present time, but this number is expected to jump to the one hundred mark as soon as the winter sports season comes to a close.

Captain Slusser, Lou Kreizman, "King" Cole, and one or two other veterans of the 1932 campaign are still training with the boxing and wrestling teams and until they report, the squad will be considerably under its full strength.

SAWING A WOMAN IN HALF

ILLUSION:

A large packing case is exhibited on a raised platform. A young woman climbs into the box. Head, hands and feet protrude, and are held by spectators while the magician takes a crosscut saw and, with the help of an assistant, saws through the center of the box and apparently through the woman.

EXPLANATION:

There are many explanations for this illusion. One method of performing this illusion requires the presence of two girls in the box. One girl curls up in the left half of the box with her head and hands protruding, giving the effect you see illustrated above. The other girl is doubled up in the right half of the box, with only her feet showing. Nobody is sawed in half.

It's fun to be fooled — ... it's more fun to KNOW

Cigarette advertising, too, has its tricks. Consider the illusion that "Flavor" can be achieved by some kind of magical hocus-pocus in manufacturing.

EXPLANATION: Just three factors control the flavor of a cigarette. The addition of artificial flavoring. The blending of various tobaccos. And the quality of the tobaccos themselves.

Quality is by far the most important. Domestic cigarette tobaccos vary in price from 5¢ a pound up to 40¢ a pound. Imported tobaccos vary from 50¢ a pound to $1.15.

No wonder, then, that cigarettes differ in taste—since distinctive, pleasing flavor depends so largely upon the blending of the costlier tobaccos.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Try Camels. Give your taste a chance to sense the subtle difference that lies in costlier tobaccos... a difference that means all the world in smoking pleasure... in pure, unalloyed satisfaction.
