Final results of captaincy elections among Penn State's three major winter sports teams indicate that wise choices in selection of leaders have been made in each case. Tommy Slusser, Norry McFarlane, and Rosy Rosenberg are three athletes who have given themselves unselfishly to the sports which they will captain in 1934. Tommy will bear the serious job of leading Penn State's two most popular teams to success, while Norry and Rosy will be at the helm of basketball and wrestling in what promises to be the peak year for these two sports. Here's wishing all three undefeated seasons, although we're afraid we won't be here to enjoy them.

It is hard to understand why a special athletic award is not present when everyone is duly proud of our two intercollegiate boxing champs, certainly, intercollegiate champions in wrestling merit equally as much an honor of the sort that was tendered the two Johnnies. If this discrepancy in awards is due to genuine discrimination rather than to the oversight which we believe to be the cause, then those who cry aloud against the over-emphasis of football may well turn their attention to a new field.

This and That
Syracuse Daily Orange sports-writers insist on dubbing Rec hall the "Little Palestra" . . . and refer to the place unusual as "sort of an elaborate restaurant" . . . Somebody, on hearing the results of the national intercollegiate wrestling tournament at Lehigh notified, "You'll have to get up in the A. & M. to fool these Oklahoma boys" . . . which, to be honest, doesn't deserve mention even when the column is hard to fill. It took our old pals on the New York Times to reveal that that terrific right of Joe Moran's will see service in the future only to make out report cards. . . . You've guessed it; he'll get an Education diploma in June . . . Bez, who spent a lot of last summer with Joe at the Olympic games, calls the "killer" an "all-around good fellow" . . . which should be interesting news to Mutt Kessler and the other twenty-eight gentlemen who kissed the canvas after sudden and jolting contact with Mr. Moran's right . . . However, Bryan Hayes, who referees around these parts every now and then, considers our own Al Lewis the outstanding college boxer he has witnessed in over ten years of writing Hayes Ayes and Naves . . . Speaking of authorities, Lloyd Wilson, the gentleman you see playing with the telegraph ticker at every home athletic event, ranks up there with the best . . . He cites the battle between Steve Hamas and Swede Hansen of Temple as the most thrilling he has ever seen . . . and goes on to name McClernan, Washington, Johnny McAndrews, Lewis, Wolff, Frank, and Hamas as his personal "all-time" Penn State team.

Slusser, Rosenberg Elected Boxing, Wrestling Captains for Next Year

BALTHASER NAMED
1934 MIT MANAGER

Captain John L. McAndrews '33, John R. Napoleon '33, Captain-elect Slusser, Paul E. Ferrero '34, J. Frank Nebel '34, Alex D. Turnbull '34, Monroe L. Kessler '35, John L. Miller '35, and Michael Zeleznock '35.

In addition, gold boxing gloves were presented to Captain McAndrews and Napoleon, who won intercollegiate boxing titles in the 135 and 115-pound classes, respectively. A minor letter was awarded to Willard P. Huester '33, associate boxing manager.

The gym team captain for next year will be elected early next week. Lettermen and special awards will also be determined at the same time, according to Neil M. Fleming, graduate manager of athletics.

In addition to being next year's boxing captain, Slusser was also chosen as the 1933 football leader following the close of the grid season last fall. He boxed in the 165 and 175-pound classes this season, winning two dual meet bouts, drawing in one, and losing two.

Rosenberg was undefeated in 135-pound dual meet competition on the mat this year. He won victories over six opponents to score fifteen points during the season, but lost in the intercollegiate to a man whom he had previously defeated.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI EVENS
PLAY IN BOWLING FINALS

Defeats Kappa Delta Rho Team by 6-to-2 Score Tuesday Night

Winning two out of three games, Alpha Sigma Phi evened up the championship play-offs when they defeated Kappa Delta Rho by a score of 6-2 in the finals of the intramural bowling tourney Tuesday night.

Alpha Sigma Phi gained a 3-pin victory in the first game, but Kappa Delta Rho won the second ten frames by seventy-seven pins. Alpha Sigma Phi won the match with a brilliant 164-pin victory in the third game.

After losing the first game, Kappa Delta Rho won the final two to take the first match of the play-off series last Thursday. The score was 6-to-2, with Kappa Delta Rho earning two points for each game won and two for total high number of pins.

INJURY LEADS TO TITLE

Wes Brown, Northwestern University, was forced to give up football after he broke his right leg in his freshman year. He took up wrestling, and won the 175-pound championship of the Big Ten conference last Saturday for the third consecutive time.

Higgins Postpones
East-West Contest

Unfavorable weather conditions which made outdoor work impossible until this week has prompted Coach Bob Higgins to postpone the "East-West" spring football game scheduled for New Beaver field tomorrow. The game will be played at a later date, probably within the next two weeks, the Lion coach has announced.

The grid squad took advantage of the weather this week to work out on New Beaver field and will continue outdoor practice until the end of the spring training period. More than eighty men are in uniform for the pre-season training.

FENCERS TO MEET LEHIGH TOMORROW

Hesch, Kreeger, Lipecky, Rojohan Will Appear in Only Foil Match This Year

With Captain Marty Hesch scheduled to appear in both foil and epee bouts, varsity fencers will oppose Lehigh fencers at Bethlehem at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Five bouts will feature the only encounter on the Nittany foil team's card for the season. Kreeger, Lipecky, and Rojohan complete the list of fencers who will make the trip.

Captain Hesch and Lipecky are favored to win their bouts, while Kreeger and Rojohan will probably find the going more difficult but are rated on a par with their opponents.

The Nittany swordsmen have been working out during the past two months in preparation for the contest. Although the Lehigh foil team has already defeated Rutgers and Temple, Coach Nels Walke is looking forward to a Lion victory.

'36 WRESTLERS DEFEAT
SOPHOMORE TEAM, 18-16

Freshmen Score by Time Advantage, 2 Falls, Forfeit in Combat

Freshman wrestlers defeated the sophomore matmen by a score of 18-to-16 in Recreation hall Saturday afternoon. The yearlings scored two falls, one time advantage, and a forfeit, while the sophomores won one match by a fall and three by time advantages.

In the 115-pound class, Wolfson '36 won by a forfeit, while Beytin '36 secured a time advantage over Crowick '35 to win the featherweight title. Miller '36 threw Carlson '35 in the 135-pound class, and Horvath '35 won the 145-pound crown with a time advantage over Pinter '36.

The sophomores also won the 155-pound class title when Johnston secured a time advantage over Mather, but Hepler '36 threw Zimmerman '35 to annex the 165-pound event. The only fall for the sophomores was secured by Coskery when he threw Kravitz, and Eshelman '35 won the heavyweight crown by defeating Pollock '36 with a time advantage.

WINS VOLLEYBALL TOURNEY

Phi Mu forfeited to Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Kappa Alpha Theta defeated Alpha Omicron Pi 27-to-12 in this week's volleyball games.

ALTOONA DEFEATS SOUTH HIGH HERE

3,000 See Blair County Cagers Conquer Pittsburgh Five Tuesday Night

Over three thousand crazed rooters saw Altoona High annex scholastic basketball honors of the western part of the State by nailing out South High of Pittsburgh, 34-to-29, in Recreation hall Tuesday night.

By winning, Altoona earned the right to compete against the winner of the eastern title, Lower Merion, for the State interscholastic championship. Lower Merion eliminated Scranton Tech, 18-to-14, on an Allentown court Tuesday night.

Jesko Stars

The game in Recreation hall between the western teams was one of the most exciting exhibitions of basketball that Penn State has ever seen. Five times during the contest, the score was deadlocked; four of these ties occurred in the third quarter.

At the start of the final period of the game, the count cancelled at 21-to-21. However, two perfectly executed field shots by Knerley followed by a pair of clean ringers by Airhart gave the Altoona team the points

More than 100 first-year batsmen appeared on Beaver field for practice Wednesday afternoon, Coach Leo Houck stated yesterday.

Leslie Will Start
Spring Basketball
Practice Monday

Instituting a new idea in basketball methods at Penn State, Coach Spike Leslie will conduct spring court practice beginning Monday afternoon.

The Nittany Lion cage mentor has issued a call to all erstwhile courtmen who are not competing for some spring sport. In this way, he expects to get a slant at potential material for next year's team.

Only shooting and the fundamentals of the game will be taught, this spring, Leslie said. The sessions will last only an hour each afternoon and will continue for two or three weeks.

Jesko, who secured thirteen points for South High, lived up to his reputation for brilliant court playing, which he established in the Pittsburgh district this season. The teams were exceptionally well-matched, but the Altoona club wasn't able to keep the game on as steady a keel as Altoona.

South high led, 8-to-5, in the first quarter largely through Spotovich's floor work and excellent shooting. Altoona, with Patt as the principal scorer took the lead at half time, 15-to-11.

The third quarter was the closest part of the contest, with both teams staying within two points of each other throughout the period. The five-point margin which Altoona held at the close of the battle was the largest breach ever separating the two teams.

2 Cancelled Diamond Contests Replaced by St. Francis, Bucknell Games

Substitution of baseball games with Bucknell University and St. Vincent College for those cancelled by Syracuse and Colgate Universities and a five-match tennis schedule for this year was approved by the Board of Athletic Control this week.

The Bucknell contest will open the home season for the Lion batsmen on April 22, replacing a game originally scheduled with Colgate University. St. Vincent will appear here on the following Saturday, April 29, with the game taking the place of a two-game New York State trip which was cancelled when Syracuse and Colgate abandoned baseball.

Tennis Card Listed

Nittany Lion netmen will engage in five matches, one less than originally planned. A contest with Franklin and Marshall College scheduled for the New Beaver field courts on May 19 has been dropped at the latter's request.

Bucknell University will appear here April 29, followed by Carnegie Tech on May 6. Lehigh and Army will be met in the only away from home trip the week-end of May 12 and 13, and Dickinson College will offer opposition in the closing match here May 20.

Spring Intramurals
Will Start April 1

Spring intramural contests will begin April 1, according to an announcement by Albright S. Hoch '33, manager of all spring intramurals. Soccer, midgetball, tennis, golf, and track are the sports listed for spring competition.

Managers of the separate sports will be selected at an early date. Organization and completion of scheduling arrangements will be made as soon as possible, Hoch said.
