

TWENTY-FOURTH SUMMER SESSION OPENS

DEAN TO ORGANIZE MEN IN UNOFFICIAL HOUSES THIS WEEK

Newly-devised Plan Will Place Responsibility for Group With Single Person

EACH HOUSE TO CHOOSE PRESIDENT BY ELECTION

Unchaperoned Women Forbidden In Fraternities During Summer Session

A step towards definite organization of all "unofficial" fraternity houses...

To Elect Presidents The Dean of Men plans to appoint one man from each group...

"The purpose of organizing the groups in this way is similar to the purpose for having fraternity presidents during the regular sessions..."

Unchaperoned Women Banned The Dean also stated that a communication would be issued this week warning students that unchaperoned women may not be present in fraternities...

This ruling differs from the agreement made between the Interfraternity Council and the College officials last year concerning women in fraternity houses...

LOYOLA AWARDS TSCHAN HONORARY LAWS DEGREE

Ancient History Professor Receives Doctorate on June 7

Dr. Francis J. Tschan, professor of history, was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree by Loyola University of Chicago...

Dr. Tschan was graduated from Loyola University in 1901 and received his doctorate from the University of Chicago in 1916...

Specializing in ancient and medieval history, Dr. Tschan has done a large amount of research in that field and contributed a great deal to the knowledge of that period...

INTER-SESSION ENDS FRIDAY; LOW ENROLLMENT RECORDED

Inter-session, offering special two-week courses, closed Friday afternoon. Enrollment for the Inter-Session totalled 191 students...

Lectures during the Inter-Session period included "Character Studies and Speaking Likenesses of Great Literary Men" by Sidney W. Landon...

Attends Conventions

DEAN R. L. SACKETT

Dean Robert L. Sackett, of the School of Engineering, will participate in two important educational meetings in the mid-west this week...

The Penn State dean is vice-president and chairman of the second district of the National Collegiate Athletic Association...

EXCURSION TRIPS START TOMORROW

Students To Leave Auditorium At 8 O'clock—Weekly Outings Planned

The annual program of student excursions conducted by the College during the Summer Sessions will be inaugurated at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning when all students interested in the outings will assemble at Schwab auditorium for a trip through the Diamond Valley country...

Tomorrow's excursion will include the mountainous district south of State College and those making the trip will have a chance to swim at Whipple's Dam later in the day...

Low Cost Cited Prof. William R. White, of the School of Agriculture, who is directing the excursions, has announced that the cost of the outing will be so low that all students will be able to afford it...

Although plans are not yet complete the present tentative program includes excursions every Saturday during the Summer Session. Arrangements are being made by Professor White for trips to the Allan Sanger Memorial at Bear Meadows, to Penn's Cave, and the Snyder-Middleburgh virgin forest...

Groups desiring to make special evening trips should communicate with Professor White at the Agricultural Experiment Station so that he can complete arrangements. In past years, as many as a hundred students have taken these excursions.

Alumni, Student Players Operate Summer Stock Theatre on Hudson

On a wooded bluff overlooking the Hudson river, stands a shrine to art, the art colony "Elverhoj," at Milton-on-Hudson.

This summer it is being given over to the work of dramatic artists, a group of Penn State students, who have dubbed themselves the University Players and have thrown themselves knee-deep into the weekly production of well-known plays such as "The Royal Family," "There's Always Juliet," "The Importance of Being Earnest," and others.

Familiar faces in local campus dramatic circles, the players include J. Ewing Kennedy, producer, D. Henry Porterfield, scenic artist, Kenneth Holderman, stage manager, and Dorothy Fox, of New York City, business manager.

Other members of the group are Arthur C. Cunningham '33, Peter G. Meek '32, Ralph Radcliffe '31, Ralph Kennedy, H. Grace Baer '34, Lucetta Parker '33, Francis Armstrong of Lancaster, Pa., John Adam '33, and William D. Hartman '33.

SNYDER WILL OPEN SUMMER LECTURES ON THURSDAY NIGHT

To Give Talk at 7 O'clock on Subject "Keeping Ahead Of the Headlines"

NOTED TRAVELLER PLANS WORLD EVENTS SURVEY

Served as Advertising Manager, Public Relations Head, War Official

Opening the Summer Session lecture series, Frederic M. Snyder, world traveller and lecturer, will speak on the subject "Keeping Ahead of the Headlines" in Schwab auditorium Thursday night at 7 o'clock.

Outstanding world events and the economic interdependence of the nations of the world will be discussed by the lecturer in addition to an outline of the romance of news gathering, in his talk Thursday night.

After studying journalism and advertising, Mr. Snyder served as a news reporter for several small publications and later as advertising manager for a large department store in New York City.

In 1921 the speaker became director of public relations for several large corporations and made social surveys of eight European countries in connection with this work in 1923.

Designated Olympic Memorial Designated as a special commissioner of the Press Congress of the World in 1925 in recognition of his efforts to establish goodwill among the journalists of the world, Mr. Snyder was an observer at the press section of the League of Nations at Geneva.

The lecturer is one of six members of the board of control of the Walter Hines Page School of International Relations at Johns Hopkins University.

Borough traffic regulations will be strictly enforced during the Summer Session, it was announced Saturday by Chief of Police Albert E. Yougel.

YOUNG WILL ENFORCE TRAFFIC REGULATIONS

Police Chief Tells Summer Students To Obey Local Motor Code

Borough traffic regulations will be strictly enforced during the Summer Session, it was announced Saturday by Chief of Police Albert E. Yougel.

Students are warned to observe all stop signs in the borough, while parking regulations include no parking in the business section while attending classes, no double parking and no parking within thirty feet of a stop sign.

Reckless drivers will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, according to the chief. State College police have been conducting an intensive campaign against traffic violators since early spring.

Officials Postpone Reception to Friday

The annual reception and dance for Summer Session students and faculty scheduled for Recreation hall tomorrow night has been postponed until Friday night, Summer Session officials announced Saturday.

The borough Fourth of July celebration and the probability that a large number of students would be absent from the campus tomorrow night prompted the change in date, the officials said.

State College will observe Independence Day tomorrow with its annual Community Celebration, sponsored by the Alpha Fire company.

TOWN TO OBSERVE INDEPENDENCE DAY

Celebration Will Include Shows, Parade—Sponsored by Fire Company

State College will observe Independence Day tomorrow with its annual Community Celebration, sponsored by the Alpha Fire company.

Festivities will be started off by a band concert at 7:30 o'clock tonight by the Lemont Band at the midway on Allen street.

Tomorrow's program will begin at 9:30 o'clock in the morning when members of the Alpha Fire company will stage a fire drill and water battle on the high school grounds.

During the afternoon a Pet Show will be held at 3:30 o'clock at which time five prizes will be awarded, followed by a parade at 6:30 o'clock.

Fireworks will be displayed at 9 o'clock tonight on College avenue, the street being blocked off from Pugh to Burrows street, and an automobile will be awarded at 11:30 o'clock as a climax to the celebration.

ARMORY DESIGNATED AS RESERVE READING ROOM

Students To Obtain Reserve Books From Main Library Basement

Continuing the system inaugurated at the 1931-32 Summer Session, the Armory will again be used as an auxiliary library reading room this summer, according to Willard P. Lewis, College librarian.

All reserve books will be distributed at the reserve book desk in the basement of the central library, the Armory serving only as a reading room. Books may be taken out for two-hour periods during the day and from 9:30 o'clock at night until the same hour the following morning.

DR. HASEK SUBSTITUTES FOR LIBERAL ARTS DEAN

Dr. Carl W. Hasek, head of the department of economics and sociology, is serving as acting Dean of the School of Liberal Arts in the absence of Dean Charles W. Stoddard, who was granted a sabbatical leave by the Board of Trustees starting June 6.

Dean Stoddard will be absent for a period of six months. He intends to spend part of the time in the Adirondack mountains and also to take a trip through the southern states before the end of his vacation.

RACES CARDED TOMORROW

A program of six automobile races will be featured at the Altoona driving park tomorrow. Two ten-mile races, one of fifteen miles, a twenty-five-mile sweepstakes and sprint races are included on the program, which will begin at 2:30 o'clock.

LOCAL MAIL RATE REDUCED

Two-cent postage rates for letters mailed within State College went into effect on Saturday. The lower rate was announced recently by Postmaster-general James J. Farley.

2,400 Expected as Registration Begins

First Classes To Start Wednesday Morning At 8 O'clock—Officials Anticipate Drop of 900 in Attendance

With registration of students taking place in Recreation hall from 8 o'clock this morning until 8:45 o'clock tonight, the twenty-fourth Summer Session of the Pennsylvania State College will officially open with the first classes Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock.

An enrollment of approximately 2,400 is anticipated by officials of the Summer Session, this figure including those expected to register in the nature camps, French Institute, Altoona, and other branch sessions.

Registration Data Listed Advance registrants numbered more than 100, this group including almost 100 inter-session students who were permitted by the College to enroll for the coming term on Thursday afternoon in order to take advantage of the holiday tomorrow to enjoy a brief vacation between the two sessions.

Instructions for registration include three important duties, according to Dean Will G. Chambers, director of the Summer Session, first, secure application blank and consult faculty advisors, second, fill out class cards, and third, turn in schedule card to proper registration officials and pay fees.

Classes Scheduled Saturday Students enrolled at the College during the regular academic year must register with and have their schedules approved by the deans of the Schools in which they are enrolled during the regular session.

Advanced enrollments may be changed today or during the first week of the session upon payment of a special fee of $1.00. College regulations provide that the faculty advisor must write "change of course fee to be charged" on the revised schedule and application blank when approving such changes.

Students who wish their work to apply on a Master's degree or doctorate at the College will register with Dean Frank D. Kern of the Graduate School. This regulation pressed upon the organization last

SUMMER PLAYERS' WORK ABANDONED

Will Not Form Annual Group Due to Low Finances—Professional Company To Appear

The Summer Session Players will not organize their annual group this summer, according to a recent statement by Prof. Arthur C. Cloetingh, of the department of English literature and director of Penn State and Summer Session Players.

Because of the financial strain pressed upon the organization last

(Continued on page three)

TWENTY-FOURTH SUMMER SESSION THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE

Official Announcements

MONDAY, JULY 3, 1933

8:00 A. M. to 12 M. and 1:30 to 5:00 P. M.—Registration. Recreation Hall. Attention is called to the following changes in the complete Summer Session Bulletin:

Commerce 5S will meet in room 3 S. L. A. Education 10S will meet in room 200 Eng. E. Education 585S is intended for candidates for M.Ed. degree. Registrants should have approval of Dr. Peters before enrolling.

English Literature 517S. Course description should read: "A study of the works of Wordsworth, Coleridge, Southey, and Scott."

French 52S will meet in room 102 M. Eng. German 2S will meet in room 22 N. L. A. History 433S will meet in room 22 S. L. A. Home Economics 104S will be taught by Miss Adolph, in room 108 Home Economics Building.

Physical Chemistry 491S will meet the 3rd period and room 10 C. A. will be used as well as room 8 C. A. Sociology 5S will meet in room 3 S. L. A. Sociology 426S, Training of Unemployment Relief Workers, is a new course and is described in a special circular which may be obtained at Information Desk. Course requires full time of registrants; meets in room 1 S. L. A.; grants six credits; and will be under general direction of Miss Kersey.

TUESDAY, JULY 4, HOLIDAY

8:00 A. M.—Diamond Valley Mountain Excursion. Leaves from front of Auditorium. Individuals interested should confer in advance with Prof. W. R. White, Director of Excursions, Agriculture Department.

(Continued on page three)